Around Our TOWN Shelby SIDELIGHTS

By RENN DRUM.

A LITTLE OF THIS 'N'

THAT; MOSTLY NOTHING

In Shelby there lives an aged negro woman, a native of Georgia, who shaves like a man and is known as "Nappy Chin."

The names of colored residential sections in Shelby are somewhat unusual. Trip over these: Black Bottom, The Knot, Flat Rock, Chinatown, Old Freedom, and New Freedom.

The only old-fashioned picket fence this colyum knows to exist in Shelby is around the yard of Mrs. C. B. Suttle, where Mayor McMurry lives, on West Marion street. A new front gate is being erected to help preserve the fence.

The story is told about town that some days ago a wanderer, with an accent filled with burrs, stopped at a Shelby garage and asked for a job.

"Are you a mechanic?" he was asked.

"No, sorr," came the reply, "Ol'm a McCarthy."

SHAKE PROVIDES BAIT FOR FISHERMAN—AND HOW!

It's getting to be about the time of year that new and enlarged fish and snake stories are scattered about.

This one—a combination fish-and-snake story, and the best one we've heard in a coon's age—is borrowed from Tom Pridden's "Lookout" in The Charlotte News:

A fisherman was fishing in one of the fresh water creeks up in Sampson county—the Little Coharie, maybe. He was about to put his last frog on the hook for bait when the frog jumped into the water and a snake swam by and gobbled up the frog.

The fisherman merely reached into the water, grabbed the snake behind the ears and proceeded to squeeze out his frog. He was not going to be robbed of his bait that way. Then, to even up matters, he took out his flask of corn liquor and poured a long drink into the snake, and threw him back into the water.

It was about ten minutes before anything happened. The fisherman felt something nudging him in the side. He looked around and there was the snake with another frog in its mouth.

Out at the Cleveland Springs golf club one day this week Federal Judge E. Y. Webb and a group of the caddies were tossing mathematical problems and riddles at each other. Finally, one youth asked the judge this one: "If a cat fell into a well nine feet deep, and crawled back out three feet each day only to slip back two feet each night, how long would it take for the cat to get out?"

Go ahead and figure it out for yourself. We have our hands full trying to figure out some method of having our monthly bank statement to balance.

"Wonder if you've ever noticed," wonders K. M., "that the fruit jar manufacturers seem pretty well satisfied with the prohibition law and its enforcement? The generation coming on now may wonder, when it grows up, why in the heck they called them 'fruit' jars—one never sees fruit in them any more."

Of course, somebody would bring that up. Try writing Mr. Wickersham about it; and while you're about it ask him if the sale of ginger ale has increased or decreased since the Volstead Act was passed.

WHY THE HILLS AND GROVES IN CLEVELAND?

Ever notice how many communities in Cleveland county are named for hills and groves?

Offhand we recall these: Pleasant Hill, Zion Hill, Laurel Hill, Flint Hill—Oak Grove, Pleasant Grove, and Carpenters Grove.

Then there are the two doubles—Double Springs and Double Shoals.

Shelby Shorts: Lt. Col. Chas. E. McBrayer, of Portland, Oregon, a Shelby boy who joined up with Uncle Sam's army and made good, believes that Corn Cracker, the Polkville sage, has few equals in serio-comic philosophizing. . . . Charlie Woodson, the new deputy clerk of court, and Buck Hardin hoot it to Cleveland Springs and back each morning at six o'clock. . . . It has been several years since Vic Wray, of the A. V. and Six firm, quit cowpunching in Arizona but he still rolls his cigarettes cowboy style. . . . At a football game in Georgia a year or two ago a Shelby fan started out in a crap game with a bag of grapes and made expenses for the day off one of the newly elected city officials of one of Tarheel's largest cities. . . . In one of his first rounds of golf a Shelby attorney recently made a costly hole in one. The hole was through the windshield of an auto in the road along the No. One fairway. . . . Three of the 10 best golfers at Cleveland Springs are left-handed swingers, and the experts say portersiders can't play golf. . . . At least four members of the Shelby bar have been newspaper employees. Have they gone up or down? . . . Less big news has happened in Shelby for the first four months of 1931 than during the first quarter of any year in seven years.

SAY HARD TIMES, IF YOU WILL; BUT LISTEN

Money may be scarce in Shelby, but, according to the city directory, there are in the city 23 people by the name of Kale, 11 by the name of Gold, 21 by the name of Silver, and eight by the name of Cash.

Maybe things are tight because Shelby has 33 families of Macs—McArthur, McAuley, McBrayer, McCall, McCarter, McCloud, McCluney, McCombs, McConnell, McCord, McCoy, McCrary, McCraw, McCurry, McDaniel, McDiarmid, McDonald, McDowell, McFalls, MacFarland, McGill, McGinnis, McGowan, McIntyre, McKee, McKinney, McKnight, McMahan, McMurry, McNeely, McNichols, McSwain, and McWhorter.

Now, begorra! Maybe the Macs have all the Kale, Gold, Silver and Cash.

Could Not Walk For Six Months

"My system became so toxic from indigestion, constipation and biliousness. I had pains all over my body. For six months I couldn't walk and wasn't able to get out of my room. I spent lots of money, with no improvement until I started Sargol. It stimulated my liver and began ridding my system of poisons from the start. Now I'm up and doing my housework, eat anything I want without having any trouble, and simply have a new lease on life."—Mrs. W. H. Arrowood, Stockville, N. C.
