Salem Girls Will Smoke At College

Requirements Laid Down At Salem Satisfactory To Parents And Students.

Winston-Salem, Nov. 20.—During the Salem College chapel services Wednesday, special consideration was given to the ruling adopted by the board of trustees last summer and by the student self government, council and faculty advisory committee in September with regard to the forbidding of smoking on the college campus and in public places.
Under the rules as adopted students could smoke if their parents were willing and if the smoking was done in rooms provided for the purpose.

President Rondthaler stated now that more than two months' trial had been given to the plan, it was fair to read to the students editorials and other expressions of public opinion and (omitting names) letters received from parents and alumnae.

Dr. Rondthaler read the only four letters registering opposition to the plan, but he could not possibly read all of the very many parental and alumnae letters favoring the plan as they were overwhelmingly numerous and amongst the alumnae included graduates of all ages from quite recent ones to others who reached back to the days of the Civil War. The practically unanimous cooperation of alumnae and parents was, he said, most amaz-
