Fallston Man Out
 To Win Chile Trip
 Claude C. Falls fertilizer dealer of Fallston, has entered the Chilean nitrate of soda dealer's contest, the 12 winners of which will be given a trip to South America by the Chilean nitrate of soda educational bureau. Twelve dealers, two each from Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi will be selected in the contest which will be decided on the basis of the efforts of the dealers to promote the sale of the Chilean product. Mr. Falls has already begun his campaign to interest growers in this county in proper fertilization with Chilean nitrate. The contest is a result of the unusual success attending the trip of 15 agronomists and agricultural experts to Chile last summer as part of the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the first importation of Chilean nitrate to the United States. This trip was so helpful in explaining the value of proper fertilization that the educational bureau decided to offer the same opportunity to dealers, especially since they come so frequently and regularly in contact with farmers.

Evidence.
 "My wife has been away for six weeks."
 "But why should that make you look so downcast?"
 "I wrote her every week and said I spent my evenings at home. She's back now and the gas bill just arrived. It's for twenty-five cents."

Taken Up.
 She gazed longingly into his eyes. "Oswald," she purred, "would you put yourself out for me?"
 "Darling, I'd do anything for you," romantic Oswald replied.
 "Then do it," she yelped, gazing up at the clock. "It's past midnight, and I'm tired."
