TOOTS and CASPER

CUTOUTS FOR COLORING BY JIMMY MURPHY

TO BE CUT OUT AND COLORED

Read Directions Carefully

FIRST—Paste each figure on light cardboard or heavy paper and dry thoroughly. Dry them under a large book or weighted board to hold them flat.

SECOND—Color the figures with water color paints or crayons before cutting out.

THIRD—Cut out around outside lines. Do not cut along any dotted lines.

FOURTH—Set up figures by folding back on all dotted lines, pasting and flaps to backs of figures, and pasting under the flaps at corners of the living room. Dress figures in extra garments having letters that correspond.

FIFTH—Set up the living room, with figures arranged to make the most attractive group possible.
