Warning to a Traveler.
If, being alone, on any evening you should follow Over the hill This quiet path, which now seems so completely mellow. Completely still. Remember that I warned you once, and then remember That there have been Among those flexes and ashes, where an ember Of sun between The trunks cause a miracle—that there are dwelling In similar places As this, creatures of whom there may be no safe telling. Of whose dark faces There may be no clean punctual un-learning: O then recall That thence there will be no identical returning Ever, at all. —Frederic Prokosch, in Virginia Quarterly Review.

Regular Meeting Of Golf Club.
A regular meeting of the ladies' golf club will be held at the club house on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and an important business meeting of the group at 5 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Morgan-Jones Wedding Invitations Issued.
The following invitations, which will be of interest here and in the county have been issued: "Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Jones request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Nannie Susanne, to Mr. Harrison Morgan on Saturday, September the fifth, nineteen hundred and thirty-one at five in the afternoon. Beaver Dam Baptist church, Shelby, North Carolina."

Epworth League Is Entertained
Last Saturday evening Miss Mary Lee Rollins was hostess to members of the Epworth League of the Johnston Memorial church and a few invited guests at a social meeting at her home near Cleveland Springs. The meeting was opened with a short business session after which a pleasant social hour was enjoyed. The hostess was assisted by her mother in serving an ice and sweet course.

Miss Mary Lineberger Is Party Hostess.
Miss Mary Lineberger was hostess at a delightfully informal party last night honoring Mr. Riley McCord, who leaves today to enter Clemson college, Clemson, S. C. About 25 members of the young set were present and dancing and progressive conversation were enjoyed during the evening. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. William Lineberger, and sister, Miss Adeline Lineberger, in serving an ice and sweet course.

John Landrum Hawkins Celebrates Birthday
Little John Landrum Hawkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hawkins, celebrated his fourth birthday with a delightful party on Tuesday afternoon at his home on Sumner street. More than 50 of his little friends were present and he received a number of nice gifts. Games were played on the lawn during the afternoon after which the guests were invited into the dining room which was decorated in pink and white, the white birthday cake with its pink candles serving as a centerpiece for the table which was further decorated with colored candies. Dixie cups, cakes and candy were served, and each child was given a little celluloid toy as a souvenir.

Pretty Party For Recent Bride.
Miss Louise Tedder and Mrs. Cepha Blanton entertained at a pretty bridge party on Tuesday afternoon at the home of the latter in honor of Miss Emma Neal McQueen, of Raleigh, guest of Miss Tedder, and of Mrs. Paris Price, of Forest City, who before her recent marriage was Miss Viola Randall, of this place. Miss Tedder received in a lovely afternoon frock of flowered chiffon; Mrs. Price wore a becoming dress of beige chiffon, and Miss McQueen had selected for the occasion a pretty costume of tan chiffon. Each of them wore a shoulder bouquet in harmony with their costumes. Bridge was played at four tables during the afternoon and when cards were laid aside the award for high score was given to Mrs. Draper Wood and for second high to Miss McQueen. Each of the honorees received an attractive gift. At the close of the afternoon a pretty salad course was served, followed by an ice course.

Those playing were: Mrs. Price, Miss McQueen, Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Hopson Austell, Mrs. J. H. Grigg, Mrs. Holland Ekridge, Mrs. Tom Nolan, Mrs. Raymond Carroll, Mrs. S. F. Parker, Miss Egberta North, Miss Joyce Wilson, Mrs. Robert Hord, and the following four guests from Forest City: Miss May Martin, Miss Dorothy Bostic, Miss Margaret Young and Miss Louise Lattimore.

Miss Isabel Hoey Is Dinner Hostess.
Miss Isabel Hoey was hostess at a dinner party of distinction and beauty last evening when she honored two college friends, Mr. Aiden Honeycutt and Mr. Max Wilson, both of Burnsville. She received her guests in a handsome dinner gown of black lace. The table decorations consisted of an arrangement of a mirror bearing two figurines in the center of the table, which was garlanded with clematis. This centerpiece was connected by clematis with two Venetian urns, holding pink roses and trailing clematis, which graced each end of the table. An elaborate five course dinner was served. After dinner a theatre party was enjoyed.

Covers were laid for: Miss Hoey, Mr. Honeycutt, Mr. Wilson, Miss Hattie Gidney, Miss Minnie Eddins Roberts, Mr. L. E. Dail, Miss Mae Connor, Mr. Joe Whisonant, Miss Louise Lever, Mr. W. A. Abernethy, Miss Alpha Gettys, Mr. Carlos Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoey, Mrs. W. K. Dupre, and Mr. Clyde R. Hoey.

Club Season Opened With D. A. R. Meeting
The fall club season was opened yesterday afternoon with an interesting meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the Woman's club room with Mesdames O. M. Mull, Luther G. Thompson, Paul Webb, sr., and Miss Elizabeth Ebeloit acting as joint hostesses. Mrs. Harry Speck, the president, was in charge and the meeting was opened with a welcome extended to the new members, Mesdames Laura Cornwell, Nora Cornwell, and Mesdames C. S. Young and Lowery Salute were first observed after which the program proper was opened with a group of two songs sung by Mrs. Ben Suttle with Mrs. H. S. Plaster as accompanist. Mrs. Beunna Bostic read an interesting article on the Constitution, and the remainder of the program was given to Miss Church, a representative of the instructive talk on the work of the school at Crossnore, who made an school and showed a number of exhibits made by students in the school.

During the social hour a delightful ice and sweet course was served.
Small Bridge Party Given For Visitors.
Mrs. Ralph Royster was hostess at a charming small party on Monday afternoon at her home on S. Washington street, entertaining in honor of Miss Elath Buchanan, guest of Mrs. D. W. Royster, and Mrs. R. N. Gurley, guest of Mrs. Renn Drum. Four tables were arranged for bridge in the living room and hall which were attractively decorated with radianse roses and other summer flowers. At the close of the games Mrs. Royster presented each of the honorees with a pretty guest prize and Mrs. William McCord with an award for high score. She was assisted by Mrs. D. W. Royster in serving a pretty salad course followed by an ice and sweet course.

Suttle and Mrs. W. L. McCord.

Hoey Praised As He Declines Race For Senate Seat
him. He is senatorial size and a most likeable man personally."
The Charlotte Observer says: "The only cause for surprise in connection with Hon. Clyde Hoey's announcement that he will not be a candidate for the United States senate in 1932 is that he has taken the step necessary to stop the speculation now instead of later. His action last year, upon the death of the late Senator Overman, in stepping aside in favor of the appointment of Hon. Cameron Morrison, might have been accepted as an indication of his intention to stay out of the race for nomination and election next year. However, there has been persistent speculation all the while as to whether he would enter the contest against Senator Morrison and the other three candidates. It was difficult to figure out, if the distinguished Shelby citizen, lawyer, orator and former congressman desired and intended to seek a seat in the senate, how he could have thought to gain anything by renouncing his ambitions in favor of Mr. Morrison at the time an appointment was to be made.

"In any event, however, his definite announcement that he will not enter the contest goes far toward clarifying the political situation in the state, as regards the senatorial race. Mr. Hoey is not only a Democrat of outstanding ability, but is one of the most popular among the leaders of his party, and there are tens of thousands of voters all over the state who would delight to honor or him. Hosts of his political friends and admirers, however, are also the friends and admirers of Senator Morrison, and the distinguished Charlotte man stands to gain, much rather than lose anything by the announced determination of his Shelby friend not to contend for the high honor."

Hoey Withdrawal To Aid Morrison

much to set speculation at rest. Friends of the senator contend also that Mr. Hoey's voluntary easement from the scene is a further indication that Mr. Morrison will win, since a great majority of those who would have supported Mr. Hoey as between the two will throw their allegiance to the Charlotte man.

Mr. Reynolds, however, will get a fairly good vote, it is believed. When he ran against Senator Overman, whose seat Mr. Morrison was appointed by Governor Gardner to fill until the expiration of the late senator's term next year, he gathered in approximately 92,000 votes. If he can do that this year, which the senator's friends say he cannot, his vote combined with the vote that will be collected by Judge Tam C. Bowie and Frank Grist will be large enough to force a second primary, it is generally felt.

The Asheville man, say his adherents, will receive surprising support because of his advocacy of a change in the national liquor laws. They contend that wet sentiment, or rather sentiment for a modification of the present prohibition set-up, is growing steadily on the grounds that national prohibition cannot be enforced and that the failure of its enforcement has been amply demonstrated.

Cotton Market

Cotton was quoted on New York exchange at noon today:
Oct. 6.84, Dec. 7.65, Yesterday's close: Oct. 6.92, Dec. 7.13.
New York, N. Y., Sept. 2.—Last night's map mostly clear, showers are forecast for parts of all cotton states. Journal Commerce reports crop condition for twelve states 65.9 and estimated crop for twelve states at 13,932,000 bales. Other states may raise 450,000 bales making a total of about 14,400,000 bales. Says central states and South Texas have suffered during August from cool rainy weather. Memphis reports southern spot sales expand but total is below normal. Growers inclined to hold cotton but restricted spot demand due to lack buying interest. Spinners expect lower prices. Houston says cotton beginning to move in fairly large volume into that market and is meeting fair demand, basis steady. Staple is found excellent. Worst stretch quiet. Look for easy market. Liverpool is apparently getting hedge selling.
