Mr. Joe Hord Celebrates Birthday.

A large crowd of relatives and friends assembled at the home of Mr. Joe Hord, on the Fallston road Sunday, to celebrate his fifty-third birthday anniversary. An elaborate picnic dinner was served from tables arranged in the yard. Attending from Shelby were: Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Dorsey, Mrs. Josie Hord, Misses Mabel and Kathleen Hord.

Miss Benton Hostess To Class.

Miss Nita Benton was a cordial hostess to the members of the Ruth class of the First Baptist church, Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at her home in Cleveland Springs estates. After a short business session, Mrs. Raymond Carroll, the president, took charge of the program. During the social half hour, Miss Benton was assisted by her guest, Miss Gatty of Winston-Salem in serving a salad course with tea. A full attendance was present.

Elizabeth Church B. Y. P. U.

The young people of Elizabeth Baptist church organized a Baptist "Young People's Union" last Sunday night, assisted by the pastor Rev. H. E. Waldrop and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Borders, workers in the Sunday school. About thirty members were enrolled, with the following officers: President Miss Esther Allen, vice president, Miss Nannie P. Allen, Secretary, Carl Mauney, Treasurer Harold Roberts, Miss Clayton Cline, pianist and Herman Mauney, choir leader. This union will meet at 6:30 o'clock every Sunday evening.

Mrs. Moore Hostess to Contract Bridge Club.

Mrs. Durham Moore entertained the Contract Bridge club, of which she is a member, Saturday with a luncheon at her apartment on E. Morehead street in Charlotte, instead of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge club, which was stated in Monday's Star. Members attending included: Mesdames D. R. Frazier, Henry Edwards, Bob Hord, Charles Eskridge Jr., Ed McCurry, Connelly Eskridge, H. S. Plaster, Clyde Nolan, Frank Kendall, Misses Isabel Hoey, Adelaide and Minnie Eddins Roberts.

King-Loudermilk Nuptials Held.

A wedding of beauty and dignity was solemnized Saturday evening, November 14 at 7 o'clock at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lowery of Patterson Springs when Miss Betty Loudermilk became the bride of Mr. L. Sims King.

The entire house was decorated trimmed in pink and white and an elegant three-course dinner was served at 1 o'clock to the following: Mesdames Beam, F. V. Hendrick, S. A. Washburn, Georgia Hickson, Mary Mundy, Miss Kate Webb, Messrs. Oscar Palmer and Grover Beam. Mrs. Beam received a number of beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Dellinger Entertains Mothers Club.

Mrs. Boyce Dellinger delightfully entertained the Mothers club in their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the attractive home of Mrs. Ressa Hamrick in Beaumonde Terrace, which was most inviting with decorations of white and yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Clyde Short, the president, presided and the program leader, Mrs. Roscoe Lutz announced a very interesting program on "Survey of Child Development" and those reading papers were: Mesdames Short, Ed Post and Claude Mabry. The meeting was closed with a humorous reading by Mrs. B. M. Jarrett.

The hostess was assisted in serving a tempting salad course with tea by Mesdames Ressa Hamrick, John Campbell, Miles Beam and B. O. Wilson.

Mrs. L. B. Hayes who has been an enthusiastic member of this club and will leave soon for her home at Waynesville was honored with a miscellaneous shower. Invited guests included: Mesdames Edwin Harrell, Frank Newton, John Dorsey, Basil Goode, H. A. Harris, Kate L. North, and W. H. Yeago.

Thrashing machines are humming out dollars in lespedeza seed for Rowan county farmers this fall. J. T. Graham harvested 225 bushels of Korean seed from seven acres of land and others are turning out certified seed which finds a ready sale.

Their Holiday.

Two little boys were talking. One said to the other: "Aren't ants funny? They work and work and never play?"

"Oh, I don't know about that," said the other. "Every time I go on a picnic they are there."

How True.

Joe, five, was being reprimanded by his mother, when he suddenly looked up in her face and said, "You prayed for a little boy, and now you don't know how to treat him!"

Indignant.

Harriet—How is it you don't speak to Archie any more?
Frances—He clapped his hands when I was singing.
Harriet—But I don't see where that's anything but a compliment.
Frances—He clapped them over his ears.

Gavel Presented To Judge Warlick

Newton, Nov. 18.—A one week criminal term of superior court convened here Monday with Judge Wilson Warlick, former Newton attorney and citizen of the city, presiding jurist. Many expressions of the esteem in which Judge Warlick is held by the Catawba bar association and the citizens of the county was brought to evidence soon after court convened. A gavel consisting of 13 different kinds of wood and made by John Stroup, Hickory attorney, was presented Judge Warlick, by Attorney Mike Whitener of Hickory. Immediately following the charge to the grand jury Attorney Guss Self on behalf of the Bar association presented Judge Warlick a beautiful basket of flowers.

Ann Reynolds Suit On In Nevada Tuesday

North Carolina Society Woman To Institute Divorce Action Tuesday.

Reno, Nev.—Ann Cannon Reynolds has announced that she would file suit at Yerington, Lyon county seat, next Tuesday for divorce from Smith Reynolds, son of the late Winston-Salem tobacco magnate.

Her residence requirement will be fulfilled that day, and she decided to take the case to Yerington rather than wait until the following Monday, when it would be reached in Reno.

Mrs. Reynolds, daughter of one of the North Carolina Cannons of textile fame, has not been well recently and was understood to desire a speedy return to North Carolina.
