Apple Blossom

By James Stephen

He thought
of naught
But the Blossom of the Apple!

He thought
That aught
That blows on tree.

Sweetest is that sweet blossom!
—And sweeter than that
Is she—

Now he is made.

And naught's to do!

How could he other be who had

These twelve
Long months
Thus brooded you.

And thought
Of naught
But the Blossom of the Apple!

Cecilia Music Club

Gives Chapel Program.

Fourteen members of the Cecilia Music club went to Boiling Springs on Wednesday morning where they gave a program at the chapel hour at the college there. The attractive program rendered consisted of choral numbers by the entire group, two solos sung by Mrs. Dale Kalter and an instrumental solo by Miss Mary Helen Latimore.

Attend Banquet

At Hickory.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Richbourg and Mr. and Mrs. Moose went to Hickory last night where they were guests at a banquet given for managers of A. and P. stores and their wives. Mr. Reeser, assistant superintendent for this territory, and Mrs. Reeser were hosts at their home. The group decided to organize a circle, including the managers and their wives, which is to meet once each month at the homes of the members in different towns. Mr. and Mrs. Richbourg will entertain the group next month.

Mrs. C. B. Suttle

Club Hostess.

On Thursday afternoon at her home in Cleveland Springs Estates Mrs. C. B. Suttle was a charming hostess to the members of the Isthmus club and a few invited guests. A delightful program on the drama was enjoyed, consisting of two papers, one by Mrs. D. W. Royster on "Dramatists of the South," in which she discussed Paul Green and the Carolina Playmakers, and another by Mrs. Frank Hoey on "North Carolina Playwrights." Miss Mary Moore, of Forest City, gave an attractive discussion of current topics, particularly of music, literature, art and other such subjects.

Mrs. Suttle was assisted by Mrs. Jack Dover and Miss Lucy Hamrick in serving a pretty salad course, a decorative feature of which was a sandwich topped with a spray of cherries.

Invited guests were Mesdames B. A. Lefler, Horace Easom and John Suttle.

Mrs. Drum Hostess

To Bridge Club.

On Wednesday afternoon at her home on Cleveland Springs road, Mrs. Renn Drum was hostess to the members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club and a few invited guests, with Miss Millicent Blanton as guest of honor. Small wedding bells were

Music And Arts Division Meets.

On Wednesday afternoon at the club room Mesdames B. O. Stevenson, Paul Webb, Jr., and Victor Wray were joint hostesses at a lovely meeting of the music and arts division of the Woman's club. After a short business meeting the program was begun with a paper on "The Life and Works of Rob Roy Perry," written by Mrs. Jean Schenck and read by Miss Elizabeth Roberts. Miss Mary Adelaide Roberts sang a song composed by Perry, for which she was accompanied by Miss Minnie Eddins Roberts. A sketch of the "Lives of W. W. Turrentine and Lockwood Robbins" was given by Mrs. Esley Pendleton. A solo, "Dreaming" by Turrentine was sung by Miss Minnie Eddins Roberts with Miss Mary Adelaide Roberts as accompanist. Miss Esther Ann Quinn played a piano solo, which closed a very enjoyable program.

The hostesses served simple but delicious refreshments consisting of sandwiches and tea.

Lovely Party

For Miss Blanton.

Mrs. B. O. Stephenson was a gracious hostess on Thursday afternoon at a pretty bridge and rock party in compliment to Miss Millicent Blanton, whose wedding will take place next week. Graceful vases of sweet peas and gypsophila centered each of the eight tables arranged in the spacious rooms. The bridal idea was carried out in the most exquisite detail in tallies, refreshments and gift wrappings. After several progressions when scores were added Mrs. Oliver Anthony was fortunate enough to have piled up high score and received a pretty box of stationery. Miss Blanton was given a trophy. Miss Blanton was given a prize.

Out-of-town guests present especially for the occasion were: Mrs. Stephenson's aunt, Mrs. B. B. Morgan, and Miss Blanton's aunt, Mrs. Charles Hanes, both of Gaffney, S.C.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. F. R. Morgan, Mrs. Gerald Morgan and Mrs. Charles Williams in serving a delicious salad course followed by a sweet course consisting of ice cream, wedding bells with pink and green iced cakes.

P. T. A. Organized

At Dover School.

On Monday afternoon the teachers and a number of patrons of the Dover school held a meeting at the school for the purpose of organizing a parent teacher association. An attractive and instructive program was given, including talks by Mrs. C. M. Stroup, Miss Agnes McBrayer and Rev. W. A. Elam. Officers for the infant organization were elected as follows: Mrs. Andrew Pritchard, president; Mrs. J. E. Kiser, vice president; Mrs. Neal Moser, secretary; and Mrs. Delia Miller, treasurer. More than 30 interested persons were present to form the nucleus of this new group.

When the organization was completed the guests were invited into the fourth grade room, which was attractively decorated appropriate to the Washington's birthday season, where they were served punch and little cakes. Members of the faculty, including Mrs. Hartness Gibson, Mrs. Novella Costner, Mrs. Clyde Bridges, Mrs. G. T. Greenway and Mrs. E. T. Bailey, served, while Mrs. Yates McSwain and Miss Ruby Irvin, also faculty members, acted as hostesses and bade the guests goodbye.

The first regular meeting of the organization will be held next Monday afternoon in the school auditorium at 3 o'clock.
