

THE MARKET
Cotton, spot 6c up
Cotton Seed $9.00

Frost Is Likely

Today's North Carolina Weather Report: Fair and slightly colder on coast, possibly light frost in interior tonight. Saturday fair with slight rising temperature.

Coolidge Apology

St. Louis, April 1.—An apology and a check for $2,500 received from former President Calvin Coolidge yesterday stopped a $100,000 damage suit against the former president by Lewis B. Tebbetts, St. Louis insurance man, who claimed his business reputation was injured by one of Coolidge's radio utterances.

Tax Listers To Open Work Here On Monday, 4th

All Property Must Be Listed During Month Of April. Dates And Places Given.

Eleven tax-listers will begin their work in listing Cleveland county property for taxes on Monday of next week. The state law requires that all property be listed during April, instead of May as heretofore, and that the books be in by the first of May.

For the convenience of citizens the listers announce the following dates and places where they may be located during the month:

- No. 1 township: J. A. McCraw.
No. 2: W. C. Harrick at Flint Hill on April 4 from 7 until noon, at Trinity from 1 to 6 p. m. at Jolley's store all day on the 6th. At Sharon all day on the 8th. At Boiling Springs all day on the 9th. At Hamrick's store all day on the 12th. At home on all other days in April.
No. 3: Austell Bettis at Sam Weaver store on April 4th, at Patterson station 9th and 23rd, at Earl all other days during month.
No. 4: E. L. Campbell at Grover on April 8th, 15th, 22nd and 29th. At town hall, Kings Mountain all other days.
No. 5: M. P. Hurrellson at Thompson Wright's on 5th. At W. I. Wolfe's on 7th, at G. E. Goforth's on 8th, at Waco on 15th and 16th, and at home other days.
No. 6: T. P. Jenks at Stubbs at 4 p. m. on 5th, at Ora mill 3 p. m. on 19th, at Dover mill 5 p. m. on 19th, at Eastside at 3 p. m. on 20th, at Cloth mill at 5 p. m. on 20th, at Lily Mill at 3 p. m. on 21st, at Ellis mill 5 p. m. on 21st, at Shelby mill at 5 p. m. on 22nd. At court house all other time during month.
No. 7: R. W. McBrayer at C. C. Walker's morning of 6th, at J. B. McSwain's afternoon of 6th, at G. T. Cabanis' morning of 9th, at Washburn Switch at 9th, at Mooreboro all day on 13th, at Lattimore all day on 16th, and at home balance of month.
No. 8: B. P. Jenkins at Polkville on 6th and 30th, at Delight from 10 to 6 on 13th, at Camp Call on 20th, at Palm Tree from 10 to 6 on 27th, at New House on 21st.
No. 9: Stough Beam at J. R. Wright's on 4th, at Double Shoals on 5th, at Porter's store, Belwood, on 6th, at Lawlands on 7th and 8th, at Fullston remainder of month.
No. 10: M. N. Gantt at Philbeck's morning of 4th, at J. W. Ledford's morning of 5th, at Toluca afternoon of 5th, at St. Peter's morning of 6th, at P. L. Peters store afternoon of 9th and at home remainder of time.
No. 11: A. A. Horton at Casar from 1 to 6 p. m. on 4th, at Moriah all day 15th, at Julius Pruet's from 1 to 6 on 19th, at Casar all day on 23rd, at Casar all day on 30th. At home remainder of time.

Quartet Coming To Baptist Ch. Sunday

Hendersonville Singers Here Sunday Evening, Baptismal Service.

A beautiful and impressive baptismal service will be held at the First Baptist church Sunday morning when more than 50 converts will be given the ordinance of Baptism. The additions are the result of the recent revival meeting at the church, conducted by Dr. Zeno Wall the pastor, at which over 70 were added to the membership.

Power To Be Off For Hour Sunday

Supt. Toms of the water and light department, says the electric power will be off from 2 to 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon while the Duke Power Co., is doing some repair work on the transmission lines. Patrons are asked to take due notice of this interruption in service.

Champion, Hawkins Oyster Roast Hosts

Clyde Champion, of the Champion Oil company, Chamoco distributor, and Paul and Dewey Hawkins, of the Hawkins auto firm, were hosts at an oyster roast last night to their dealers and a number of friends. The roast, a thoroughly enjoyable affair, was held in the shop of the Hawkins garage.

VOL. XXXVIII, No. 40

SHELBY, N. C.

FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 1932

(Published Monday, Wednesday and Friday Afternoons)

By Mail, per year, (in advance) - $2.50
Carrier, per year, (in advance) $3.00

Only Five Salaries Can Be Set By Board

Others Are Appointed Or Elected

Some County Officials Not Elected This Year. Salary Figures Set Straight.

The salaries of only five Cleveland county officers can be lowered prior to the primary and before new tenures begin, should the county commissioners so decide, it is learned in connection with the county salary controversy.

These officers are those of the treasurer, the sheriff, the register of deeds, the recorder and county court solicitor. The other officers are not elected at this time, or are appointive officers. The clerk of court is not elected again at this election as it is a four-year office.

The matter of cutting county salaries has attracted considerable interest. Several communications have been sent to The Star for publication and numerous citizens have made statements pertaining to cuts. In one or two instances salary figures have been misquoted. The yearly salaries of 12 county officers and their assistants total just $32,697.71.

Woman Unchanged

There was little, if any, change today in the condition of Mrs. Sarah Emery at the Shelby hospital. Mrs. Emery was injured in an auto accident Sunday week ago near the Cleveland county and South Carolina line and she has been unconscious or only semi-conscious since, a period of over 260 hours.

Red Cross Work In Shelby Schools Has Received National Recognition

Miss Webb And South Shelby Pupils Invited To Washington Convention.

The Shelby junior Red Cross work in the Shelby schools has received national recognition. Miss Selma Webb has been called into consultation and Miss Louise Whitener, seventh grade pupil of the South Shelby school has been invited to speak during the national convention in Washington, D. C., on April 11.

The work that has been done in the South Shelby school has received local and regional recognition for sometime. Miss Webb, the moving spirit of the work, has a number of times been invited to speak before groups of teachers, civic clubs and Red Cross organizations.

Intermediaries in Conference

Revived hope for the return of the kidnaped Lindbergh baby is at present centered on these two men, who, with Rear Admiral Guy H. Burrage, are acting as intermediaries between Col. Lindbergh and the abductors of his child.

Month Of Searching For Missing Baby Ends; All Clues Except One Fail To Aid Except Norfolk Trail

Norfolk Men Remaining Quiet On Hope Of Recovering Little Lindy There.

Hopewell, N. J., April 1.—A month of searching throughout the world for the kidnaped Charles Augustus Lindbergh, Jr., ended last night with proof of his safety and whereabouts still lacking.

Federal, state, county, city and village officers, who joined in the hunt shortly after the kidnaping on the first day of the month saw the month drawing to a close with their efforts still in vain.

At least four underworld characters who were projected one after another into the case likewise had met with no apparent success.

Hope that the boy may still be returned to his parents has been revived in the past week by the statements of three prominent residents of Norfolk, Va., that they had made contact with the kidnapers.

But in spite of two airplane trips by the Virginians and two conferences with Colonel Lindbergh here, no indication has come from the famous flier that he looks for success from that quarter.

State police, who have tracked down an avalanche of wild clues themselves, have repeatedly expressed a belief there is "no specific significance" to that angle of the case and have quoted Colonel Lindbergh as saying the same thing.

Rear Admiral Guy H. Burrage, spokesman for the Virginia group, said in Norfolk no move had been planned by the intermediaries; no arrangements had been made for a new contact with the kidnapers.

But it was impossible to answer a question as to whether there is any hope "negotiations" with the kidnapers will be concluded without in four or five days.

Previously the Norfolk trio had expressed a belief the child would be in their hands or back with his parents this week.

Erwin Appeals For Education Of Childhood

Re-Sounds Cry Late Aycock

President Of N. C. Education Association Delivers First Speech In Native County.

Clyde Erwin, superintendent of the public schools of Rutherford county and new president of the North Carolina Education association, resounded the challenge of the late Chas. B. Aycock as his program for the childhood of North Carolina in a speech here last night before the weekly meeting of the Kiwanis club.

It was significant that Mr. Erwin, the newly elected president of the N. C. Education association, should deliver his first speech since his election in his native county of Cleveland where he rode a "little red mule" from Waco to Shelby to get his first certificate to teach school.

Mr. Erwin paid tribute to the lamented Aycock who went from one end of the state to the other pleading for the right of every child to virgin soil everything in that child and for equal educational opportunities to all. The platform of Mr. Erwin in his highly responsible position will be the same as Aycock—adequate opportunities for the children of today in order that they might become better adult citizens of tomorrow.

Mr. Erwin praised the Christ and urged for education of early Cleveland county people in building Boiling Springs, Piedmont and other educational institutions. It was from these schools the leaders of today sprang and the more emphasis that is given to education of the childhood of today, the more and better leaders there will be in the future.

Mr. Erwin brushed aside the questions of increased teacher load, the salary of teacher and the duplication of work by the state board of education and the board of equalization as slight in importance as compared with adequate educational opportunities and the right of every child to virgin soil all that is in him.

Scoutmasters To Get Certificates

Judge Bismark Capps To Speak Here And Deliver Thirteen Certificates

A special court of honor meeting of Boy Scouts will be held in the court house Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The local high school band under the leadership of Mr. Ovid B. Lewis will be present to render a number of musical selections.

Judge Bismark Capps, president of the Piedmont council, B. S. A., will attend the meeting and will make a short address.

Certificates will be awarded to the scoutmasters and other leaders who have recently completed the ten weeks' course in the "Principles of Scoutmastership." The names of those receiving awards follow:

Hugh Arrowood, R. O. Kale, H. P. Winchester, Milton Loy, E. C. Aderholt, L. D. Moody, J. A. Hallman, Jessie Ellis, Sam Smith, Clarence Williams, C. E. Wilson, B. G. Queen, J. A. Probst.

Of course the usual group of scouts will be up for promotion. Capt. B. L. Smith, leader of the scout work in the county and vice president of the council, is inviting and urging all parents of scouts and all troop and district committeemen to attend the meeting. Any others are welcome to come.

Baseball Contest Here Rained Out

Highs Play Forest City Today And Again In Shelby Next Tuesday

Shelby's first home baseball game of the season was to have been played in the city park yesterday, but will not be played until Tuesday afternoon. Showers yesterday caused the postponement of the game here with Kings Mountain.

Free Defendants In Barrett Boy's Death

Judge McElroy Dismisses Manslaughter Charges Against Boyd Barrett, Carl And Everett Bridges. Evidence Heard For Day And Half. Jury Kept At Hotel Last Night.

The Barrett death case, the feature trial of the present term of Superior court, failed to reach the jury when just before noon today, as the evidence was completed, Judge P. A. McElroy ruled that there was not enough evidence to take the case to the jury, and as a result, a juror was withdrawn and a verdict of not guilty ordered by the court.

Long Sentences Given On Store Breaking Charge

Three Negroes Get Five-Year Terms For Store-Breaking. Two Others Get Road Sentence.

Five negroes, charged with store robbery at Kings Mountain, were yesterday given sentences totalling over 16 years in Superior court here by Judge P. A. McElroy.

The men sentenced and their sentences were: Ed Latta, five to seven years, James West, five to seven years, Willie Lipscomb, five to seven years, Brandon Corn, four months, Wilbur Briggs, 12 months.

Latta, West and Lipscomb were sent to the State prison and Corn and Briggs to the State road camp. Lawrence Mitchem, a defendant in the same case, was acquitted.

Two Stores Robbed. The quintet was charged with robbery of Anton's and Loden's stores at Kings Mountain, the robbery taking place in January.

The other Kings Mountain breaking and entering case, tried Wednesday, in which Fred Rice and Paul Johnson were the defendants, resulted in an acquittal, or a nol pros. Rice was charged with entering the Phoenix mill store, at Kings Mountain, and Johnson with receiving. The evidence was not considered sufficient to take the case to the jury.

The history of the case in brief is that after leaving school on January 5, young Barrett went by the home of Boyd Barrett where he joined Boyd Barrett, Carl and Everett Bridges and others. There was some drinking, and about 8 in the afternoon two officers arrived on the scene and brought Max Barrett, apparently in a drunken stupor, and one of the bridges to jail.

Farm Exchange To Take Orders For Fertilizer

Orders Will Be Pooled And Must Be Accompanied By Cash. Agents Named.

At a meeting of the Farmers Mutual Exchange of Cleveland county, held this week, it was decided to handle fertilizers, selling direct to the farmers. Orders will be pooled and sent to the factory for shipment to Cleveland county points for delivery on a cash basis.

Orders will be taken for as much as car lot shipments or as little as ton lots. Farmers who wish to place orders through the mutual exchange, a non profit organization may see any of the directors, B. Austell, G. L. Hamrick, G. F. Wolfe, R. W. Wilson, O. P. Hamrick, or J. P. McSwain. Orders may also be placed with the three agricultural teachers in the county: P. M. Coley, of Lattimore, E. L. Dillingham, of Polkville, or H. P. Winchester of No. 3 Consolidated school or with Miss Mary Brandt Switzer in the office of the county farm agent in the court house.

Attorney Pat McBrayer is willing to introduce any Democratic political candidate, and give each and all the best he has, but he reserves the right to support the candidate of his own choice, whoever that may be.

Recent reference to the fact that Attorney McBrayer had introduced one United States senatorial candidate, Robert R. Reynolds, when he spoke in Shelby and then wrote a letter endorsing the candidacy of Senator Morrison, a Reynolds opponent, brought the following statement from Mr. McBrayer today:

"I was asked as a matter of courtesy to introduce Mr. Reynolds after the man slated to introduce him was unable to attend. I passed up another engagement, or, rather, expected guests, to do him that courtesy. Under similar circumstances I would do the same for Messrs. Grist and Bowie or candidates for any other offices. In saying that I will be glad to introduce any of them, if it becomes necessary, I reserve the right to vote for and support any candidate I please. And it is my own opinion that Senator Morrison will be sent back to Washington."

"Heaven Bound" In Shelby Tonight

"Heaven Bound," the negro pageant which has already played to packed houses for four times in Shelby, will be shown again tonight at 8:30 o'clock under the auspices of the American Legion Junior League. It is thought that this will be the last time this immensely popular play will be given in Shelby this season. Bookings however, are being made in nearby towns.

Continued on page eight.