

Pete Webb 5th In Golf Play At Pinehurst

Pete Webb, Shelby's 17-year-old golf pro, lacked just one stroke of finishing in the money in the annual Mid-South tournament played at Pinehurst on Armistice day. Young Webb, shooting a 72 on the 18 holes in the morning round and a 73 in the afternoon, came in fifth in the money which was won by Mike Turnesa, well known New York golfer. His total score of 145 was only one stroke behind the 134 which won fourth prize money. Tied with the lone driving Shelby boy for fifth place were Johnny Farrell, former national champion, and Joe Turnesa, of New York, a brother of the winner. The fact that Webb placed fifth in a field of around 100 golfers from all parts of America and was not accustomed to playing on sand greens adds considerably to his fame as a coming star. A newspaper report from Pinehurst stated that he played erratically, making birdies on a number of holes to make up for bad shots made previously.

Shelby Boys In Fresh Grid Play

Boiling Springs Boys Not Permitted To Play In State-Wake Forest Game.

Two former Shelby high football players starred in freshman football games this week at the "Big Five" college, but four or five others, all products of Boiling Springs Junior college were not permitted to play.

In the State-Wake Forest game, which ended in a scoreless deadlock, Milky Gold was the only local player to perform. Zeno Wall, captain of the eleven; Howard Moore, Bone and Faulkenberg did not play because the regulation prohibiting a junior college player from playing at a "Big Five" college was enforced.

Tossed Long Pass
As a result the Baby Deacon lineup was somewhat shifted about. Gold did not start the game, but was sent in later. He handled the play that was the Baby Deacons' nearest threat at a score. In the final quarter he stood on his own 46-yard line and tossed a pass to Clayton on State's 16-yard line. But another pass was intercepted.

Leads Team.
Ralph Gardner, son of Governor and Mrs. Gardner, was one of the two outstanding line players for the Carolina yearlings who were defeated by the Blue Imps from Duke Young Gardner, playing at center is captain of the Carolina eleven.

Boxing Bout For Celebration Good

Bridges And Hoey In Draw, McCarver Gets Technical Nod Over Wells.

The boxing bout feature of the Armistice day program at the fair grounds, handled by Arthur Sides, proved one of the best attractions. The battle royal in which five colored huskies participated was the big kick of the program, but the two other bouts brought some fast action.

In the first bout Bridges and Hoey fought to a draw.

In the main feature Tommy McCarver, up-and-coming Shelby lightweight, won over Daly Wells, Kings Mountain fistic artist by a technical knockout.

Tosses "Bomb"

The Rev. Daniel Sands (above), of Quincy, Ill., threw a "bombshell" into the convention of the American Unitarian Association at Philadelphia when he advocated "outside dates" with women friends for husbands as the recipe for marriage bliss. The wives of Philadelphia are divided in their opinions of this unusual idea. The majority seem to be against it.
