LOCAL and PERSONAL News

Miss Kathleen Young of Meredith college, who rendered the wedding music at the Coxe-McBrayer wedding in Charlotte Saturday, accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Young, home for a week-end visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Austell spent Sunday and Monday in Gaffney, S. C., at the bedside of Mrs. T. C. Petty, who continues quite ill at the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hand and son, Lee, Jr., of Senovia, Ga., and Miss Rebecca Moses of Atlanta, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Hill Hudson.

Mr. and Mrs. Yates Blanton and Miss Bertha Goode visited in Gastonia Sunday and were accompanied by Mr. Blanton's mother, Mrs. Jim Blanton, who will spend a week with them here.

Miss Lucy May Lee who has been a patient at the Charlotte Sanatorium for several weeks is rapidly recovering now and if no other trouble arises will soon be able to leave the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lovelace are visiting Mr. Oscar Lovelace at Goldsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Mull, Misses Montrose Mull and Elizabeth McBrayer spent yesterday in Charlotte.

Mrs. H. P. Miller, Miss Helen and Billy Miller will spend the week-end with relatives at Newberry, S. C.

Miss May Wilson, who is connected with the Greensboro Daily News, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Thad Ford. Miss Madeline Porter, of Belwood, is also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ford.

Mr. D. D. Wilkins, who has been taking treatment at the Shelby hospital was able to go home yesterday.

Mrs. Robert U. Woods and little daughters, Ann and Marjorie, left Friday for Maxton, where they will visit Mrs. Wood's mother until after Christmas holidays and attend the wedding of Mrs. Woods' sister on the 23rd.

Mrs. T. W. Ebeltoft and Miss Elizabeth Ebeltoft returned last night from Charlotte where they spent Monday and Tuesday attending the tea, given by Miss Cora Annette Harris, honoring her mother, Mrs. Wade H. Harris, on her birthday Monday afternoon. Mrs. Ebeltoft assisted her sister, Mrs. Harris, in receiving and Miss Ebeltoft assisted in entertaining and serving. The relatives and intimate friends of the family were invited.

At The Theatres

Douglas Fairbanks and Bebe Daniels are headliners at the Webb today and Thursday, in "Reaching for the Moon," ultra-modern and sophisticated comedy-drama—brilliant in fashions, settings and comedy. Other members in the cast include such excellent players as Edward Everett Horton, Claud Allister and Jack Mulhall.

Warner Baxter is the big man in "Surrender," the Carolina's picture for today and Thursday. Leila Hyams, Ralph Bellamy, William Pawley, C. Aubrey Smith, Howard Phillips and Alexander Kirkland support. The plot is concerned with an unusual love and strange sacrifices, in a background of war. Friday's feature will be "Fanny Foley Herself," a comedy with Edna May Oliver, comedy star of "Cimarron."

Cotton Market

Cotton was quoted on New York exchange at noon today:

Dec. 5.58, Jan. 5.92. Yesterday's close: Jan. 5.96, Dec. 5.98.

New York, Dec. 9.—Fair demand for spots mid 530 against 534 yesterday. Rain over most of the south and rain forecast all cotton states except Texas. Journal of Commerce review Memphis reports domestic spinners mostly out of the market and foreigners taking very little. Cooperatives principal buyers but less active. Houston says new export business has reached the vanishing point, fear of the debarment has definitely stopped foreign buying. Basis steady. Charlotte reports North Carolina mills talk of additional curtailment, basis still high. Fair business in Worth street, prices steadier. Any decline in cotton business because of general depressing situation seems likely to be slow because of large volume of open buying orders, under the market for trade account. Southern selling been light lately.

Mr. Clyde R. Hoey was a Charlotte visitor yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Andrews and son, Billy, visited Gov. and Mrs. O. M. Gardner in Raleigh last week.

Mrs. Girlie Putnam of Charlotte is at the bedside of her mother-in-law, Mrs. A. R. Putnam who continues to grow weaker.

Dr. Tom Brice Mitchell and mother, Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, visited Mr. and Mrs. Burton Mitchell at Mt. Holly Saturday.

Nobody's Business

By GEE MCGEE

Aint We In a Bad Fix?

Times are so hard! What is to come of us poor, hungry, naked, bareheaded people? It looks like we are doomed. The community chest is empty. The Salvation Army is thinking of disbanding. Boo-Hoo-Hoo. The church members are so destitute they can't pay their own preacher — much (Boo-Hoo).

We had a football game over at Athens, Georgia, the other day (Boo-Hoo) betwixt 2 teams by the name of Too-lame and Georgia, but when they got thru, Georgia was Too-lame (Boo-Hoo), and we were all so poor, only about 35,000 of us got to attend that game (Boo-Hoo) and the other 10,000 folks had to sit out on the house-tops and gully banks so's they could see them play (Boo-Hoo) as there wasn't any room in the stadium (Boo-Hoo)—for the water toler to turn around.

When will this horrible depression end (Boo-Hoo). Of course we few folks who attended that football game in Athens spent only about $350,000—which wouldn't buy but 10,000 bales of cotton, or 100,000 bushels of wheat or 35,000 tons of cottonseed, or feed 35,000 men, women and children a week—(Boo-Hoo)—and furthermore, 35 thousand dollars is a mighty small sum for Southern folks like us to have to make out with—in order to have 2 whole hours of pleasure—(Boo-Hoo).

Our taxes are so high (Boo-Hoo-Hoo), after we buy a new car and a new radio, we simply can't pay 'em (Boo-Hoo). There is so much poverty abroad in the land, a fellow can't find a place to park his car (Boo-Hoo) if he gets hold of a few dollars to go to the picture shows with (Boo-Hoo), and after he gets inside, some other old poor dressed-up, stuck-up folks have done taken all of the good seats (Boo-Hoo).

I want my mamma! We have only about $1,250,000 every 10 days (Boo-Hoo) in our state (Boo-Hoo) to spend for tobacco and cigarettes, and we want you rich folks to hurry up with your drives or else we will starve forthwith (Boo-Hoo). Papa, please fetch me a cold cup of water (Boo-Hoo). The down-trodden men and women in our country drank only $750,000 worth of soft drinks last month (Boo-Hoo), and our chewing gum bill was only $25,000.00 (Boo-Hoo).

Boo-Hoo-Hoo! I want my gram-mamma. I can't stand these hard times. Won't somebody please "rite or foam" Mr. Hoover and tell him to send us some relief at once? If he sends it, tell him to send it in care of the next big football game and we can fetch it home with us (Boo-Hoo).

That Strange Jones Family. The Joneses who live in our neighborhood are the strangest folks we have ever had amongst us. They are so different from the average family. I simply can't understand them and I think of them every day and actually worry about them.

Mr. Jones has a job in an office down town—and he actually walks to his work every morning, yet he has a nice automobile. Mrs. Jones frequently drives down and fetches him home for dinner—when she can spare the time.

It's a funny thing, but the Joneses won't buy anything on the installment plan. But they can get credit at any store in town. Mr. Jones never waits for a bill collector to come to see him; he pays his bills promptly and never kicks about them.

Lots of people think the Joneses are very peculiar. They go to church every time there happens to be any kind of services there, and this includes prayer-meeting and Sunday school. All of the Joneses do that, not just the old man and 2 of the girls.

EARL COMMUNITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Earl, Dec. 8.—Those attending the singing convention at Double Springs Baptist church Sunday afternoon were: Misses Francis and Helen Graham, Mr. Austell Graham, Mrs. J. A. Earle, and children, J. B. and Josephine, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Crawford.

Mr. Winford Graham attended the Al Williams air show in Charlotte Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Camp and children, of Shelby, were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Camp Sunday. Miss Wilma Helms, of Bessemer City, who spent last week here accompanied them home.

Misses Lucile and Wilma Webber of Blacksburg spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Webber. Misses Nora and Jeanne Mae Wright accompanied them as their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sepaugh had as their guests Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Chaffin, of Orlando, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Rippy and son, Lean, of Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Rippy and children, of Derita.

Mrs. George Moss of the Mt. Paron community is the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. L. Wylie.

Much Poultry Sold In Lincoln County

Lincoln County News. County Agent Graham Morrison stated that there were 6,345 pounds of poultry sold at the Lincoln County fair last Tuesday and that the people selling the poultry realized between a thousand and eleven hundred dollars for their chickens. (There were few turkeys sold in this fair.) One hundred and fifty-five people sold to the fair stated Mr. Morrison, and the line of people, waiting to pass by the scales with their birds, was never broken until after two o'clock.

Two Billions Let For New Buildings

Washington, Dec. 9.—Public and semi-public works contract awards amounting to $47,875,096 were reported to the public works section of the president's organization on unemployment relief last week. It was announced by Fred C. Croxton, assistant director.

The addition of this amount brought the total of contract awards reported since December 1, 1930, to $2,775,562,797.
