Mr. Leland Royster is sick from an attack of kidney trouble, but is much better, his many friends will be glad to know.

The regular monthly services will be held at the Methodist church Sunday night. The pastor Rev. E. E. Snow of Fallston will preach at 7:30 o'clock.

HIGH PRICE IS PLACED ON KISSES IN CAPITAL

Columbia.—A high price was placed on kisses Monday in Judge Heyward Brockinton's police court.

A white man and woman, against whom charges of disorderly conduct were brought by neighbors who objected to their spooning Sunday afternoon in the porch swing, were hailed into court.

"Did you kiss him?" Judge Brockinton asked the woman.

"Once," she replied.

"Well, a kiss is worth five dollars," the judge.

Sentence of five dollars or was suspended during the trial of the couple.

Ferguson Or Fisher Will Hurl Against Rhodhiss Nine Thursday

Gurley Team Comes Here Hoping To Tie Shelby For W. N. C. League Lead

Andy Ferguson, former Charlotte firemen hurler, or Fisher, the right-hander who came here from Asheville in the Piedmont league, will hurl for Shelby at the city ball park Thursday afternoon against Rhodhiss in the attempt to keep the local club on top of the heap in the Western Carolina loop.

By winning from Newton Saturday while Rhodhiss was losing to Brookford the Cleveland Cloth club, representing Shelby in the league, moved into first place, having been tied with Rhodhiss until that time.

Hoping to win from Shelby and go back in a tie for first place to Rhodhiss club is expected to "shoot the works" here tomorrow.

It is likely that Bumgardner will be the Rhodhiss choice for starting pitcher with Dick Gurley, former Shelby high coach behind the plate. If Bumgardner does not hurl, Reese may get the call.

In the Rhodhiss lineup will be Gurley, Bumgardner, Benny Troutman, college star; Buff, Mathis, Kilian, Jolly, Kirkman, Triplett and others well known in amateur and semi-pro ball.

The game will get going at 3:30 and is expected to draw well as Thursday is a holiday event for several of the professions about Shelby.

Charlotte Legion Team Beats Shelby

(Fritz Littlejohn in Charlotte Observer.)

Gordon Sides Monday fanned 14 men in six innings and gave up only three hits while his mates were hammering three hurlers hard and Charlotte beat Shelby, 24 to 0, in the first inter-city American Legion junior league game of the season.

Sides whiffed the first seven men to face him and after one man had hit safely added four more for the first 11 putouts. The little fellow's control was perfect, he not walking a man.

Only One Hit Zeke Justice relieved him in the seventh after the game was in the bag and allowed only one hit and continued to blank the visitors.

Brownie Smith and Ab Grant were leading a 19-hit onslaught on three hurlers. Smith hit a triple, double and three single in six tries and Grant got a homer, double and single for a perfect day.

Mutt McCord hit a home run and a triple and Dale Dunn slammed a double and home run, to aid in the slugging that gave the home club tallies in every inning except the first and fifth. The fifth heat saw nine men score.

It was learned just before the game from the Shelby manager that the game would not count in the elimination series.

Managers Should Get Notices To Paper Thursday

Managers of Shelby baseball clubs who have games scheduled for Saturday, July 4, should get their announcements in to The Star Thursday for Friday's paper. By doing so they will be assured of getting the notices on Friday's sport page. If held back until Friday, the day of publication, they may be sidetracked to another page or possibly not get in at all. Results of all Saturday games should be turned in to the paper late Saturday or early Monday morning. If it is not possible to get in a written account early Monday, telephone it.

Ball Game, Boxing At Boiling Springs

Esley Bridges and Jimmie Campbell To Fight July 4. Team to Be Selected.

(Star News Bureau.)

Boiling Springs, June 30.—Boiling Springs is to have a celebration the fourth of July. At 2:15 there will be a ten round boxing match between Esley Bridges, better known as "Humpty the Kid" of this place and Battling Jimmie Campbell. Bridges is rated as one of the best fighters in this state for his weight. He will give away some 25 lbs. to Campbell. Bridges weighs 108 pounds; Campbell around 131, yet everybody is taking the little kid to win.

There will also be a ball game between Boiling Springs and a team yet to be picked. "Lefty" Winn, the curve-ball artist, will be on the mound for the home nine.

Sides whiffed the first seven men to face him and after one man had hit safely added four more for the first 11 putouts. The little fellow's control was perfect, he not walking a man.

SOME DAYS

(By A. G. Melton.)
Some days were on the mountain top;
We almost feel the breath of God.
Our hearts are brave and strong and true.
Our comfort then, strong staff and rod.

'Tis easy to descend the mount,
Transient strength of mind and heart;
Just fold your hands and close your eyes.
You need no special skill or art.

When you are at mountain foot
You do not have to do great sin;
Just cease to fight and fall asleep,
And you are weak, without, within.

Down in the valley of your soul
Where weakness is so strong
And where your strength becomes so frail
There lies the danger of the way.

MOTHER LOVE CALLS WOMAN TO DEATH IN BAY WATERS

Long Beach, Calif.—Mother love called Mrs. Elizabeth Marie Hoyt to her death in Long Beach ocean breakers.

Seated on the shore of Alamitas Bay, Mrs. Hoyt, young wife of Sergeant Otis Hoyt, of the Long Beach police, saw her seven-year-old son, Howard, struggling in the waves 150 feet offshore.

Burdened with her street clothing she plunged in. She became exhausted after a dozen strokes and sank. Howard hadn't seen her. He paddled on to a buoy, and clung there safely.

The mother's body was recovered by a lifeguard.
