Divertissement In Yellow.
Three yellow lady's slippers stood
On the threshold of the wood,
In buffant gowns of organdy.

To music of the brook and bee,
They posed above the woodland
grass,
Like ballerinas by Degas.

The sunlight on the water made
Fairy footlights where they swayed,
With such an airy elfin grace.

I lingered in that sylvan place
Entranced, as one who looked upon Titania and Oberon!

Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club Entertained.

Mrs. Renn Drum was hostess to members of the Tuesday afternoon bridge club and a few invited guests at a regular meeting on Tuesday morning at 10:30. Bridge was played at three tables and when scores were added Mrs. Frank Hoey was winner of the high score award and Mrs. Gerald Morgan of the prize for second high score. When cards were laid aside Mrs. Shem Blackley and Mrs. Frank Kendall assisted in serving simple refreshments.

Visitors Being Much Feted.

Miss Virginia Alley and Katherine Teague, of Henderson, attractive visitors of Miss Dorothy King are being extended many social courtesies this week. Today Miss Burton Gettys is entertaining at a bridge luncheon in their honor, and this evening Miss Minna LeGrand will entertain them and their hostesses at a picnic at Lake Montonia, near Kings Mountain. Friday afternoon Miss Elizabeth Rivers will entertain at bridge in their honor, at 4 o'clock at her home on Marietta street.

Mrs. Suttle Entertains For Attractive Visitors.

Mrs. C. B. Suttle was a gracious hostess at luncheon on Monday when she entertained in honor of Miss Lilly Mattison, of Greenwood, S. C., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ralph Royster, and of Mrs. John Stevens, of Wilmington, guest of Mrs. Horace Eason.

Mrs. Suttle received in a becoming summer frock of green, Miss Mattison wore a blue sports costume with blue accessories, and Mrs. Stevens wore a crepe dress in shades of tomato and white.

The table decoration consisted of an attractive arrangement of swan vases, with a large swan filled with yellow and white daisies centering the table, and a small swan, holding the same flowers, gracing each corner of the table. A color scheme of yellow and white was carried out in detail. A delightful four course luncheon was beautifully served.

Covers were laid for: Miss Mattison, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Ralph Royster, Mrs. D. W. Royster, Mrs. Horace Eason, Miss Lucy Hamrick, Mrs. Hopson Austell, Mrs. Jack Dover, Mrs. Grady Lovelace, Miss Elizabeth McBrayer and Mrs. Suttle.

Recent Wedding Of Interest Here.

Friends here will be much interested in a wedding which took place on June 24 in Maynard, Texas, when Miss Bernice Kouri became the bride of Mr. Joe Owens, of Shelby. Mrs. Owens is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Kouri, of that place. The groom is a native of Mount Lebanon, Syria, but has been in this country a number of years. He came to Shelby nine years and has been connected with the Carolina Fruit and Produce Company, of this place, as a partner in the business. Mr. Owens has made a host of friends for himself during his stay in Shelby.

Mr. and Mrs. Owens returned to Shelby on Monday and have purchased a home in Belvedere Heights where they will start housekeeping.

Pretty Tea For Visitors.

Misses Dorothy and Alice Goode Kings were hostesses on Tuesday afternoon at a beautiful tea given in compliment of their house guests, Misses Virginia Allen and Katherine Teague, of Henderson. The rooms of the lower floor were lavishly decorated with mixed summer flowers. When the guests arrived they were greeted at the front door by Misses Ruth Laughridge and Minna LeGrand who directed them to the receiving line which was headed by Mrs. Will King, mother of the two hostesses. Next to Mrs. King stood Miss Dorothy King, who was lovely in an afternoon frock of blue crepe, Miss Allen had chosen for the occasion a frock of light blue argandy. Miss Alice Goode King wore an afternoon dress of pale green point d'esprit, and Miss Teague wore a becoming frock of blue eyelet mesh. Others in the receiving line were Misses Caldwell Hoyle, Adeline Rea, Milly Rutledge, Hope Whisonant, Martha Wilson, Julia Wilson, all of Charlotte, and Miss Elizabeth Lankford, of Gastonia. Miss Burton Gettys received in the living room and Misses Beate Sue Wilson and Elizabeth Rivers assisted in receiving in the dining room. Miss Elizabeth Austell bade the guests good bye as they departed. Serving in the dining room were Misses Elizabeth Blanton, Helen Marshall Hamrick, Adeline Lineberger, and Marie King. Misses Justine Grigg and Jane Washburn presided at the register on the front porch.

An ice and sweet course with sandwiches, cheese straws, and punch were served. A color scheme of pink was carried out in decorations and refreshments in the dining room.

Miss Cooper Weds Dr. Parker Tuesday.

(Special to The Star.)
Mayesville, July 7.—A beautiful mid-summer wedding took place Tuesday, July 7, 4 o'clock p. m., in the Mayesville Presbyterian church when Miss Margaret Elizabeth Cooper became the bride of Dr. Shepherd Falkner Parker, of Shelby, N. C., in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives including many guests from out-of-town and other states.

Ivy, southern smilax, palms and quantities of flowers in pastel shades adorned the altar, chancel and other parts of the church.

The nuptial musical program preceded the marriage. Mrs. Ben Suttle, of Shelby, N. C., sweetly sang "Because" and "My Heart Is a Haven" accompanied on the piano by Miss L. Emma Mayes, who also rendered the processional and recessional marches.

To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, the bridal party entered. First the ushers: Thomas Witherspoon Cooper, brother of the bride and James Thomas, The bridesmaids were: Miss Catherine Bass, who wore yellow with green sash and slippers; Miss Annie Louise Mayes, who wore green with yellow sash and slippers; Miss Elizabeth Thomas who wore blue with pink sash and slipper; Miss Marvel Weinberg, who wore orchid with silver sash and slippers. Each costume was of embroidered organdie and each bridesmaid carried an arm bouquet of gladioli tied with tulle to match accessories.

The groomsmen were: C. D. Cooper, of Sumter, brother of the bride; W. R. Parker, of Raleigh, N. C., brother of the bridegroom; Harvey S. White and Robert W. Shoffner, of Shelby, N. C.

Little Frances Mayes, of Atlanta, Ga., dressed in a blue frock of frills carried the ring in the heart of a lily.

Mrs. C. D. Cooper, of Sumter, dame of honor, was attired in blue chiffon with pink sash and slippers carried an arm bouquet of gladioli tied with pink tulle.

The bride was accompanied to the altar by her mother, Mrs. C. D. Cooper, sr., gowned in handsome yellow lace and wore silver slippers. The costume of the beautiful blonde bride was delicate pink embroidered with dainty blue lace hat and mitts and blue slippers. She carried a lovely bouquet of pink rosebuds showered with blue for-get-me-nots.

The bridegroom had for his best man, his father, Mr. W. K. Parker, of Goldsboro, N. C. When the bridal party became assembled at the altar the scene resembled a garden of beautiful flowers, over which was arched a rainbow of color, formed by the floral decorations of the chancel. The ring ceremony was impressively performed by Dr. R. L. Grier, pastor of the bride, after which the bridal party left the church while Mendelssohn's wedding march was softly played.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Cooper, sr., is descended from French Huguenots on the maternal side and Scotch Covenanters on the paternal. She is one of Mayesville's most beautiful and popular young women. She was graduated from Winthrop where she was prominent in college life, being a marshal, president of the Choral society, a Patrician, member of the Y cabinet and of the Players Guild.

The bridegroom, Dr. Shepherd Falkner Parker, of an old and prominent family of North Carolina, is a graduate of the University of N. C., the Medical College of Virginia, and interne at Garfield Memorial hospital in Washington, D. C. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa fraternity.

Immediately after the ceremony the happy young couple left by motor for the mountains of Western North Carolina.

The brides' going-away costume was ashes of roses, flat crepe with black rough straw hat and accessories to match.

Many handsome presents testifying to the popularity of the young couple were displayed in the home where a lovely reception was held for the bridal party the evening previous.
