

Webb Brothers Lose Match To Pro Opponents

McCombs, Of Hickory, And Cole, Of Morganton, Win Snook Off His Game.

Mimosa Golf Club, Morganton, May 20.—Pro Mac McCombs of the Hickory Country club, and E. J. Cole, Mimosa club professional, drank deep from the sweet cup of revenge here Tuesday afternoon.

They defeated Pete and Fred Webb, famous golfing brothers from Shelby, three up in an 18-hole match that produced some of the best golf playing seen on the local course in many a day. In a previous match the Shelby pair had defeated McCombs and Cole eight up with Lady Luck taking a leading role.

McCombs carried off the low score honors for the match yesterday with a 75 for the 18 holes, three above par. Pete Webb came next with a 78, while Cole and Fred Webb each shot 81.

Cole and McCombs' low ball for the first nine holes was even par and one under par for the second nine. The Webb boys' low ball on the first round also hit par, but was three over on the second.

Pete Webb shot a birdie on No. 18 and stroked around par all the way, but Fred was a little off his usual form. Cole started off hot with a birdie on the first hole and duplicated on No. 5. Mac crashed through with a birdie on No. 10 and sank a putt from the edge of the green on No. 11 for a par four. Then he got better than ever and shot a birdie 4 on No. 12 followed by another on No. 14 to hang up the low score.

The Tuesday cards:

Pete Webb:	544 454 543 38
	455 354 536 40
Fred Webb	545 443 553 38
	556 464 645 43
E. J. Cole:	355 633 654 40
	456 356 444 41
Mac McCombs:	545 543 553 39
	344 445 444 36

Lutheran Church Sunday Services

A special service is announced for next Sunday, May 24, in the Episcopal church, South LaFayette St. The messages of the day to be delivered by a former student and supply pastor for the summer months, Mr. Glenn S. Ekard. Mr. Ekard has been graduated from the Lutheran Theological, Southern seminary in a class of eleven, who received their diplomas on commencement day, May 21, 1931. He has accepted a call to the Lutheran pastorate of Pomaria, South Carolina, where he will be located June 1.

Friends will be delighted to learn of the return of Mr. Ekard for the services on Sunday, in the absence of the pastor, who is attending the school for pastors, held in the seminary, May 21-28. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. Morning worship eleven o'clock. Luther league seven o'clock. Evening worship eight o'clock.

Penney Window For School Graduates

The J. C. Penney Co. show window dedicated to the 80 seniors of the Shelby high school who receive their diplomas next week, is attracting considerable attention, not only among the school students, but parents and friends. On the rim of a large circle is pasted the pictures of the seniors. In the center is an eight-day clock with double pointed hand. When the clock stops the bar will be pointed to two seniors on opposite side of the circle and points of the bar of hand will indicate the winner of two valuable prizes given by the store. The window contains diplomas, graduation cap and gown, copies of Hi-Life, the annual, and other high school paraphernalia. It is an interesting tie-up with the outstanding event of the month.

Rippy Gets First Flight Place; Webb Falters At Charlotte

In the qualifying round of the Charlotte Country Club invitation golf tournament yesterday Claude Brown Rippy, young Shelby golfer, landed in the first flight with an 82 for the 18 holes. Today he is playing Erwin Laxton, tournament medalist, in the first of the match play. Laxton made a 74.

Fred (Snook) Webb, winner of the tournament last year, was off his game yesterday and failed to qualify in the first flight with a score 85. In match play today the Shelby left-hander is to play against T. Causey, who made an 88 in qualifying.

Two Good Games In City Saturday

Shelby Mill Plays Ellenboro. Cloth Mill Plays McAdenville Team.

Two good baseball games are booked for Shelby parks on Saturday afternoon.

At the Shelby high school park the Cleveland Cloth mill team will play the fast McAdenville outfit. Sipe or Smith will hurl for the Rayonites.

Music Too. At the Shelby mill park the Shelby mill club will be at home to the strong Ellenboro nine. Sherrill Hamrick, former high school star, will pitch for the Shelby team. An added attraction at the park will be a musical program furnished by the Shelby mill string band.

Bible School To Open At Central Methodist

A daily vacation Bible school will be held again this year at Central Methodist church beginning Monday, June 1st, and continuing through Friday, June 12.

The teachers and leaders for this school have been planning their work with the aid of specialized workers with children from the Sunday school board at Nashville, Tenn. This will be a splendid opportunity for all children from 4 to 12 years of age to receive valuable instruction. If they attend every session during the ten days, they will receive as much instruction as it takes them half a year to get in Sunday school.

Revenue Bill Gets Approval On First Vote

adoption there became the first reading.

In the senate the adoption came after a motion to reconsider the vote by which the report was rejected yesterday had prevailed without opposition.

Senator Clarkson of Mecklenburg switched from the position he maintained Wednesday and yesterday voted to accept the report of the conference, which recommends a 15-cent ad valorem levy for the state supported six months' school term.

Senator Johnson of Duplin played the role Senator Burrus of Guilford assumed Wednesday and changed his vote from "no" to "aye" so as to be in position to move for another reconsideration today.

Clarkson Changes Vote. Senator Clarkson offered a resolution to prohibit the cutting of teachers' salaries more than 10 per cent and announced he would vote for the conference report if his resolution were adopted by the senate.

An attempt to suspend the rules for immediate passage of the Clarkson resolution failed, and it was sent to the education committee.

The senate recessed at 1:45 o'clock to permit the committee to act. The committee rejected the Clarkson resolution but gave a favorable report to a substitute which differed from the original in that it would prevent the cutting of principals' and superintendents' salaries more than 10 per cent as well as teachers'.

Report Quickly Adopted. The substitute was passed when the senate reconvened, and immediately the conference report was adopted by the vote of 25 to 21.

When Senator Clarkson of Mecklenburg offered his resolution he announced he had voted against the report, feeling that it would badly cripple the schools of the state. In explaining his action he said, "I realize the seriousness of the position I am taking. It is too much responsibility for flesh and blood to bear, but I am willing to take this responsibility. If I am wrong, God have mercy! I think I am right."

The conference compromise revenue bill calls for the state support of schools by leaving a 15-cent tax on land, which is a considerable reduction in land tax, and raising the remainder by general sales tax.

Representative Edwards, of Cleveland county, voted for the bill, and Senator Peyton McSwain, who is at his home in Shelby, was paired for the bill.

"A Big Request" Dr. Wall's Theme. "The New Life," Baccalaureate Subject. Splendid Musical Programs.

"A Big Request," will be the subject of Rev. Dr. Zeno Wall, in the service at the First Baptist church, Rutherford Girl Given New Chance. Raleigh, May 22.—Twelve young girls, some of them orphans, some of them victims of circumstances and some of them "just bad girls," had found homes Wednesday night. Their homes were a dozen "refuge cells"—a block of cells at North Carolina state prison here, so-called, because they are considered the safest place to keep incorrigibles, which their new occupants have been called. The cells are near death row.

The girls—who range in age from 16 to 19—were sentenced by Superior Court Judge Michael Schenck at Carthage to serve 12 months to five years in the penitentiary for their parts in burning two dormitories at Samarcand Manor, state institution for delinquent girls.

Pleas of guilty to attempt to commit arson were entered after the state dropped indictments for arson, a capital felony in this state. Six of the 12 riotous twice while, and at Carthage awaiting trial, set fire to their mattresses and kicked out window panes.

Two girls received suspended sentences, Margaret Fridgen, 15, of Wilmington, and Rosa Mull, 13, of Rutherfordton.

"A Big Request" Dr. Wall's Theme. "The New Life," Baccalaureate Subject. Splendid Musical Programs.

"A Big Request," will be the subject of Rev. Dr. Zeno Wall, in the service at the First Baptist church, Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. The full day's program will open with the Sunday school at 9:30 o'clock. Special programs will be observed in the nine departments. Everyone is invited.

In the evening at 7 o'clock the seventeen B. Y. P. U's will hold their training programs. A special feature of interest will be rendered in the closing assembly which will be held in the church auditorium at 7:40 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present.

"The New Life," will be the theme for the baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class of the city high school. All of the class will be special guests in the service. Dr. Wall will deliver the annual message to the high school faculty and student body. The public is invited to all services.

Singers from the Methodist and Presbyterian churches will join with the Baptist choir in rendering a splendid musical program at this special night service. The program for the day follows: Morning, 11:00 o'clock—Anthem, "Unfold Ye Portals," from "The Redemption," Gounod, by the large chorus choir; offertory duet—"Breathe On Us From On High," Galbraith, by Messrs. E. B. Hill and Horace Eason. Evening, 8 o'clock: Anthem, "Hark, Hark My Soul," Shelley, by the choir, with Mrs. Dale Kalter, Mrs. Grady Lovelace, Miss Minnie Eddins Roberts, Miss Mary Adelaide Roberts and Mrs. B. M. Jarrett, as soloists; offertory number, "Trio," from "Attila," Verdi, by Mesdames John Lovelace, Ben Suttle and Messrs. E. B. Hill, Horace Eason, B. M. Jarrett and Howard Gold.
