

Spangler Fights Jack Blanton At Kings Mountain

Shelby Boxer Popular There. Albert White On In Semi-Final.

Jerome Spangler, the Shelby lightweight, and Jack Blanton, the Cliffside clouter, are going to mix again.

The bout goes on Saturday night, April 17, at the Webb building in Kings Mountain. Floyd Helms of Charlotte is to referee and fans are assured of a clean bout.

The Shelby boxer has made a big hit with Kings Mountain fight fans and he is the favorite with them to win over the more experienced Cliffside battler.

White vs. Bagwell. Another bout on the program will be between Albert White, of Shelby, and Willis Bagwell, of Kings Mountain.

Couldn't Walk For 6 Months

"Surgery overcame my troubles after I'd almost lost hope of ever being well again," said Mrs. W. H. Arrowood, Stockville, N. C. "My system had gotten so toxic from indigestion, constipation, and biliousness, I had gained all over my body. For six months I couldn't walk. Surgery stimulated my liver and began to get the poisons out of my system right from the start. Now I'm up and doing my housework; eat anything I want without causing me any trouble and simply have a new lease on life."

Shelby Sports

Hal Farris, the blonde boy who had much to do with winning Shelby's fourth state high school baseball championship last year, caught a portion of the game for the State college fresh team in its opening victory over the Baby Deacons of Wake Forest.

Which, incidentally, is nothing more than Shelby fans expected. Buck Redfern, former Shelby shortstop, is back with the Little Rock team in the Southern league. He is being used on second base.

Babe Carr, Shelby lightweight, is planning an all-charity boxing program for Shelby and wonders if it would go over. The Babe has had to cancel several bouts in recent weeks because of a back injury sustained in an auto accident some time ago.

The spring championship tournament at the Cleveland Springs golf club gets going today with the qualifying rounds to be played today and tomorrow.

"Snook" Webb, the younger Webb brother and the only one eligible for tonney play, is somewhat off his game - and that is encouraging to the other golfers of the town who hope to land in the first flight and shoot at the club championship prize.

The catching of big-mouthed bass, weighing from five to seven pounds, by Shelby Walton at Bridgewater recently has resulted in luring a motor caravan from Shelby to Lake James almost every day in the week. People have varying opinions about their favorite sport, but very few folks, at this time of the year, can resist the hankering to see their cork jerked under the water and feel that tug on the line.

Cline Lee, former Shelby high star, hasn't as yet cinched his job as second-sacker on Ray Kennedy's Asheville club in the Piedmont league. Kennedy has two flashy shortstops in Tarr, last year's short fielder, and Babe Viaw, from the defunct Southeastern league. Lee had a pretty good mortgage on the midway bag until Kennedy decided to use Viaw on short and try Tarr, the other short stop, at second. And, as a result, it may be that Lee will be farmed out, and, again, it may not. As the baseball bugs about Shelby say: "It'll take a sweet ballplayer to bump that boy out of a job."

The tennis racket - pardon the pun - is staging a comeback in Shelby. . . . Whitney Kendall and George Wray, who were high school champions of one sort or another, playing again, and once the commencement season is over Horace Grigg, the school super, will be ready to entertain all budding young players. Wonder if Shelby will have a swimming pool this summer - or not? . . . And what about the textile baseball loop?

TRUSTEE'S SALE. By virtue of the power of sale contained in a deed of trust executed by Clem Costner and wife, Ada Costner, on December 2, 1929, to me as trustee for the Shelby Building and Loan association, and default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured, I, as trustee, will sell for cash to the highest bidder at public auction at the court house door in the town of Shelby, N. C., on Saturday, May 23rd, 1931, at 12 o'clock M., the following described real estate: Situated in the southeastern part of the town of Shelby, N. C., fronting on Graham street, being a part of the E. W. Kendrick property, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a stake on north edge of Graham street, Jacob H. Anthony's corner, and runs thence N. 3 1/2 E. 200 feet to a stone on south edge of an alley, thence up said alley N. 87 W. 60 feet to a stake thence S. 3 1/2 W. 200 feet to a stake on north edge of Graham street, and thence with said Graham street 60 feet to the beginning, containing 12,000 square feet more or less. The foregoing being the lot conveyed to Clem Costner by J. Lee Dover and wife on April 13th, 1925, by deed recorded in book 2-2, page 348, of the register's office of Cleveland County, N. C. He's a Real Giant

Harold Schumacher (above), 20, can boast of being one of the few players in major leagues to step from college to diamond in fact company. Last year he was a member of the varsity team of Milligan College; now he is the pitching coach of the New York Giants. (Lower) The palm ball as Schumacher demonstrates how he holds the pill for a change-of-pace.

Colored Baseball Team Opens Play

The Shelby White Sox, Bob Rogers' colored baseball team, will open its season Monday in a game with Kings Mountain at Kings Mountain. On the following Monday Manager Bob Rogers hopes to book a game for the Shelby park, and he predicts that the White Sox will be the strongest they have been in years.

Ike's Tale

Dear Star Readers: Fur about two months hit has bin pinto beans or nothin' up at our house, and now the beans ar gone. A little piece of fat-back goes good with 'em but what is the fat-back to come from? 'Taint long now till a body can begin to pick sum creases down in the low places, and by the time they air gone, poke sallet will be big enuf to bite, always and on down to the end of time a kindly providence is a providing fur us pore folks what haint got much sense.

Poke sallet is alrite in hits place, but after while we tire of hit an begin to have a kind of hankerin fur chicken. Sal sez that fried chicken has called more men to preach the Gospel than anything else that and an inherited dislike fur hard labor has supplied most of the pulpits all over our land. I wuz purty shore one time that I heard a call to preach myself, but when I got up on a stump an listened rite close hit wuz Sal's daddy a calling up his dogs to go a possum hunting over on tuther side of Wards crick.

Hit don't hardly seem like hits fair, but I haint no hand to grumble over these things, but here's the ministry they git the best eatin here on earth then when they leave hit, to go to a better land than is promised fur such as me an Sal. I decided to take a hand an share a little of the good eatin with 'em on the sly. I scraped around an got up a dozen eggs and set 'em under one of Jake Eaker's hens that come and tuck up at our house one night sum time ago. A day or so before she wuz due to hatch Sal slipped them eggs away from Jake's hen an traded them to Lon Brittain fur snuff; agin the peace and dignity of the state.

When I got home thar she set a dippin-barefooted an her hair not been combed in over two weeks by the almanac. I loved at first that sum of the Casar fellers had made her a present of the snuff, fur they air a good natured bunch; then I thought of Jake's hen I wuz a keeping fur him; but when I went to see about her, all the eggs wuz gone and the old hen peared like she wuz mad. The evidence showed that Sal didn't appreciate things in the proper spirit, so I hauled away and kocked her down twice with my fist, in order to sorter humble her - but after this I ain to use a pin-not fur I jist about ruint my fist over her head.

Bill cum by the next day and axed what hurt my hand, I told him hit wuz roymytism - that they had got it in the schools this winter an I ketched hit from them. I knowed Bill knowed that I had told him a lie, but that is one habit that is as hard fur me to quit as hit is fur the legislature down at Raleigh to adjourn an go home an make a little crap fur their families to live on. I guess most of their wives air plun out of stove wood, an sum of 'em not got meal enuf to last over Sunday. Bill sez the legislature will adjourn when the members all die of old age, but the mistake wuz made of sending young men to have to wander around in the wilderness at Raleigh 40 years before they are fit to enter the "Promised Land."

Gastonia Wins From Shelby In Twelfth Frame

Duncan And Henson Have Hurling Battle. Shelby Errors Lose Game.

A two-bagger in the 12th inning by Stevenson, Gastonia rightfielder, which scored two runs, defeated the Shelby highs here yesterday afternoon 7 to 5 in one of the hardest-fought games of the season.

The game throughout was a hurling battle between Duncan, of Shelby, and Henson, of Gastonia, both giving up eight hits in the 12 innings, but eight Shelby errors contributed to the Gastonia victory and Duncan's downfall. In one inning Duncan came out of a hole by retiring the side without a score after the bases were filled.

The score was tied 3-3 in the fourth inning. Both teams scored two runs and deadlocked it again in the seventh and there was no more scoring until the 12th when errors and walks paved the way for a Gastonia win when Stevenson slashed out his double. Shorty McSwain, Bill Harrill and Wilson led the hitting for Shelby with two each. Stevenson and Sheppard drove out two bingles each for the visitors.

The Shelby bobbles, some of which were disastrous were contributed by Wilson, Mayhew, Philbeck and Carter.

Today Shelby is playing Cherryville there.

Farmers Planting Cotton Right Along About Double Shoals

(Special to The Star.) Double Shoals, Apr. 16.—The fine weather has caused several farmers in this community to begin planting cotton seed, and if the weather remains clear everything bids fair that by April 20th, a majority of the farmers will be planting right along.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Costner lost their infant daughter that was born Monday April 13th. The little body was buried at Palm Tree cemetery. The friends of Mr. Leslie Jackson will be sorry to know that he is very sick at this writing, with pleurisy.

Mrs. Carl Spangler who has been very sick with German measles is very much improved.

Mrs. Loyd Cook has been confined to her bed for the past several days sick, but is better now.

Mr. Oliver Spangler returned last week to his home in Durham after spending several days here with relatives.

Mr. L. B. Seism and children of near Kings Mountain spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Seism.

Messrs. Blaine Toney and Tracy Ledford ran a close race with death a few days ago when their car skidded and turned over an embankment. Neither of the two were hurt.

Well, here is a new way to unload cotton. Monday of this week a truck from South Carolina loaded with 15 bales of cotton reached Double Shoals all o. k., but just as the truck drove up to the Double Shoals Mfg. company's cotton yard on a slight grade, the truck became over-balanced "and over she went" the driver still under the steering wheel held tight. He was unhurt. The truck was turned back in its rightful position and took its journey back to South Carolina, safe and sound.

Mrs. S. E. Eskridge spent last week end with her daughter Mrs. A. L. Spangler.

The group meeting last Friday night at Double Shoals Baptist church was well attended. Mr. A. V. Washburn closed the weeks work in the association and left Saturday for Boone in the interest of the S. S. work.

Celebrate Kings Mountain Battle Bill

Over 100 Gather to Celebrate Appropriation for Battlefield Bill.

Gastonia Gazette. Amid flowers and music, patriotic decorations and that rare brand of hospitality for which South Carolina is famous, a hundred or more Carolinians, including the sixty-odd members of the central committee of the Sesqui-Centennial celebration of the Battle of Kings Mountain, gathered around the banquet tables last night in McNeel memorial building at York, S. C., to celebrate the recent passage by Congress of an act creating Kings Mountain battlefield a National military park.

They were guests of the Kings Mountain Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution, the organization that has, more than any other, kept alive Kings Mountain sentiment throughout the years and whose efforts have contributed more towards the consummation of this long desired end than have those of any other body of people.
