

Air Race Beaten by Death

Members of the U. S. Army Medical Corps are shown at Washington, D. C., removing Private Olaf Nelson from the Army's Red Cross ambulance plane into a waiting ambulance after he was flown to Washington from El Paso, Texas, to have two false teeth extracted from his throat at Walter Reed hospital. The 2,000-mile flight to save Nelson from choking to death was made in 24 hours, but the soldier died before surgeons could operate.

Observe Church's 100th Anniversary

People From Several States Attend High Shoals Church Celebration.

Rutherfordton, July 30.—A large crowd attended the 100th anniversary of the founding of High Shoals Baptist church at the church near Henrietta Monday. The pastor, Rev. D. G. Washburn, welcomed the visitors who came from every section of Rutherford and Cleveland counties. Rev. C. C. Matheny, moderator of the Sandy Run Baptist association responded in a short address. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hicks rendered special music while W. L. Hicks gave a history of the church. The singing of old time songs was a feature of the morning session. Dr. Zeno Wall, pastor of the First Baptist church, Shelby, delivered the centennial sermon.

G. B. Pruett, of Ellenboro, veteran churchman and clerk of the Sandy Run association for 27 consecutive years, discussed "Early Occurrences in High Shoals Church." The church started with 17 members and now has around 225. It once had more members but many have moved away and a number of churches have been organized in nearby mill towns.

Chicken Picking Test At State Convention

Raleigh, July 30.—Feathers flew thick and fast at College here last night.

Eight men and women representing nearly 1,500 farmers and their wives at the state farmers' and farm women's convention, competed for the championship in a chicken-picking contest.

Mrs. J. G. Blake of Pender county took first honors for the women and Lee Andrews of Martin county "jerked off most feathers" to win for the men. Each was presented with a prize pedigree cockerel by the college.

Other contestants included: F. G. Peyton, Gaston county; A. B. Collins, Onslow; R. W. Pou, Forsyth; Mrs. E. A. Williams, Hyde; Mrs. W. B. Lambe, Samson; and Mrs. Z. R. McBane, Albemarle.

American Farmers Not Headed Down

Raleigh, July 30.—Wheeler McMillen, associate editor of "The Country Home" told nearly 2,000 delegates to the Farmers' and Farm Women's convention at N. C. State College today the American farmer is not headed for peasantry.

"We hear now that the American farmer is hellbent for peasantry," he declared, "but I do not believe that because there is not the type of people on our farms that makes peasants."

"Never before in all the world's history has free public education been available for every farm boy and girl in the national Education and peasantry do not go together, nor does peasantry and modern farm methods."

SAYS 156 FRENCHMEN LOST THEIR LIVES AT YORKTOWN

Paris, July 30.—One hundred and fifty-six Frenchmen lost their lives at Yorktown fighting for the cause of American independence instead of only 62 as previously listed.
