TRADER HORN
Illustrated with scenes from the motion picture 'Trader Horn' by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Nina.
The next day I was busy making firewood contracts giving orders for large canoes and buying farinae, dried fish, etc. I was greatly assisted by my boy who was very intelligent, honest and really loved me as I did him. I had taught him to speak and read English. As he was the son of a Camma chief who lived near the sea he was the owner by birth of a salt claim which we found was being worked by his brother, a slave trader.

It had always been my custom to say a prayer before going to bed in the evening, he would kneel down also, he always slept near me. If we were in a dangerous locality he would sleep near me, he would rise on the slightest call, wake my cook and attend to me hand and foot.

We naturally discussed Isaga, who she a white woman, she was he answered, because he knew her father who always went to Princes' Island to meet the mail steamer which called about three times a year. He had come to Cape Lopez when my attendant who was named Renchoro was a boy. His wife who came with him on a small steamer was white he said but not so white as the daughter whose name was Nina.

The T— Family.
The trader was an Englishman and had died suddenly leaving his store and everything to his wife. He had left three boys and one girl, Nina, who was the youngest. The oldest boy had sailed away on a schooner and was nearly grown to manhood and along with him went Yousof Carrials, a Mohammedan slaver and dangerous pirate. This was after his stronghold had been shelled and burned by a British gunboat. A slave-catcher which used real owners of the country reserved the right of those who were Freedborn only.

Where was Hon. T— buried? As all the white men who died on this part of the coast were buried on an island situated at the main entrance of the Ogowe river, I told him we would visit this spot as soon as we had finished our business at Angola as I wanted to learn the truth about Nina and her mother. He said the best people to give me all this information were the liberated slaves on the plantation. I found all he said to be correct.

Within The Temple.
Everything was quiet in the sacred village. My boys who had been initiated the previous day all wore a Sunday Smile. I had finished two sections of my map and was highly pleased with the Old Chief called on me. He told me that after

Within The Temple.
Everything was quiet in the sacred village. My boys who had been initiated the previous day all wore a Sunday Smile. I had finished two sections of my map and was highly pleased with the Old Chief called on me. He told me that after many calls the spirits were pleased at my request to join them, he also instructed me to follow all his edicts. This of course I promised to do.

As we entered the temple which had ornamentation of human skulls, and likewise two small pyramids of the same placed on each side of the doorway, I was confronted by a row of masked objects hideous to behold. I was then seated bareheaded on a small seat composed of leopard skins. There were two objects the Chief called my attention to, one was a square piece of crystal, the other was peg-top-shaped and pointed at one end. He told me to place my hand on these objects, and that one represented fire (the red one) and the other water. This I did but could not help grasping the smaller one which was very heavy. I came to the conclusion it was a ruby of great value.

After this there was great vociferation from the building, supposed to come from the spirits behind. The sounds were somewhat irregular and then again there was a conglomeration of spirits of delight. Now everything in the temple began to sparkle and placing his hand on my head, which I bowed low, he announced in a loud voice the entrance of Isaga. He then said (Dana te eo) Rest in peace or Don't be disturbed.

I noticed on raising my head a little commotion from those in goggles and masks who were at the right and left of where I saw the Isaga (or native God). The Chief then ordered me to stand up and approach the centre mask and whilst I was doing so the mask disappeared from Isaga likewise the raffia hangings.

The Goddess.
There stood the god that never dies, the most beautiful white woman I had ever seen. Her eyes were large and had a kind and affectionate look. Although I thought there was pity in them they had a magnetic effect on me. Her hair was auburn, and was plaited in circles and pressed on to the temples. Two ringlets ornamented with gold and green tassels fell down on each side of her shoulders, whilst high up on her forehead the hair formed a diamond-shaped coronet. A short leopard skin kilt ornamented with snake skin and dainty fur sandals with black straps formed the rest of the dress of this Isaga. I was kept waiting for some time her large intelligent eyes fixed on me.

"Yasi Isaga."
Now a conglomeration of pleasing sounds filled the building and this was mingled with low music from the ingombis or native harps which are small, are made like the Egyptian harp but have only seven strings. A sudden cessation of the music and muttering was followed by a voice which seemed to come from afar. The spirits were pleased and had made their decision.

Distinct command now came from Isaga who said Rangasi. The Old Chief led and I repeated after him the words Yasi Isaga, at the same time striking my left forearm with my right hand. Although the sound came from Isaga the mouth never moved, the eyes were fixed on me as before and never moved during the whole performance. The ceremony over, I withdrew, making a bow to this statuesque beauty. Sounds of sweet voice of a girl struck my ear. They were singing a beautiful song, Umbilla Ny-one me Koka Ngala. White bird from over the sea. That of course was meant for me. I was the first white man ever permitted to join. Whether becoming a member was a benefit to me I leave you to judge by what took place afterwards. The power of Isaga extends from Ashantee to the Congo, perhaps further. Every country has a different name for it yet the formation and religious rights are the same.

On reaching the large hut where I was staying I had a good talk with the old chief who told me I must always be kind to my comrades of the same creed. If at any time I was in need I was always to lay my troubles before Isaga who would always make things right, give me peace of mind at all times, and help me in all my troubles. I thanked him and after giving him a few nice presents of merchandise I withdrew saying, Dwana ta so Ogol (Rest in peace, my relative).

Death For Health.
I rose early next morning as was my usual custom and was soon in the main river. Here we passed a small fleet of the N'comis who were taking salt they had made near the sea. They traded with slaves at Samba Falls far up the big river called Angoni. They stopped for a few minutes' conversation, and then went on their way. I often met these men afterwards at Samba Falls, a large slave market. Nobody was allowed to pass Samba Falls. This town was inhabited by Evilies and Evelyas.

Next we passed a large canoe belonging to Chief Isagi, the melancholy chief. They had on board a young woman who had been found guilty of bewitching Chief Isagi. They were taking her for execution to the temple of the Evilies which I had just left. She was sitting upright, and looked quite resigned to her fate, which was certain. There was one more skull to be added to the temple.

TOOTS AND CASPER—The Missing Letter.

LOOK AT LITTLE ONE-FLIGHT UP! COME ON IN AND LET TOOTS SEE YOUR NEW SUIT, COLONEL HOOPER! SHE'D ENJOY A GOOD LAUGH, TOO!

NO, I MUST HURRY ALONG, CASPER! I'VE GOT TO GET OUT A LOT OF TELEGRAMS TODAY.

I ALWAYS SAID THAT COLONEL HOOPER WOULD BE A RICH MAN IF HE COULD EVER GET SOMEBODY ELSE TO MAKE HIS MONEY FOR HIM, TOOTS! HE'S SO PUFFED UP NOBODY CAN TALK TO HIM! I'LL STAND JUST SO MUCH AND THEN I'LL CUT HIM OUT!

THAT'S ODD! I DIDN'T GET A LETTER FROM MY SWEET-HEART TODAY! IT'S THE FIRST DAY I'VE FAILED TO HEAR FROM HER IN A MONTH!

I'D LOAD MY WIFE UP WITH PRETTY DRESSES IF SHE'D ONLY COME BACK TO ME! I'D NEVER ENJOY HAVING A MONEY IF SOPHIE ISN'T HERE TO SHARE IT WITH ME.

OF COURSE COLONEL HOOPER DOESN'T KNOW IT! NOBODY KNOWS IT! BUT HIS WIFE IS STILL IN THE SANITARIUM WHERE SHE HAD HER FACE REMODELED ONE MONTH AGO TODAY! THE BANDAGES WILL BE REMOVED FROM HER FACE IN A FEW DAYS, AND WHEN WE NEXT SEE HER—WHAT WILL SHE LOOK LIKE?

JIMMY MURPHY—5-2.

Its 50-50 Or Nothing For The Colonel.

COLONEL HOOPER CERTAINLY IS HAPPY BECAUSE LARRY CHIX WON HIS FIGHT LAST WEEK, CASPER.

WHY SHOULDN'T HE BE, TOOTS? THEY GO 50-50 ON ALL PROFITS, AND HE THINKS LARRY WILL BE THE CHAMPION INSIDE OF A YEAR!

YOU'D BETTER RE-CONSIDER MY OFFER, COLONEL! I'LL GIVE YOU $25,000.00 CASH FOR A HALF INTEREST IN YOUR CONTRACT WITH LARRY CHIX, AND THE MONEY IS YOURS AS SOON AS THE PAPERS ARE SIGNED!

THANKS FOR THE OFFER, BUT I'M NOT INTERESTED!

DO YOU MEAN TO SAY YOU TURNED DOWN AN OFFER OF $25,000.00 CASH FOR HALF OF YOUR CONTRACT WITH LARRY?

MY SHARE OF LARRY'S EARNINGS IN THE NEXT TWELVE MONTHS WILL AMOUNT TO NEARLY A MILLION DOLLARS, CASPER! WHY SHOULD I SIGN OVER HALF OF THAT FOR A MERE $25,000.00? HAVE A SEAT AND DON'T LOOK SO JEALOUS!

I'M NO SMARTER THAN THE NEXT FELLOW, CASPER, BUT I'LL GET ALONG BETTER BECAUSE I WORK HARDER AND KEEP MY EYES OPEN A LITTLE WIDER!

IF YOU WERE SMART YOU'D REMEMBER THAT A BIRD IN THE HAND IS WORTH TWO IN THE BUSH!

WATCH CLOSELY! SOPHIE HOOPER WILL PUT IN AN APPEARANCE ANY DAY NOW! HOW WILL HER NEW FACE LOOK? 5-4
