Bandit Killed In A Catawba Holdup

Bandit Found Dead In Car Companion Arrested And Held For Trial.

Hickory, Nov. 16.—Charlie Hilton, a bandit companion of Dave Pressley, who was fatally wounded as his partner fled after holding up a Hickory Heaver, Hickory, killing the operator, will face probable indictment and trial in superior court at Newnan tomorrow morning. Hilton was taken to the hospital after his arrest here Monday.

It will be the second time in a week that Hilton is arrested. The bandit was last taken when he was convicted of a $700 payroll robbery at Hickory.

The body of Pressley, cousin of Hilton, was found yesterday near Concord in an abandoned automobile which they had stolen. He had apparently been wounded in an exchange of shots with Heaver and Oscar Evans. No inquest was deemed necessary after Hilton confessed that the two had staged the holdup and that he had abandoned the car with the body in it after Pressley died.

The pair had taken $40 from the cash register, $20 from Heaver and $35 from an assistant. When Oscar Teague drove up to the filling station, the bandits fled, and Pressley appeared to be wounded and had to be helped into the car as Hilton drove off.

Hilton, after telling his story to officers in Marion, was taken to Newton, where Solicitor Spurling said he would draw an indictment tonight for presentation to the grand jury tomorrow.

High Point Feline Has Final Chuckle

High Point.—The next time E. S. Green, who lives on East Green street, this city, attempts to play an April fool joke on a cat he will wait a while before beginning to laugh.

On April 1, 1930, Mr. Green took his Maltese cat, bag and baggage to a point several miles below Ashboro. The cat sneaked away from its new residence the same day and hadn't been seen since.

Wednesday it came to the Green home in time to eat a hearty Armistice day luncheon, the family reported.

Ike's Tale

Dear Star Readers:

I've learned that hit takes a man to do devilment then hit takes a woman to tell hit on him. Now you can't do good no more but what you can do is to tell hit on him. I will accuse you of havin' sum evil in the back of hit all.

Salter like hit wuz tuther da when somebody got the word out around Cedar that Lee Weathers was a taking tater and lasses on his subscription, to give to pore folks soon a winter sets in. Looka tu we like that is good and kind of Mister Weathers to try to provide fur himself as him able to provide fur himself, I told Sal. I'd see hit him wife in my life and he didn't bear to be much stuck up or big guy, even if he did have on good clothes, which is what you can't say of most folks.

Sal lowed that just as apt as not Lee wuz up to sum kind of devilment, and said if she wuz his wife she'd sorter keep her eye on who he give 'em tu; specially if he got a cack full on his shoulder and started off after dark, I never lized her much no-way and when she says mean things about my friends I ginnerally talked back purty rough, fur I believe in heving to the line an let the hair fall whar hit may.

But talking about taters an lasses they shore air good fur pore folks an rich folks tu if they had sense enough to know hit. I never did think rich folks had much sense, maybe hit is because I wuz allers use tu tuther kind. You can eat a tater an go on a long time.

Me an Gus Richards wuz never knowed to go a courtin the gals unless we had our pockets full of roasted taters. I mind one time Gus wuz a eatin' tater and a laughin' an he got choked the worst I ever seed. Hit looked powful serious fur Gus a minute or so till his sweet-heart tuck her fist an hit him a few licks in the back which give him relief. But since they've been married when any little thing comes up, she generally hits him in the head and she has about quit using her fist.

Sal knows better than tu do me that way, fur if she did I'd cuss her till I got plum out of hearing.

One time, and hits not been as long ago as you mite think—Zero Huffman and Decatur Warlick got me tu go with them over in Burke tu whar Mister Singletary Hoyle lives, to see if we could git six or eight palls of whiskey, fur our roomatism; and tu have if hit gits scarce.

Decatur got in such a fix that we couldn't git him away, so we all stayed a week and didn't have a thing in the world tu eat but jist taters and lasses but every one of us gained in weight over that diet, or else what we drank mite a help-out tu a little, a body can't never tell.

Decatur sed if we'd never tell this on him that he'd go and jine sum church if he could find one whar 'Salvation is free' Ike

Congregation Sticks To Disrobed Parson

Sparta, Ga., People Think Minister Martyred For Fight On Bishops.

Sparta, Ga., Nov. 16.—The Rev. Pembert C. Smith, suspended by the North Georgia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, for one year on a charge of "high unministerial conduct" was greeted with a demonstration at a mass meeting on his return home last night.

All church services in Sparta were suspended for the meeting in the Hancock county courthouse. Every seat in the courtroom was taken and numbers stood in the aisles and doorways. Court officials estimated 900 persons attended.

The minister spoke to the crowd for nearly two hours renewing attacks on certain of the Southern Methodist leaders and branding the charges against him as a "dastardly undercover assault." The charges were not detailed publicly.

The minister has criticized what he termed political activities in the church. He declared he was forced to trial without opportunity to pre-
