Song.
April, April,
Laugh thy girlish laughter,
Then, the moment after,
Weep thy girlish tears!
April, that mine ears
Like a lover greetest,
If I tell thee, sweetest,
All my hopes and fears
April, April,
Laugh thy golden laughter,
But, the moment after,
Weep thy golden tears!
—Sir William Watson

Fortnight Bridge Club To Meet.
Mr. and Mrs. Renn Drum will be hosts to the members of the Fortnight Bridge club on Friday evening at 8:15 at their home on Cleveland Springs road.

Miss Roberts To Entertain Book Club.
Miss Minnie Eddins Roberts will be hostess to members of the Contemporary book club at a regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at her home on W. Marlon street.

Cake And Candy Sale.
The Graham street school Parent-Teachers association is having a cake and candy sale at the Tom Eskridge grocery store this afternoon and Saturday morning. Proceeds will go for the benefit of the school.

Methodist Business Women To Meet.
The business women's circle of the Central Methodist church will have its regular meeting on Monday evening in the woman's room at the church at 7:30. Mrs. A. E. Darby, Mrs. H. J. Spry and Miss Elsie Hardin will be joint hostesses.

First Division To Sponsor Picture.
The first division of the Woman's club will sponsor a picture, "The Fourth Alarm," at the Carolina theatre on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. A large percentage of the proceeds will go to the club.

Mrs. Blackley To Be Club Hostess.
Mrs. Shem Blackley will be hostess to members of the Tuesday afternoon bridge club on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at her home on South Washington street.

Miss Thomas Is Party Honoree.
Mrs. Dean Duncan entertained informally last evening in honor of Miss Sue Thomas, of Sparta, who is the guest of Miss Sara Dellinger. Other out-of-town guests present were Miss Evelyn Stone, of Louisville, Ky., guest of Miss Elizabeth Austelk and Miss Marion Chambles, of Tampa, Fla., guest of Miss Ruth Laughridge. Bridge and dancing were enjoyed and punch was served during the evening. About forty guests were present.

Methodist Circles To Meet Monday.
The circles of the Central Methodist church will meet on Monday afternoon as follows: the Betty Lineberger circle at the church at 3:30; the Lucy Hoyle circle at the church at 4 o'clock, with Mrs. Horace Grigg and Mrs. Herman Eskridge as hostesses; the Mary Lee Hudson circle at the church at 3:30 with Mrs. R. Z. Riviere as hostess; the Fanny Thompson circle at 3:30 with Mrs. Charles Laughridge at her home.

Miss Shoemaker Visits Mr. Gardner.
Miss Rosemary Shoemaker, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harlan Shoemaker of Los Angeles, California, is spending today and tomorrow with Mrs. J. T. Gardner on West Marlon street. Miss Shoemaker lived here as a child when her father was surgeon at the first hospital set up in the old College hotel building. Her father is now a leading surgeon on the West Coast and Miss Shoemaker is a student in Philadelphia where she is specializing in kidney surgery. Mrs. Gardner and her guest will spend Easter in Raleigh at the governor's mansion.

Commercial Club Holds Meeting.
Misses Sara Lee Hamrick and Vivian Bulce were joint hostesses to members of the Commercial club and a few invited guests at the home of Miss Hamrick on Monday evening. Bridge was played at five tables during the evening and when scores were added the high score prizes were awarded to Miss Aileen Walker and Mr. Harvey White.

When the cards were laid aside the hostesses served a delightful salad course with coffee.
Those playing were: Misses Larue Lackey, Sara Best, Grace Bowling, Elizabeth Riviere, Aileen Walker, Rachel Wells, Ruby Pryor, Juanita Cline, Messrs. Lee Conner, Harvey White, Paul Whisonant, Ruffin Mull, Jimmy Ervin, Pete Green, Jim Grice, Shorty McSwain, Bradford Moser, Curtis Moser, and Miss Bulce and Miss Hamrick.

Little Miss Jarrett Celebrates Birthday.
Caroline Jean Jarrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jarrett, celebrated her seventh birthday at a pretty party on Wednesday afternoon at her home on W. Warren street. About thirty little friends in her neighborhood were invited; she received her guests in a dainty frock of yellow flowered organdy. Games pertaining to the Easter season were played, after which the children were invited into the dining room where a pretty birthday cake with seven yellow candles centered the table. The Easter idea was carried out in the dining room decorations. Eskimo pies were served and each child was given a colored Easter egg and a little yellow biddie as souvenirs. Caroline Jean received a number of pretty and useful gifts.

First Division Holds Meeting.
Mesdames J. R. Dover, Thad Ford, Basil Gooden and Coleman Doggett were joint hostesses at a regular meeting of the first afternoon division of the Woman's club on Thursday afternoon at the club room. Mrs. John Beam was leader for the afternoon. An attractive program was rendered, opened with a piano solo by little Miss Mary Wells, after which she played the accompaniment for a solo dance given by little Miss Emma Jo Beam. Superintendent J. H. Grigg made an interesting address on "Consolidation of Schools." Mrs. Harry Hudson read a short play, and Mrs. P. Cleveland Gardner concluded the program with a vocal solo.

After the close of the program a social half hour was enjoyed during which the hostesses served simple but delightful refreshments.

Renaissance In Cooking Is Seen
Epicures Are About To Come Into Their Own, Says Mrs. Vaughn.

Los Angeles.—Epicures are about to come into their own. A renaissance in cooking is at hand. So says Mrs. Kate Brew Vaughn, widely known authority and author of books on culinary art.

There was a let-down immediately after the world war, says Mrs. Vaughn, but the science of cooking only went into a temporary eclipse and now has come back with emphasis as modern conveniences have taken away drudgery.

Mrs. Vaughn, as an expert, was asked about dishes men and women like.

"What would the average man order for dinner in a hotel or restaurant?"

"Broiled steak, fried potatoes, sliced tomatoes and either lemon pie or strawberry shortcake."

"And his wife?"

"Lobster, potatoes with white sauce, asparagus tips and possibly an artichoke. She would like the man's dinner too, but at home she cooks the things he likes so when away from home she will order something that's a bit ritzy, looks pretty—and is expensive."

Mrs. Vaughn learned to cook as a girl in Tennessee, getting her early instruction from an old "black mammy."

"Taste in food is geographical," she says. "A true southerner really likes only two kinds of bread, home made fluffy biscuit and corn bread."

As for the recent controversy between the governors of Louisiana and Georgia as to crumbling, against dunking corn bread in pot likker, she lined up with the crumblers.

Cooking is logical so men make as good, or better cooks, as women she said.

ERROR CORRECTED IN COTTON SEED ADV.

In the advertisement of Herman A. Beam appearing in Tuesday's paper offering Wood's Ingold cotton seed, there appeared an error, due to proof reading in The Star office. "Highest per cent lint at the gin 89% should have read 39%."

Should Obey Law Or Go Elsewhere

To The Star:
All I know is what I see in the papers and hear over the radio. When I think of something worth telling and write it out for Renn Drum, before he can get it in his "tri-weekly" Star, Will Rogers, Brisbane or Mr. Coolidge already have it set up and Lowell Thomas and Floyd Gibbons have it on the air.

The only way to keep ahead of those birds is to write about the weather.

History is repeating itself so fast these days the only way to keep it recorded is by short hand in this waste paper age. Everything goes to the waste basket finally. My doctor says the best way to cure a cold is "go to bed and drink plenty of egg-nog." Bring on the cold and plenty of the remedy. The doctor should not be prevented by a state law from giving his patient whatever is best for him. At least citizens of all states should fare alike.

But we have our choice: The United States has prohibition, Canada has government control, and Mexico has wide open barrooms. Take your choice. Don't stay here if you don't like the Volstead law. Twenty million Americans ought to go to Canada and Mexico and find plenty opportunities there to get rich and break no laws having just what they want there. It is a shame for us to keep patronizing bootleggers, who sell us poison stuff at an exorbitant price, getting themselves on the chain gang and into the federal prisons. Many of these men and boys are our best friends and all are good citizens but they take a chance for us and break the law and become criminals all on our account. Stop it. Save them and yourself from being poisoned and bumped off before your time comes. The Volstead law is here to stay many years yet. We have too much machinery to mix alcohol with it in this high speed machine age.
