GIANT WHALE ARRIVES TODAY FOR TWO DAY EXHIBITION HERE

The educational department of the Pacific Whaling Co., is presenting its mammoth whale exhibition here today and tomorrow. The huge whale tips the beam at 68 tons, and measures 55 feet from lip to tail. Acompanying the most unique presentation of the past decade are Captains Harry White and William N. Smith. They are assisted by a crew of 10 whalers, and all lecture at short intervals. The whale is the least known animal extant, and despite its great size is the biggest coward in the ocean. The whale will be shown in his specially constructed steel ranway car on West Warren street. Admission for adults is 25 cents, and children
