Dawn
I am a confidant of Dawn, An intimate of waking things, A lover of pale, luccent skies, A listener for stirring wings.

I am no prisoner of Sleep In that dim hour when the Dawn Bends over and confides in me After her lover, Night, is gone.

Strange are the things Dawn tells to me—
Pallid, with tear-dew on her cheeks; I may not tell what secret things She whispers to me when she speaks.

Only the sinking stars . . . the late Wan, wastrel moon . . . the waking flowers . . .

And birds share with the Dawn and me
The intimacies of those hours —Roselle Mercier Montgomery.

Mrs. Louis Gardner is Luncheon Hostess.
Mrs. L. W. Gardner charmingly entertained a group of friends on Wednesday at a bridge luncheon and boating party at Lake Lure, in honor of Miss Elath Buchanan, of Richmond, Ky., who is visiting Mrs.

D. W. Royster. The party convened at the Lake Lure Coffee shop at Chimney Rock where a delicious four-course luncheon was served, the guests all being seated at one long table which was centered with a bowl of colorful summer flowers.
After luncheon bridge was played at three tables arranged in the inner court, and when at the close of the games scores were added Mrs. Ralph Royster was given a piece of pottery as high score prize. Mrs. Gardner gave Miss Buchanan two beautiful hooked mats as an honor gift. After an hour or so spent at bridge the party returned to Lake Lure where they enjoyed a delightful motor boat trip around the lake.

Those enjoying this delightful hospitality were: Miss Buchanan, Mrs.
D. W. Royster, Mrs. Ralph Royster, Mrs. Willis McMurry, Mrs. Tom Moore, Mrs. Ben Suttle, Mrs. Renn Drum, Mrs. Harry Hudson, Mrs.
Oliver Anthony, Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. Harry Woodson and Miss Isabelle Hoey.

Club Season To Open On Tuesday.
The fall club season will open on Tuesday with the first meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution which will be held at the Woman's club room at 4 o'clock.
Mrs. Paul Webb, sr., Mrs. O. M.
Mull, Miss Elizabeth McBrayer and Mrs. Luther G. Thompson will act as joint hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Weathers To Be Dinner Hosts.
Mr. and Mrs. Lee B. Weathers will entertain at an informal small dinner party this evening at their home on W. Marion street. Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Royster, Miss Roberta Royster, and Mr. Wythe Royster, all of Fallston.

Pretty Party For Miss Louise Ledford
Miss Egberta North entertained at a pretty party last evening at her home on the Cleveland Springs road in honor of Miss Louise Ledford, who leaves Monday for Winston-Salem where she will enter training at the Baptist hospital.
Miss Alma Odum, of New Bern, also shared honors. The rooms were decorated with bright summer flowers and four tables were arranged for bridge. After several progressive the scores were added and the high score prize for girls, a vial of perfume, was awarded to Miss Louise Ledford. Mr. Raymond Carroll was given a carton of cigarettes as gentlemen's high score prize. Each of the honor guests was given an attractive vanity.

Pink rose buds were used on each table and a color scheme of pink and green was carried out in refreshments and decorations. A delicious salad course with punch was served.

Henry Quinn Celebrates Birthday.
Henry Quinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Quinn, entertained a number of his friends at a birthday party on Wednesday afternoon in honor of his ninth birthday. About fifteen children of the neighborhood were invited and the afternoon was spent in playing games on the lawn. At the close of the afternoon they were invited into the dining room where the pretty birthday cake centered the table.
Tall pink candles burned on each corner of the table. Mrs. Quinn was assisted by Esther Ann Quinn, Sara Esther Dover and Mary Lillian Speck in serving ice cream, cakes, and candies.

Mr. and Mrs. Mauney Entertain For Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mauney entertained at a pretty bridge party last evening at their home on Elizabeth avenue in honor of Misses Isabel and Mary Roberts, of Charlotte. A color scheme of yellow and green was carried out in detail; bridge was played at seven tables during the evening. When scores were added Miss Mattie Sue Allen and Mr. Lawrence Hamrick were the winners of the high score prizes.
Mrs. Mauney presented Miss Isabel Roberts with an attractive ash tray and Miss Mary Roberts with linen handkerchiefs as guest prizes.

The hosts were assisted in entertaining by their two small children, Mary Jane and Ralph, jr. Misses Ella Mae Mauney and Bessie Sue Wilson assisted Mrs. Mauney in serving a delicious ice and sweet course.

Fallston News Of Current Week

Improving School Grounds. Ball Games Planned. Personal News.

(Special to The Star.)

Fallston, Aug. 25.—Fallston high school is progressing nicely under the able management of Mr. W. R.
Gary. In spite of the lack of funds improvements of the grounds are being planned. The high school boys are already making plans to build several concrete walkways. This goes to prove that progress can be made without money, by using a little manual labor.

Young Gillespie To Foreign Field
Native of Cleveland County and Son of Rev. Jas. C. Gillespie Goes to China.

(Special to The Star.)
Reidsville, Aug. 27.—Rev. A. S.
Gillespie, son of Rev. and Mrs. Jas.
C. Gillespie, now of Reidsville, who are natives of this section of the state and whose work has been largely in Cleveland county till the last few years, and his wife, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pit-tard of Bullock, are under appointment of the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist convention to sail for Kaifeng, China, October 10th, to the field made vacant by the death of Dr. W. Eugene Saltee at Meredith college in June.

Mr. Gillespie is a graduate of Mars Hill college, took B. A. degree from Wake Forest college in 1929 and his Th. M. degree from the Southern Baptist Theological seminary at Louisville, Ky., in 1930. He did a year's post graduate work in the department of missions under Dr. W. O. Carver and was a fellow in the department of church efficiency during 1930-31. He has had year pastoral experience and on August 16th resigned Silgo Baptist church, Pendleton, Ky., a full-time church of which he had been pastor two years and a half, to get ready to sail for his appointment.
Mrs. Gillespie is a graduate of North Carolina college for Women at Greensboro, has taught three years in the public schools of the state and has taken a year's study with her husband in the seminary at Louisville.

A farewell service is being planned for Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie the third Sunday in September at Sharon church, Reidsville R-2, the present location of Mr. Gillespie's parents.

About October 1 they plan to go to Kentucky for a few days and then on to Vancouver on the Canadian coast where they are to sail October 10th.

Mr. Gillespie and his father have held 26 revival meetings together, the last one at Silgo Baptist church, Pendleton, Ky., closing August 16th which was a great meeting, 26 being added to the church and the church being greatly revived.

Get On The Receiving End Of Some Real Good News....

Just back from New York . . . with a large and complete assortment of New Fall Dresses.
And the fabrics, of course, are exquisite. Here's anything from tailored woollens to lustrous silks . . . priced almost twice as low as any merchandise we have ever offered before September 1. The dresses run $3.95, $4.95 and $9.95. Even last year, you had to double the price to touch anything like the quality there is in this lot.

Of course, you have read all about the new Hats for Fall. We have dozens and dozens of them now . . . Derbies, Empress Eugemies, Robin Hoods and every chic, off-the-face style you can imagine. Priced so you can afford two or more: $1 to $4.95.

There is a decided advantage in buying now: the assortments are complete and prices are standing on the very bottom. Come, let us help you make your selections from the lovely things we have assembled.
