NEVER, NEVER LAND.

By Brand Storm
In the never, never land
Lives a dull, unhappy band
Never, never will with fire,
Never, never the policeman's ire,
Never, never sing or dance,
Never, never play at games of chance,
Never touch the cup that cheers,
Never think of wines or beers,
In the never, never land,
All the nicest things are banned.

American Homes Department Meets.

A regular meeting of the American homes department of the Women's club took place at the club room on Monday afternoon with Mrs. Nelson Lattimore in charge of the hostess committee, assisted by Mrs. Collin Hull and Mrs. B. L. Smith. During a business meeting Mrs. John McClure, Mrs. H. E. Waldrop and Mrs. Boyce Mauney were appointed as a nominating committee. Mrs. Irma Wallace demonstrated the making of four salad dressings, recipes for which are given below. After the close of the demonstration different salads with these dressings were served along with sandwiches, crackers and tea by the hostesses.

The recipes follow: Cream cheese dressing—Cream two packages of cream cheese with 8 T. of Wesson oil, adding oil gradually. When dressing is smooth and creamy, stir in 1-2 t. salt, 1-8 t. white pepper, 1/4 t. granulated sugar, 1-4 t. paprika, 1 t. lemon juice. Dust dressing with paprika to give color. This makes a thick, stiff dressing. Is delicious served on pear salad.

Fruit juice dressing—Beat together 12 T. Wesson oil with 2 T. of lemon juice, 3 T. orange juice, 1-2 t. of salt, 3-4 t. sugar, 1-4 t. white pepper, and 1-2 t. paprika. Suitable for serving on a pineapple salad.

The third dressing was made by starting with a seasoning of 1 t. salt, 1-4 t. pepper, dash paprika, add to this 12 T. of Wesson oil, 3 T. vinegar, beat for few seconds then put in 2 T. of finely chopped pickles, 1 T. chopped parsley, 1-2 of a minced, hard boiled egg, and beat until thoroughly blended. Good served on asparagus.

American cheese dressing—Mix 6 T. Wesson oil, 1 T. lemon juice, 1 T. orange juice, 1-2 t. salt, 3-4 t. sugar, 1-2 t. paprika, and 1-3 C. grated American cheese. Beat until all ingredients are thoroughly blended. Good on grapefruit salad.

Miss Roberts Hostess At Cake Cutting.

Miss Minnie Eddins Roberts was a charming hostess at her home on West Marion street last evening entertaining members of the Thayer-Blanton wedding party and out-of-town guests at the cake-cutting following the rehearsal. She was assisted in receiving and entertaining by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Roberts and her sister, Miss Mary Adelaide Roberts. Miss Roberts wore a becoming dinner dress of black chiffon with a deep, beaded flesh yoke. The bride wore a lovely dinner frock of peach crepe with short green jacket and green slippers. The rooms were decorated with quantities of tulips and white spirea; punch was served in the music room throughout the evening, the punch bowl being arranged on a small table covered with a lace cloth. In the dining room the table was spread with a beautiful cloth of Venetian lace and cut work and was centered with the pretty, four-tiered wedding cake iced with white and decorated with love birds and garlands of pink roses. A small basket of flowers in pastel shades was embedded in the top layer of the cake. On either side of the cake stood old-fashioned lattice china baskets, decorated with gold and filled with mixed garden flowers. On each of the four corners of the table stood tall, ivory tapers, and small baskets of bon-bon were arranged on the table. The cake was cut by the bride who was then followed by the groom and each of the members of the wedding party. Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey sat at the head of the table and served ice cream. Numerous emblems, such as the horseshoe, the ring, the thimble, the wishbone, etc., were found in the cake. A large number of guests were present.
