NIGHT PRICES 10 and 25c

WARNING

In presenting "THE PUBLIC ENEMY" to the people of Shelby, we realize that here, as never before, we have more than a motion picture . . . a vital, throbbing document of life today. So startling in its reality, so outspoken in its message, so vicious in its condemnation, it will leave you trembling from its impact!

"The Public Enemy"

was not made for those whose skins are too tender, for those who expect to see fake heroics, nor for those looking for the central characters to burst into sweet love lyrics. It is real, real, DEVASTATINGLY real! a grim depiction of the modern menace! Come prepared to see the worst of women and the cruelest of men—as they really are!

Contest Comes To A Close—Rev. Yancy Elliott A Visitor—Personals.

Beams' Mill, July 16.—Six weeks ago the Sunday School decided to enter a contest. The pupils were divided into two groups. Miss Eleanor Elliott was selected leader for the Blues and Mr. Carl McSwain leader for the Reds.

Much interest and enthusiasm has been created in the Sunday School work during this contest. Scores are counted on three points: Attendance, Bibles, and offering. To date the Blues are leading with two points: Attendance and Bibles.

At the close of the contest the winning group will be entertained by the other group.

Mr. Chivous Hoyle, Misses Aletha and Marzona Hoyle spent several days this week visiting friends in Boone. Mr. Hoyle remained in Boone for several weeks.

Misses Lucille West, Mr. China Padgett of Spindale, and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Willis of Charlotte spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hoyle.

Rev. Yancy Elliott, who is a student at the Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, Ky. is spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. J. Y. Elliott. He filled the regular monthly appointments for Rev. D. G. Washburn at Pleasant Grove. A large crowd was present Sunday to hear the home boy preach. He delivered a very impressive sermon on God's Love for Us.

A wedding of much interest to a wide circle of friends was that of Miss Addie McSwain to Mr. Furman Bingham on Saturday, July 4. Mrs. Bingham is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McSwain of this community. We wish for this couple a long and happy life.

Mrs. Sylvester Elliott and children are spending this week with Mrs. J. Y. Elliott. Rev. Sylvester Elliott of Paris, Ark. expects to join his family here this week.

Mrs. Mittle Wellman is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Wright.

ARE

1/2 PRICE

Our dresses have never been high. So many times have we been told our dresses are the prettiest and most reasonable ever seen in Shelby—(No exaggeration) and now look what you can do — almost our entire stock marked down to half the original price. We have already bought a good many early Fall Sport things and we are determined to clean out all Summer dresses before they arrive. Come right away — the selection is still good.
