STAR ADVS. PAYS

Just Ten Years Ago

A Peep or Two Back in 1920

(Items Taken From The Cleveland Star of 1920.)

From Issue of the Star, July 8, 1921. Thursday July 14th has been definitely set for the opening of the modern Cleveland Springs Hotel which has been under construction for nearly 18 months. The building itself will be ready by Saturday, the date first set for the opening, but the delay in bed room furniture necessitates a further delay of five days. Mr. R. T. Rosemond, the new manager arrived a week ago and is rushing everything along as fast as possible. The swimming pool has been completed and filled with water. The garage is under construction, a dressing room at the swimming pool will be begun in a few days, baseball ground, tennis courts and golf links will be provided as soon as the work can be done.

Over 3,000 people attended the Fourth of July celebration at Hollis and enjoyed the exercises and entertainment provided by that prince of good fellows, Hon. J. P. D. Withrow, merchant king and former representative of Rutherford in the General Assembly of North Carolina.

Another pretty courtesy to Mrs. Siedely and sister Mrs. Thompson, was the picnic Tuesday night at Cleveland Springs. The supper, which was bountiful and complete in every detail, was furnished by the Methodist ladies of the Woman's Bible Study class, and to which all the Bible class was invited.

Mrs. Andrew Miller, Jr., was a most charming hostess on Thursday morning at the Miller home on South Washington street in honor of her two charming sisters, Misses Helen and Stella Blackwell of Spencer who are her guests until Sunday.

Miss Millicent Blanton who is entertaining at house party a coterie of beautiful young women at her home on West Marion street this week, received in their honor Tuesday afternoon at four tables of auction bridge.

Miss Sarah McMurry and sister, Mrs. Willis McMurry were charming hostesses on Tuesday morning in honor of Miss Louise Pearsall of Rocky Mount who is the charming guest of her cousin, Miss Margaret Jenkins.

Mrs. C. R. Hoey was a delightful hostess at a lovely luncheon to her home on West Marion street Tuesday morning in honor of Mrs. C. L. Steidley of Gastonia, who so ably conducted a series of meetings here at Central Methodist church in May, and who during her stay here won the hearts of all who heard and met her.

The board of aldermen in session Tuesday night considered a motion by Alderman T. W. Hamrick to raise Mayor J. T. Gardner's salary to $100 per month for which he was to give full time to his office, but the motion failing to receive a second was not put to a vote.

From Issue of the Star July 5, 1921. Dr. A. C. Dixon preached two great sermons at the First Baptist church Sunday morning and night. Over 1,000 people heard him at each service and many people had to be turned away for lack of room, for they came from far and near in automobiles to hear this distinguished divine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bowman and a party of friends motored to Bridgewater and spent the glorious fourth fishing.

One of Shelby's most brilliant and learned young women, Miss Annie Beam, who since her graduation several years ago from the State college at Greensboro, has been one of our most valued teachers in the various schools of the state, is to become a member of the North Carolina College for Women next year.

Miss Janie Blanton was a charming young hostess on last Friday afternoon as a pretty courtesy to her house guest, Miss Janie Stamey of Fallston.

Miss Margaret Love Gardner was a charming young hostess on last Friday at a party for her lovely little guest, Miss Mary Gross Hatch of Thomasville, Ga.

Jack Dempsey is still heavyweight pugilistic champion of the world as last night he knocked out George Carpenter in the fourth round of the so-called "Battle of the Century."

The resolution of Congress declaring war with Germany and Austria-Hungary at an end was signed last today at Raritan, New York, by President Harding.

returning leaves Ridgecrest on return at 5 p.m. that afternoon after the excursionists had had an opportunity of hearing Dr. Truett's great sermon.

From Issue of the Star, July 1, 1921. The rains which visited sections of the country Tuesday afternoon did considerable damage in two sections of the county from which The Star was able to obtain information Wednesday.

Officers of the county captured five stills in a single day Tuesday, yet there was no concerted roundup, said Sheriff Logan.

Miss Mary Griffin was a most delightful young hostess at her home on South Washington street Wednesday morning, in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Edward Davis, a charming young matron of Asheville.

Miss Sallie Lou Packard and Mr. George Shuford were quietly married Wednesday evening at 8:30 at the First Baptist church parsonage, the bride's pastor, Rev. J. M. Kester officiated in his impressive manner. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Lee Packard of Shelby, while the groom is a native of Caldwell county who is right-hand man of Mr. Charlie Haynes, secretary of the Cliffside Mills.

The following merchants of Shelby have signed a petition that they will close their doors on July 4 and observe the day as a holiday although there is no program arranged in Shelby.

The greatest arena Tex Rickard has built is ready to accommodate approximately 7,000 spectators when Champion Jack Dempsey meets George Carpenter in Jersey City, July 2.

At her lovely home on South Washington street, Miss Margaret Jenkins entertained most charmingly at auction bridge in honor of her cousin and house guest, Miss Louise Pearsall of Rocky Mount, on Tuesday morning.

J. C. Davis a farmer on Mr. W. A. Spangler's farm and a colored tenant, Will Beam, on the farm of Mr. J. B. Blanton on route three brought to the Star office Wednesday cotton blossoms which bloomed on June 29, on their places.

L. U. Arrowood has purchased a lot on East Marion street from Plato Grigg. The vacant square to the west of the Methodist parsonage was divided into four lots which are now owned by L. U. Arrowood and J. G. Dudley and it is learned that they contemplate building residences thereon.

Mrs. T. A. Robertson of New York City, who has been spending several months here with sisters and numerous relatives and friends and who has been accorded a round of social affairs left Wednesday for New York.

Dr. Clarence Dixon will preach in Shelby Sunday morning and evening.

CHURCH TO HAUL ITS PEOPLE TO WORSHIP

Currituck, N. C.—To the "Glory of God and the Good of Man" Currituck Memorial Methodist church has dedicated a large, black bus. The big passenger vehicle, purchased by the church to enable its rural members to attend services, was christened "Miss Memorial" at a dedication ceremony held here yesterday shortly after it had discharged its first load of passengers at the church's door.

The Rev. J. A. Tharpe, pastor of the church, explained the church had decided to purchase the bus in order to give rural members the same opportunity to attend services as the state gives their children to attend school.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends and relatives for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the sickness and death of our dear father. The expressions of sympathy have been a great comfort to us in our sorrow, and the flowers were especially appreciated. E. Edna and Pearl Cook.
