Professional Beauty May Join Convent

Dorothy Knapp, Theatrical Star, Tires of Worldly Glamor and Plans to Forsake Footlights for Life of Religious.

LIFE SHE PLANS TO FORSAKE

The gaiety of the world is as ashes to Dorothy Knapp, styled "the most beautiful girl in the world." A professional beauty of international prominence, she has decided to forsake the glamor of theatrical fame, when she became a star in Earl Carroll's Vanities. Still another big event in her life was the day she signed her name on the dotted line, which provided her appearance in a film production entitled "None but the Brave." Now this professional beauty, who has a first place in the glittering pantheon of the theatre, soled by Miss Venus of America, has decided to forego the purple pomp of the world, to forsake the footlights, for the calm seclusion of the cloister.

Dorothy Knapp made her first entrance into the haven of fame through the portals of the Folies, which position she secured after "Flo Ziegfeld saw the famed bathing beauty winner. He stated she was the best formed girl he had ever seen. Howard Chandler Christy made her famous as a model. Then came another pinnacle in theatrical cannot explain. "Thus she explained her turn from theatrical life to religion. Close friends of the beauty assert there is no mistaking the simple genuineness of her convictions. Her famous brown eyes hold a softer, sweeter, more placid light. Miss Knapp would not disclose where she intends to take her preliminary instruction for a postulant, nor when she would decide to forever close behind her the doors of the outer world.

For Mrs. Ann W. Penfield, widow of Woodrow Wilson's ambassador to Austria-Hungary, against whom she has a suit of $250,000, whom she accused of having caused her dismissal from the cast of Earl Carroll's ill-fated musical comedy "Fiorella" she has only the kindest things to say.

in a Series appearing in this newspaper

YOU know the fine crops many farmers around here get year after year with Chilean Nitrate of Soda. They side dress with Chilean and it pays them well. This year with Chilean selling at the lowest price in years, there's no sense in thinking you can economize with unproved fertilizers. Use plenty of Chilean and you'll get a good profitable crop.

Your Fertilizer Dealer

AND when you order, be sure to specify "Chilean". It contains rare elements in addition to Nitrogen that make it the super-nitrate. It is Nitrogen PLUS, for it contains iodine, boron, magnesium, plant foods in themselves. Remember that Chilean is the proved fertilizer. Side dress your crops with it. At the new low price and in the new 100 lb. bag, it is a better buy than ever before. Remember the two kinds—Original Chilean (Crystalline) and Champion Brand (Granulated) both natural nitrate.
