Just Ten Years Ago A Peep Or Two Back In 1921

(Items Taken From The Cleveland Star of 1921.)

(Taken From The Star of May 31, 1921.)

If plans mature, Piedmont High school will be converted into a state high school. A mass meeting was called and held at Lawndale Saturday afternoon at which time it was decided to secure enough signers of tax-payers in No. 9 township to form a new school district, perhaps by merging Lawndale, Palm Tree and Double Shoals districts, the purpose of which will be to convert Piedmont High school into a state high school which will be operated by the state for six months each year.

Mr. Alex Boyles died Friday night at Lawndale at the age of 70 years following a long illness from paralysis.

Mr. Buck Hardin who has been linotype operator for The Star for five years or longer has purchased half interest in the transfer business with Mr. Cage Ellis. He severed his connection with The Star Saturday and will devote his entire time to the dray and transfer company.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet with Mrs. O. Max Gardner at her home on South Washington street on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock in celebration of Jefferson Davis' birthday.

The most interesting game of baseball ever played in Shelby will be between the old baseball stars and the Shelby high school teams Friday at 3:30 o'clock on the Shelby school ground. Judge E. Y. Webb has been in practice and each afternoon he is found with a bat, a ball and a glove, tuning up. He will pitch the game for the old stars. Other players will be Paul Webb, Will Carroll, who is an old time star still familiar with every detail of the game, Max Gardner, Josh Lattimore, Ab Poston, Graham Dellinger, Bloom H. Kendall, Cage Ellis and Clarence Leonard. The above old-timers are getting a trim, but Mr. Frank Hoey who has charge of the lineup has concluded that it is necessary to engage several other stars to be on hand as substitutes.

Through the efforts of County Demonstrator R. E. Lawrence, 15 or 18 potato storage houses will be erected in various parts of the county.

county to house the coming crop through the next winter.

Deputy Watson and Constable Hoyle of No. 11 township brought a fine copper still to Shelby Saturday. The still was captured last Saturday at a place called "Rusty Ankle" right up "agin" the Mountains.

Mrs. J. C. Hord who lives on route 1, sent a very odd freak of nature to The Star office Saturday for inspection. It was a dib of three days, possessing three legs and four feet.

Prices on Buick and Chalmers automobiles make a decline tomorrow, according to announcement from the factories. Five passenger touring cars selling f. o. b. factory at $1,795, are now priced $1,525, a decline of $270. Buicks are sold here by Mr. Carl Thompson.

Mr. Carme Elam, one of the highway commissioners of No. 9 township met representatives of the state highway commission in Shelby Friday and went with them over the Lawndale road with a view of adopting this route as the state highway that will connect Shelby and Morganton.

Rev. W. A. Murray left yesterday for Davidson college where he represented the Kings Mountain Presbytery at a meeting of the trustees of the college.

Misses Lenna Newton, Matilda Lattimore and Frances Hoyle have returned from the Normal college at Greensboro, where they have been students this year.

Mr. J. J. McMurry Jr., has returned from Asheville where he has been a student in the Bingham school for boys. He won the silver medal for being the second best rifle shot in the school.

Seek Diamond's Friend.

Middletown, Conn., May 31.—Prosecutor John E. Tobin today issued a warrant for the arrest of Marion Roberts, former show girl, and friend of Jack "Legs" Diamond, alleged New York racketeer, charging participation in a robbery.

Issuance of the warrant followed identification of her picture on a police circular by Bernard Levey, clerk, and Joseph Haburray, pharmacist, as that of the girl who, with two men companions, held up their drug store Friday night.

Greensboro, May 31.—Andy Brown and Herbert Mateer are under $500 and $1,000 bonds each on a charge of promoting delinquency in a 14-year-old girl. It was learned from the police today. A third man was arrested in the sensational case but was released when the girl did not identify him. Three men are charged with taking advantage of the child at a resort near the city on Friday night.
