Your Shrine.

Never from open question and reply. But gleaning from small casual things you say. I try to guess what stars you journey by. At what sequestered shrine you some times pray. You pray? O, well, perhaps you only dream. But there is dogwood and wild apple there. Beside your door, and near it a young stream. Spinning gay bubbles past the maidenhair. I know you would not dock a golden calf. But yet, I think you keep some shining gold. A warm, clay Venus. Pan with chisled laugh. And calm Demeter's curved maternal mold. And on your altar's marble centre stand. A Christ Child and a Cupid hand in hand. —Mildred Whitney Stillman

Penny Store Force Entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Latham, of Patterson Springs, were hosts on Tuesday evening at their home there to members of the J. C. Penny store force and their families at a delightfully informal evening at home. A watermelon feast was enjoyed during the evening.

Picnic Party At Rainbow Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Long, Miss Margaret Anthony, Miss Charlotte Beverly, Mr. Eugene Lattimore, Miss Ellen Foster, Mr. Marion Champion and Miss Muriel Wright formed a party which enjoyed a picnic and swimming party at Rainbow Lake near Spartanburg on last Saturday.

Mrs. Hendrick To Honor Visitors.

Mrs. Ben Hendrick will entertain members of the Contract Bridge club on Friday morning at 11 o'clock at the Golf Club house, honoring Mrs. Frank Colwell, of Clinton, guest of Mrs. Ed McCurry, and Mrs. Earl Larkin, of Chicago, guest of Mrs. Jimmy Blanton.

Mrs. North Entertains For Young Set.

Mrs. Kate North was a gracious hostess on Tuesday evening at her home on Cleveland Springs road when she entertained at an informal pajama party for her granddaughter, Miss Constance Dellinger. Miss Dellinger wore a becoming pajama costume of figured crepe. About 40 guests were present and dancing and progressive dates were features of the evening's entertainment. Bright bowls of mixed flowers decorated the living room and porch, and the punch bowl was attractively arranged on the porch. Mrs. North and Mrs. Boyce Dellinger presided, serving punch throughout the evening.

Surprise Birthday Dinner Monday.

On Monday evening at their apartment at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Dorton, Mrs. B. W. Dickson was a charming hostess at a surprise birthday dinner given in honor of her husband. The table was centered with a bowl of mixed garden flowers and silver candlesticks, holding pink tapers, graced each corner of the table. Pink crystal glassware was used and other table appointments carried out the color scheme of pink and green. An elaborate four-course dinner was served after which bridge was played at three tables during the evening. When scores were added Mrs. Claude Roberts held high score for the ladies and Mr. Ray Allen for gentlemen. Each was awarded an attractive prize. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Dickson, Dr. and Mrs. Dorton, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Arrowood, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nolan, Miss Mary Helen Lattimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Roberts, of McAdenville.

Miss Crowder Honors Guests At Pretty Party.

(Special to The Star.) Miss Aileen Crowder was a charming hostess to a large assembly of friends on Friday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest S. Crowder, at Lattimore honoring her guests Misses Evelyn and Mary Philbeck of Fayetteville, and Miss Dorothy Morgan of Portsmouth, Va., the latter being a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Crowder.

The guests were met at the north entrance by John Jones Crowder who invited them in and introduced them to the receiving line headed by Miss Crowder who had chosen for the occasion an evening dress of Nile green organdy. Those receiving with the hostess were Miss Evelyn Philbeck, wearing turquoise blue georgette. Miss Dorothy Morgan, dressed in peach flat crepe and Miss Macy Philbeck, wearing leaf green

Miss Daisy Crowder served the guests delicious and refreshing punch after which they returned to the large lawn and enjoyed games. Near the close of the evening they were invited into the dining room where ice cream and dainty home made cakes, led in pink rose buds and green leaves were served. The table was covered with a hand made tatting cover, a huge bowl of varicolored garden flowers formed the centerpiece and at each end lighted tapers in silver holders cast a mellow glow over the room. Mrs. Crowder was assisted in serving by her little daughter, Miss Marietta, who wore an organdy dress of pink.

Mr. and Mrs. Crowder stood at the east door and bade the guests goodbye. About fifty guests called during the evening.

Mrs. Oliver Anthony To Have Bridge Club.

Mrs. Oliver Anthony will be hostess to members of the Tuesday Afternoon bridge club on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at her home in Belvidere Heights.

Twins To Celebrate Third Birthday.

Mrs. J. C. McNeely will entertain for her twin daughters, Betty Jane and Mary Ann, tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 in celebration of their third birthday.

Mrs. Gardner Has Visitors.

Mrs. J. T. Gardner had as guests yesterday afternoon Mrs. J. L. Booth, Mrs. H. M. Wilder, Mrs. Brandon and Mrs. Watkins, all of Charlotte, most of whom are officials in the Spanish American War Auxiliary of that place. Mrs. Gardner invited a few neighbors in to meet her guests and a pleasant social hour was spent together.

Interesting Meeting Of Y. W. A. Monday.

On Monday evening Miss Louise Ledford was hostess to members of the Y. W. A. of the First Baptist church at an interesting meeting with about 15 members in attendance. Three new members were added to the group and five visitors were present. Miss Mary Tedder had charge of the program and conducted the devotional. An interesting program was given consisting of a talk by Miss Viola Randall, and a story told by Mrs. B. Y. Allison, aunt of Miss Della Wall, who was a guest of the group.

During a business meeting plans were discussed for a picnic to be given in honor of members leaving for college in the fall and of Miss Louise Ledford who leaves for a course in training at the Baptist hospital in Winston-Salem. During the social half-hour the guests enjoyed a novel flower contest after which an ice and sweet course was served.

First School Days Remind Of Tragedy

Fast Going Threatens The Race, But Safety Devices Are On The Way.

(By J. A. Wilson) As the school buses pass this A. M. I am reminded of the tragedy in the county one year ago today. The little girl of six who left her home early in the morning with her little lunch and primmer and a happy heart to return to her parents in the evening and relate her first days experiences at school.

At her home in the evening she stepped from the bus in front of an autoist who wanted to get some where too quickly. Her little, happy life was snuffed out. My heart was made sad. She could have been mine and a thousand names will fit in here for I don't even remember the names of the parties in this particular. But there are some sad hearts with sadder memories today.

Our steam and gas age has created a Frankenstein monster in our vehicles of transportation that threaten to destroy the race. But in the offing I see hope. We are going into the air and electric age, and machines will be made fool proof, automatic and sure. In five years from now all travel will be made comfortable and absolutely safe. Watch Mrs. Hoover christian the first of these safe machines on August 8th at Ackon.

We have felt uneasy for 20 years for our loved ones but the Lord has been good to us and we have not even been a witness to any serious tragedy.

That which is evil will surely destroy itself and only the good will survive. For which we are very thankful, and be sure to be careful for the children today and every day.

Baer—Don't fool yourself. When the burglar saw my wife he became so terrified I thought the poor fellow would go crazy.
