Cotton Market

Cotton was quoted at noon today on New York exchange:

Oct. 5-71, Dec. 5-91. Yesterday's close: Oct. 5-69, Dec. 5-80.

New York, Oct. 9.—Good business in spots mids 456 vs. 448 yesterday. Sterling about unchanged in London. Forecast fair except showers along east gulf coast. Moderate business in Worth street. Comment on strike of textile workers at Lawrence, Mass., was that it will have far reaching consequences if prolonged many weeks. Closing of pacific print works will shut off large outlet for cotton goods for printing. Much of the strength yesterday was due to a technical condition created on the reopening. Contracts sold were absorbed by foreign and domestic trade interests and later became scarce. Optimism over banking plans may cause a further advance. CLEVELAND, OHIO.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bridges are announcing the birth of a daughter, Patsy Jolene, on October 8.

Dr. Oscar Sams, of Mars Hill college, spent Wednesday night here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Irvin, having come to Shelby to attend the Baptist association at Zion church yesterday and today.

Mr. Darby Hunter, who formerly worked in Shelby, spent the past week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Richbourg.

Trench silos are being dug in Haywood county to provide succulent feed for winter. The silos cost little to dig and are efficient when placed on stiff land and on a slope.

Freewill Baptists Have Good Meeting

The attendance at the South Washington Freewill Baptist church has been growing rapidly for the past two months. Rev. J. A. Walker has been preaching Sunday mornings, and various other ministers on Sunday nights. D. A. Tedder has spoken for the last three Sundays. The attendance last Sunday night was unusually large.

Revival services will begin Sunday morning, October 18, at 11 o'clock, under the leadership of Rev. E. L. Beachboard, pastor of the Freewill Baptist church at Carolina.

At The Theatres

Chic Sale, nationally famous character actor, will be seen in his first picture, "The Star Witness," today and Saturday at the Webb theatre. The picture is a unique combination of melodrama and heart-warming comedy, and is considered to be the climax of Sale's work for the last five years. Other stars are Walter Huston, Dickey Moore, Grant Mitchell and Frances Starr. Short subjects and novelties complete the two-day program. Coming Monday George Arlis in "Alexander Hamilton."

The Carolina has a new change of program today: Rex Lease in "Is There Justice," a comedy, "Trouble From Abroad," and an Alice Cartoon. Saturday will bring a complete change to the Carolina's screen, featuring Bob Custer in "Law of the Rio Grande," a comedy "Slow Poison," and chapter 11 of "Heroes of the Flames." Monday at the Carolina: begins Vina Delmar's sensational "Bad Girl," with Sally Eilers and James Dunn.
