Colored Woman Is Run Down By Car

(Special to The Star.)

Toluca, Dec. 14.—Clara Jewell, a colored tenant living on Mr. W. A. Sain's place, was run over in the road in front of W. A. Sain's home last Wednesday by a traveling salesman from South Carolina and was badly hurt. He rushed her to the Lincoln hospital where she is getting along very well. Her arm and several ribs were broken, also she was badly bruised.

The accident was unavoidable as she walked into the road in front of the approaching car.

New Low Prices Paid For Produce

Kinston.—An Ayden report said lowest prices for farm produce in the memory of elderly men were paid at a sale on the farm of the late J. W. Quinerly near that town. Corn sold for 60 cents a barrel, hay 15 cents a hundred pounds, tobacco sticks, used in curing, 25 cents a thousand. The farm mules brought an average of $16. The sale had been extensively advertised and 200 attended, but bidding was slow. The 800-acre Quinerly farm is to be sold for a division of the estate.

Fifty Pound Better Yield For Cotton

Raleigh, Dec. 14.—North Carolina, in spite of a 20 per cent reduction in cotton acreage, will probably produce 775,000 bales this year, the federal-state crop reporting service announced today.

The yield has increased 50 pounds per acre over last year and 85 pounds per acre over the year before, the report says.

The state's plantings already show almost 95 per cent of the 775,000 bales estimated.
