

Cloth Mill Increases League Lead By Defeating Rhodhiss Club Here

Fisher's Hurling Too Much For Visiting Club. Weathers Hitting Features.

The Cleveland Cloth mill club of Shelby tightened its hold on first place in the Western Carolina league here yesterday by defeating the Dick Gurley Rhodhiss team 9 to 3.

Up until last week Rhodhiss was tied with the Shelby club for first place.

Getting Close Now.
The Shelby outfit has to win only one more game to clinch the first half pennant in the league. There are only three more games and one victory will place the local outfit so well on top they cannot be overcome.

Good In Pinches
Fisher held the visiting club to five hits but the remarkable aspect of his hurling was his ability to mow down the visiting batters in the pinches. Once he struck out two batters with two men on the sacks, and again he whiffed two with the bases loaded.

The hitting of Cricket Weathers, third-sacker, and the fielding of Gilreath, southpaw first baseman, were other features for the home club.

Bumgardner, the opposing pitcher, was wild or otherwise the Rhodhiss team would have made it a close battle. Dick Gurley, former Shelby coach, caught a good game for his club and seemed as active on his feet as in days when he starred in college and semi-pro ball but he could not connect with Fisher's fast balls. Buff was the best hitter for the visitors.

A good crowd for Thursday witnessed the contest.
Shelby..... 9 11 2

Various Ages Of An Average Man

Baltimore Evening Sun.
One day old, a potential president of the United States.

Thirteen years old. A very bright boy for his age who may some day become the governor of his state or at least the mayor of his city. Eighteen years old. A splendid type of fine young American manhood who should do exceedingly well in whatever profession he may enter.

Twenty-five years old. An earnest and hardworking fellow who is thought of highly by his employers. Has a bright future. Engaged to a nice young woman. Saving up money to marry.

Thirty-five years old. An earnest and hard-working fellow who is thought of highly by his employers. Has a bright future. Engaged to a nice young woman. Saving up money to marry.

Thirty years old. Young married man doing very well. Capable and industrious, but somewhat lacking in initiative and imagination. Chief ambition is to get out of apartment and purchase a house.

Thirty-five years old. Young married man and father of potential president of the United States. Owner of a house, motor car, radio and other essentials. Paying for them on installment plan. Chief ambition to keep out of debt. No sign of being considered for governor or mayor. Political activity limited to voting for his party's nominee. Chosen alternate to district convention of Loyal Order of Patriots. Considered for assistant office manager, but passed over in interest of company's policy of selecting mature men for positions of responsibility.

Forty years old. Still holding to job in spite of shake-ups. Considered for assistant office manager, but passed over in accordance with company's policy of selecting young men with a punch for positions of responsibility. Still trying to keep out of debt.

Forty-five years old. Father of several splendid types of fine young American manhood and womanhood who should do well in whatever profession they may enter. In the meantime splendid types of fine young American manhood and womanhood must be supplied with clothes and spending money.

Sixty years old. Veteran of office force with not much to do. Grandfather of several prospective presidents of the United States. Decides life hasn't been so bad after all.

Eighty years old. Enjoys good health. Has been regular subscriber to Daily Clarion for fifty years. Still reads newspaper without glasses. Attributes long life to moderate use of spirits and tobacco. Always voted the Republican (Democratic) ticket. Hopes to reach century mark.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to thank our good friends and neighbors of Shelby and Kings Mountain for their expressions of sympathy and love in our bereavement over the accidental death of our dear child. These words of sympathy have been a great comfort to us in our sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Allen and Children.

Lily Mill Stages Double Bill Game For Fourth Event

Play Lawdale At 10 In Morning, Henrietta Team In Afternoon.

The Lily mill baseball club, which has run up a string of victories, has two games booked for tomorrow, July 4.

The first game will be with the Lawdale club at the Lily park at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The afternoon game, also in the Lily park, will get going at 3:30.

Both games should be fast and interesting and fans are urged to attend.

Colored Team To Play Here Monday

Bob Rogers' colored baseball team known as the Shelby White Sox, will play the Kannapolis team in the city park Monday afternoon. Frank Crosby, southpaw of fame, will twirl for the White Sox. Bob urges his white friends to witness the game as local business houses will be closed that day.

The morning service will be given over to a short business conference, the Lord's supper and a short message by the pastor.

The Sunday school will assemble at 9:45 a. m., and the B. Y. P. U. meet at 6:30.

Midweek prayer service on Wednesday night at 7:45.

Shelby Juniors To Play Gastonia Friday, Saturday

Young Legion Teams Clash There in Opening of Junior World Series Play.

Gastonia Gazette.
Announcement of the elimination games in North Carolina, between the contesting Legion Junior league teams have been received here from the office of the state adjutant.

The Gastonia team will meet the Shelby juniors at the local high school stadium Friday and Saturday of this week. Should the local team succeed in eliminating Shelby they will meet Charlotte in Gastonia on Monday, July 6, and in Charlotte on Tuesday, July 7. If necessary to play the third game it will be played in Gastonia on Wednesday.

The first game between Charlotte and local boys in Gastonia on Monday should prove a drawing card. All of the stores will be closed and in keeping with the trend of the times prices of admission have been reduced to 25c for the grand stand and 15c for the bleachers. These prices also at the games Friday and Saturday with Shelby.

The drum corps of Gaston post 23 will be in charge of the refreshment stand and every penny of admission paid goes into the fund for the carrying on of the junior league activities.

Saturday will be the 4th of July and the merchants will celebrate Monday. There should be record attendances at all the games. If these fine boys are to go far this year in the contests it will take the wholehearted support of the people to back them up and encourage them. So far this all star team, shows up far better than any local team Gastonia has had and with the proper support will go far toward the championship.

Among other Shelby golfers who plan to participate in the Tryon tourney are Jack Hartigan, Harry Umsted, Cleveland Springs champion; Charlie Keel, Ted Cashion and Renn Drum.

Webb Boys Have Tough Match At Tryon On Fourth

Will Play Hearon and Lindsay In Feature Match. Other Shelby Golfers Going.

Tryon, July 3.—This year's July golf tournament at the Tryon Country club will pack an added interest. On the morning of Saturday, the Fourth of July, while the field is qualifying, there'll be an 18-hole exhibition match between four of the most brilliant performers in the Carolinas.

"The Webb boys from Shelby"—Pete, now a professional, and Fred (Snook), twice winner of the junior title at Sedgefield—will match shots with Oliver (Zero) Lindsay and Fanning Hearon, ranking amateurs of Shoresbrook and the Country club in Spartanburg.

Shelby is spreading it around that "the Webb boys" can't be beat and the people in Tryon and Spartanburg, having watched Lindsay and Hearon whip around lots of courses in low scores, want to see what can be done about it.

While playing the exhibition match, Lindsay, Hearon and Fred Webb will qualify for match play that begins in the afternoon of the same day. This will furnish more interest, as last year, when Webb shattered the course record to win the medal trophy, Lindsay and Hearon were hot on his heels.

Two tournament favorites will play together against last year's winner and his brother, at the same time probably having at stake medal honors and a reputation.

The tournament promises to eclipse last season's. Crack players—men and women—are entering from many places and play for the pile of handsome trophies should be the fastest seen here in years.

Players will qualify on the morning of Saturday, the Fourth; in the first 18-hole round in the afternoon; the second round next morning and the final round that afternoon.

Among other Shelby golfers who plan to participate in the Tryon tourney are Jack Hartigan, Harry Umsted, Cleveland Springs champion; Charlie Keel, Ted Cashion and Renn Drum.

Mooresboro Route 2 News Of Week-End

Mr. Bridges Returns To Washington. Farmers Disappointed By Clouds.

(Special to The Star.)
Mooresboro, R-2, July 1.—Mr. Robert R. Bridges of Washington, D. C. visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bridges Tuesday night.

Due to his work, however, he returned home Wednesday accompanied by Master Roy S. Bridges, Jr., and Miss Etta Bostic. The former will visit his father who lives there.

The farmers of this vicinity were disappointed Tuesday when the clouds failed to yield any rain except a small sprinkle which soon vanished under the violent rays of the sun.

Mr. Brooker Blanton of Richmond, Va., is visiting friends and relatives in and around Mooresboro this week.

Mr. Joe Bridges who has been under the supervision of physicians for some time with an injured back was pronounced all right last Saturday.

Farmers of this community are preparing to live at home the coming year as they have just finished storing away the best wheat harvest in years to await the coming of threshers.

Mr. Andrew McCraw of near Cowpens visited Mr. J. L. Humphries Sunday.

Ora Club Will Try To Defeat C. C. Saturday

Fast Independent Team To Meet League Outfit. Shelby Mill Plays

The Ora mill baseball club has to be shown that the Cleveland Cloth mill club of the Western Carolina league is the best outfit in Shelby. And the Ora have extended an open house to all baseball fans hereabouts to see the argument settled Saturday afternoon, July 4, at the city park.

The Cloth mill club will play its league game with Rhodhiss at Rhodhiss in the morning, returning here in the afternoon for the game with Ora which is to be one of the big features of the Fourth hereabouts.

Opinion about town as to the outcome is pretty well divided, both clubs having plenty of supporters who are confident their pick will come through victorious. Johnny Putnam will attempt to stop the C. C. outfit, and Ferguson or Smith may be on the mound for the league.

Another Double Bill
The Shelby Mill club is also scheduled for a double bill on the Fourth and Shelby is assured of plenty of baseball as the afternoon game will be played here.

Hamrick To Hurl
In the morning the Shelby mill club goes to Avondale for a game, and in the afternoon the two clubs will return to the Shelby park for the contest. Sherrill Hamrick will more than likely do the hurling for the Shelby club in the home game, and the many fans who are planning to attend are assured that a fast contest will be played.

All in all it will be a big afternoon for Shelby baseball bugs.

How Animals Aid In War on Disease

Study of Animal Diseases Has Brought Cures for Many Ailments, Says Authority, Writing of Tularemia

By R. S. COPELAND, M. D., U. S. Senator from New York, Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

MUCH valuable information has been contributed to mankind by the study of animal diseases. This method of obtaining knowledge has often solved many perplexing and difficult problems.

In 1911, McCoy described a disease of rodents. It was particularly common in Tulare County in the West and was believed to be transmitted only in that section of the country. It thus received the name of "Tularemia" and the germ causing the disease was called "bacterium tularensis."

It was originally believed to be only a disease of animals, particularly of rodents, such as the wild rabbit and squirrel. Subsequently, it was noted that man often had this ailment.

The transmission of this disease occurs either by handling diseased animals or by the bite of certain insects which have previously fed on a diseased animal. So far as known, this disease is believed to be found only in the United States and Japan.

The attack comes on suddenly. A pustule or pimple appears at the point of infection. This pustule is painful and eventually forms an ulcer. Headache is usually present, with chills, general body pains, vomiting and fever.

The fever may be very high and last for two or three weeks. Recovery is slow but it always follows. In many cases, however, it may be months before the individual regains his former strength.

Since this disease is found among persons handling unhealthy animals, precautions against infection should be taken. During the rabbit season animals should be carefully examined for any possible contamination.

In an attempt to prevent the disease among laboratory workers, the wearing of rubber gloves has been made compulsory. It is advisable that in contaminated areas all cooks, marketmen and hunters wear rubber gloves when dressing rabbits.
