At The Theatres

The Carolina's first offering for the week is "The Yellow Ticket," a new picture which unearths Russia's secret police methods. Elissa Landi, exotic Fox star and the beautiful daughter of an Austrian countess-novelist-actress, portrays the leading feminine role, with Lionel Barrymore, senior son of the theatre's first family, and Laurence Olivier, handsome newcomer from the London stage, in the principal male parts. "The Yellow Ticket" reveals the true and dramatic picture of the days of barbaric splendor in Russia in an uncolored etching of the most autocratic period in modern history.

"Possessed" is said to be Joan Crawford's strongest talkie role to date. The picture, playing at the Webb today and Tuesday, is an adaptation from the Edgar Selwyn stage play, called "The Mirage." Clark Gable, recently acclaimed the screen's most popular leading man, is Miss Crawford's choice for "Possessed." The story is high drama of a factory girl who, rebelling against an environment of drab poverty ends up on Fifth avenue to find that wealth and happiness do not necessarily go hand in hand. Other important roles in the play are done by Skeets Gallagher, Frank Conroy, Marjorie White, John Miljan and Clara Bankick.

No. 3 Junior Highs Guests At A Party

Earl, Dec. 21.—Miss Evelena Warren graciously entertained the members of the junior class of No. 3 high school and a number of invited guests with a lovely party at the home of her aunt, Mrs. C. E. Jones of Earl Tuesday evening.

Many interesting games and progressive conversation were enjoyed. As a climax to the party came a treasure hunt.

The members of the class who attended were: Misses Evelena Warren, Coleen Nichols, Edith Byers, Madge Hardin, Kathryn Biggers, Selma Hamrick, Queen Runyans, Ruth Sansing, Geneva Hendrick, Kathleen Harrill, Eunice Rippy and Halle Mae Thrift. Messrs. Frank McEntire, Charlie Allen, William Sepaugh, Hazel Jones, Ernest Kirkendall and Wilburn Byers.

The invited guests included Misses Mary Sue Austell, Edna Moss and Margaret Byers, of Earl, Edna Borders of McBrayer, Marie and Evelyn Jones of Shelby, and Annie Mae Starnes of Blacksburg; Messrs. Thurston Hammett, Colous Blanton, Andrell Ponder, Sloan Williams, Burle Hoppek and Professors J. A. Hallman and H. P. Winchester of Earl, Gus Thrift of Patterson Springs, Boyd Cabanau and Seth Horle Marthew of Shelby and Fred and Homer Lee Starnes of Blacksburg.
