HERITAGE

If your father had walked on the cold coast of Clare. With only the wind and the rain and a smile.

If your mother had danced in a sun-patterned patio. With a rose in her hair and the sun on her throat.

You should have more than a fawn for beauty. More than a smile for a star in the night.

ROGERS MOTORS

Advertisement for Rogers Motors featuring an illustration of a steam locomotive and a woman. The text reads: 'Let's go. There she is, puffing with rhythmic impatience... power in her massive wheels, speed in her glistering pistons; waiting, vibrant with the will to forge ahead... Locomotive No. 1932, Prosperity Unlimited! She has no destination; only a direction... that follows the tracks of progress to rainbow's end. All aboard! What? Not ALL aboard? The shirkers and grumblers and cynics and pessimists and faint-hearted may stay snugly at home. The cars will all be filled with the best of good fellows... All smiling, courageous team-workers. A parting whistle from No. 1932 splits the air with a promise of better business to those who believe in their country, their business companions, their opportunities and themselves. This Building and Loan is already aboard old 1932... with tickets to spare and seats to share... for those who have packed up their troubles and resolved to take the course that Prosperity Unlimited of 1932 is about to take. Won't you come along? Our Building and Loan shares will help you get started! Cleveland Building & Loan Association Wm. LINEBERGER, President J. L. SUTTLE, Secretary-Treasurer
