Kings Mtn. Girl Wins State Honors

Girl Who Was Awarded Selma Webb Medal Wins State Wide Recitation Contest.

(Special to The Star.)

Kings Mountain, Apr. 16.—Miss Jean Ware, 14-year-old Kings Mountain high school student won first place in the annual state wide recitation contest held at Guilford college, Guilford, this state, Saturday April 11.

Miss Ware is proving to be a reader of marked ability. Some weeks ago she was chosen the best reader in the Kings Mountain high school and was sent to Shelby to compete in the annual Cleveland county reading contest. Here she won first honor and was awarded the coveted Selma Webb medal. She was then chosen to represent her school in the annual state contest at Guilford college. Again she showed her ability by winning over forty of the best high schools in the state.

To win in the contest, it was necessary for Miss Ware to compete three times. The preliminary contest was held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, the semi-finals contest was held. The number of winners was further reduced to four.

At 8 o'clock Saturday evening, the final contest took place. At this time Miss Ware brought honors to herself, to her school, and to Cleveland county by taking first place and receiving the beautiful Literary society medal.

Miss Ware was a student last summer at the Southern Work shop in Asheville, under the direction of Misses Laura and Lillian Plonk. She entered high school at the opening of this school year and since that time has been trained by Miss Martha Hurst, head of the dramatic department of the Kings Mountain high school. Miss Hurst accompanied her on each of her trips to compete for these medals.

A. R. P. Meeting On In Two Day Session

Dr. Orr of Charlotte Makes Principal Address. Lunch For Visitors.

(Special to The Star.)

Kings Mountain, Apr. 16.—The Woman's Missionary union of the First Presbytery of the A. R. P. church will hold a two-day convention at Boyce Memorial A. R. P. church in Kings Mountain Thursday and Friday of this week.

The regular business session will convene Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Dr. E. N. Orr, pastor of the A. R. P. Tabernacle in Charlotte will make the principal address at the opening meeting. Thursday afternoon Mrs. B. Dale White, a missionary from India who is home on a furlough will tell of the work done in that country by the A. R. P. congregations At 8 o'clock Thursday evening a pageant entitled "Chirst in America" will be presented by the members of Boyce Memorial church In addition to the pageant there will be a pantomime of the 23 Psalm. Special music will be rendered by a choir of mixed voices from all the churches of the town.

Friday morning at 10 o'clock will be a regular business session and Friday afternoon Mrs. W. B. Halliday a missionary from Mexico will speak to the convention.

Lunch will be served to all out-of-town delegates both Thursday and Friday.
