Mrs. Rollins Honors Brother.

One of the most delightful affairs of the past week-end was the surprise birthday dinner given Sunday by Mrs. Ophelia M. Rollins at her home in Grover in honor of her brother, Charles Alvin Mullinax, celebrating his nineteenth birthday anniversary.

Sharing honors with Mr. Mullinax were Misses Louise Hambricht, Elena Randall, Evelyn Mullinax and Mrs. Alvah Bridges, and Bill Hendon, all of whom have birthdays in December.

The living room and dining room were thrown together and very beautifully decorated. In the center of the dining table was a large white cake holding nineteen red candles.

Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Rollins besides the honored were Misses Aline Mullinax, Alweda Rollins, Messrs. Alvah Bridges and Tyree Keeter.

Places were found by a red and white place card with suitable birthday greeting and under each was a dainty gift for the honored guests. An elaborate dinner was served.

Music And Art Club Entertained.

The Womans club room was prettily decorated Wednesday afternoon with holly, bows of narcissus and a small decorated Christmas tree graced the long library table, when the Music and Art division of the Woman's club held their regular meeting with Misses Mary Adelaide and Minnie Eddins Roberts, Esley Pendleton and Hopson Austell, joint hostesses. Dr. and Mrs. A. Vermont of Converse college, Spartanburg, S. C. were special honor guests, and the members of the French class of the high school. A very delightful program was enjoyed. Two Christmas songs, "Silent Night" and "Little Town of Bethlehem" was sung by the club lead by Miss Adelaide Roberts. Dr. Vermont, professor of French at Converse, who is a native Frenchman and makes yearly visits to his home, made a very entertaining talk on "Customs in France." Miss Mary Adelaide Roberts closed the program by singing "O Holy Night" by Adams with Mrs. Plaster at the piano.

During the social hour the hostesses served angel food cake topped with whipped cream, coffee and cheese straws.

Dr. And Mrs. McLarty Honored.

The informal reception honoring Dr. and Mrs. E. K. McLarty, the new pastor and wife following the prayer meeting service at the Central Methodist church Wednesday evening was attended by a large number of the members. The large junior room where the reception was held, was beautifully decorated with holly, colored lights and Christmas decorations.

At one end of the room was a table piled high with all kinds of groceries and gifts, attractively tied with the Christmas colors, which was a complete surprise to Dr. and Mrs. McLarty, and were presented in the way of a shower.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hoyle greeted the guests on their arrival and introducing Dr. and Mrs. McLarty and Miss Mary McLarty were Mrs. J. A. Suttle. Assisting in entertaining were: Mrs. Hennessy, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lineberger, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Honeycutt, Messrs. Will Lineberger and John McClurd. Ice cream and cake were served by Mesdames J. R. Robinson, John Lovelace, Chas. Hoey. Misses Gussie Sisk and Isabel Hoey. Other helpers were: Mesdames Will Lineberger, Lewis Forney, Chas. Young, Oscar Palmer and John McClurd. Beautiful musical selections were rendered during the evening by Misses Ethel Elmore and Margaret Ford.

Missionary Society Of M. E. Church.

There will be a business meeting of the woman's Missionary society of the Central Methodist Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the church.

Mrs. Washburn Hostess

The adult union No. 1 of the First Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. P. M. Washburn on N. DeKalb street last evening which was cheery with open fires and Christmas decorations. After a short devotional and prayer by Dr. Zeno Wall, a delightful social evening was spent after which Mesdames Jay Gaffney, Hattie McEntire and Summey Spangler served a salad and sweet course. There were twenty-four members present.

Mrs. Webb Gives Dinner Party.

Mrs. Dave Webb surprised Mr. Webb with a family dinner party last evening at their home on the Fallston road, celebrating his birthday anniversary. The table was centered with a large vase of pink roses and a four course dinner was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. George Webb and children, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Webb, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Hoyle Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lutz and Lloyd Lutz.

No. 1 Division Of Club

No. 1 division of the Woman's club held their regular meeting at the club room Thursday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Mesdames Griffin Smith, Coleman Doggett, and Chas. Wells joint hostesses. The club room was arranged with Christmas decorations and a very interesting program was enjoyed on the "Ballad Part of Folk Lore Songs." Papers were read by Mrs. W. B. Nix and Mrs. Fowler, who also sang "Billy Boy" a song appropriate to her reading. Miss Hazel Webb played a piano selection and Miss Margaret Louis McNeely gave a humorous reading.

In the business session, it was voted to give ten dollars to the Christmas charity fund. During the social the hostesses served a delicious sweet course.

Mrs. Doggett Has Bonne Heure Club.

The regular meeting of the Bonne Heure club was held on Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Robert Doggett. The lower floor of the lovely home was thrown ensuite. Beautiful Christmas decorations, carrying out a color scheme of red and green were used.

The following very interesting program was given: Topic: Modern Biography, The Trend of Modern Biography, Miss Kate Wilson; Outstanding Modern Biographies, Miss Lucille Mulholland; Achievement of Bernard Shaw and Ellen Terry, Miss Rosina Pearl.

After the program the hostess, Mrs. Doggett, served a salad course with accessories to the club members: Miss Rosina Pearl, Miss Lucille Mulholland, Miss Kate Wilson, Miss Victoria Young, Miss Octavia Jeier and Miss Ethel Thomas.

Miss Elmore Gives Party.

Miss Ethel Elmore delightfully entertained her music pupils with a Christmas party Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at her music studio at the Central high school building. Miss Elmore read a Christmas story about a number of compositions, and each pupil gave a musical quotation before playing the piece appropriate to the reading. Miss Nancy Lineberger gave a solo dance, the program was closed with an arrangement of Christmas carols sung by the class. Miss Elmore then invited them to her apartment on N. Washington street where they were engaged in a contest, Miss Elizabeth Carver winning the prize, a box of candy. Ice cream, cake, sandwiches and candy were served emphasizing the Christmas suggestions of the decorations. The pupils taking part on the program were: Misses Mary Ward Loy, Margaret Corbett, Mary Wells, Elizabeth Carver, Mattie Sue Probst, Nancy McGowan, Pansy Fetzer, Kathleen Phillips, Sara Newton, Caroline Mabry, Betty Coble, Nancy McGowan, Nancy Lineberger, Mary McLarty and Bobby Elmore.

Green-Brooks Wedding Announced

Of interest is the wedding of Miss Eliza Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Brooks, and Charles Olin Green. Wednesday afternoon December 9th at 5:00 o'clock.

The ceremony was performed at the country home of the bride's parents with their pastor Rev. J. W. Suttle officiating.

The wedding vows were spoken in the reception hall before a background of palms, vines, ferns and blooming flowers. Acting as bridesmaids were Misses Beatrice Blanton and Reba Moore, both wore afternoon dresses of black crepe.

Groomsmen were Messrs Reburn Washburn, Dufaye Bridges and John L. McSwain. The matron of honor Mrs. Dufaye Bridges was very lovely in an afternoon gown of black and green flat crepe with accessories.

The bride and groom entered the reception hall together. She wore a lovely gown of concord blue flat crepe, with accessories to match. The only ornament was a beautiful strand of crystal beads. The bride's bouquet was a shower of talisman roses and fern.

The bride is a graduate of the Lattimore high school class of '27, and is a very popular and attractive young lady.

Mr. Green is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Green and is a promising young farmer.

After a short wedding trip they will be at home to their many friends at their country home in the Double Springs community.
