

Roosevelt Still Upholds "Little" Man Despite Al

New York Governor Answers Challenge of Smith in Defend Plea for Lowly.

St. Paul, Minn., April 20.—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York Monday night charged upon a declaration of two weeks ago which drew fire from former Gov. Alfred E. Smith, and concluded a plea for "a national community of interests" by a general challenge, "if that be treason, make the most of it."

In his address, which the governor frankly labeled privately as "my answer to Smith," the New York executive referred only once directly to the standard-bearer of the Democratic party in 1928, and then in a complimentary manner.

But he defended his address of two weeks ago which Smith attacked at the Jefferson Day banquet at Washington last Thursday as "setting class against class and rich against poor," in detail and in one particular took pains to assure clarity.

Wants Broad Policy
"I am pleading," Governor Roosevelt said in doing this, "for a policy, broad enough to include every part of our economic structure. A policy that seeks to help all simultaneously, that shows an understanding of the fact that there are millions of our people who can not be helped by merely helping their employers because they are not employees in the strict sense of the word—the farmers, the small business man, the professional people."

"Help for them, means a greater consumption, not of luxuries, but of the necessities of life and this means more factory wheels turning in the cities, more employment for the strictly industrial population, for the railroad workers and for the distributors. That kind of buying power makes itself felt more quickly than any other."

"Concert of Interests"
Proceeding with enlargement of his original theme, Governor Roosevelt asserted that "not only among the sections of this country, but among its economic units and the various groups in these units there must be common participation, planning on the basis of a share common life. In much of our present there is too much disposition to mistake the part for the whole the head for the body. I plead not for a class concert, but for a true concert of interests."

Al Is Unchanged.
New York, April 20.—Alfred E. Smith exhibited 500 letters indicating his recent speech about "demagogic appeals" to voters, as he sat peering over the foot-high stack of correspondence.

At the same hour Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt, at whom part of Smith's attack was interpreted as referring, was preparing to deliver an address in St. Paul, Minn., which appeared to be an indirect rebuttal.

Smith, receptive candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, avoided by reference, during a one-hour interview, to his gubernatorial successor, who is an avowed candidate for the nomination.

Nothing To Add
"My Washington speech stands as it is," he said, fingering the congratulatory letters in front of him. "I do not intend to add it until I make another address and I have no more addresses on my date book."

He added his plans would not be changed by anything Roosevelt might say in St. Paul.

He explained he would not be satisfied with a prohibition plank like that in the 1928 Democratic platform.

"We have gone ahead by leaps and bounds since then. I had no plan then. Now I am for the Roosevelt plan and I intend to advocate it—unless I see a better one in the meantime."

Correct this sentence: "We want you to be chairman, you won't have much to do."

Jonas Filed For District Race; No Bulwinkle Rival

Lincoln Republican To Seek Congress Seat Again Talk Bulwinkle Opponents.

Raleigh, April 20.—Charles A. Jonas, of Lincolnton denied a district attorneyship by the senate and martyred by the Republican state convention in Charlotte last week, yesterday filed formal notice that he would be candidate for congress in the tenth district.

Jonas, who was re-elected as Republican national committeeman at Charlotte, was, it was reported, offered his party's nomination for governor but declined. He is without opposition so far as the primary as is his Democratic opponent, Major A. I. Bulwinkle now representing the new tenth-old ninth-district. In the 1928 turnover, Jonas defeated Congressman Bulwinkle and served one term, being defeated for re-election in 1930.

It is now believed that Congressman A. L. Bulwinkle will have no opposition in the Democratic primary June 4. Judge Wilson Warlick first mentioned as an opponent refuses to contest Major Bulwinkle Hamilton Jones and Marlon Redd of Charlotte; Gregg Cherry, of Gastonia, and Sam Erwin of Morganton, have been mentioned as other prospective rivals for the Democratic nomination, but no definite statement has been made by either of them. After Friday it will be impossible to file for the contest.

Athletes In Fallston Grads

(Special to The Star.)

Fallston, April 19.—Fallston High school is approaching the end of this year work with a large graduating class. This senior class graduates the largest number of girl athletes of any class in the history of the school. All six regulars will be graduated April 27. Members of the team are Jessie Baxter, Blanche Hoyle, Hazel Wilson, Cloe Wright, Aileen Yoder and Erma Leonhart.

Miss Leonhart was undoubtedly one of the best basket ball players ever developed in Cleveland county. She scored a total of 223 points this season making a total of 48 points in one game. Miss Leonhart's personal score was 37 points better than the combined scores of all opponents.

The leading students in quality of work may be considered as remarkable. Eight or nine of them have records with little difference of a distinct nature. Girls carried off the honors, but were pursued closely by Alton Royster.

Class roll: William Durham Bridges, pres., Avery Clarence Dixon, vice-pres., Alves Hubert Hoyle, M. Alton Royster, Elijah Austin Royster, Milton L. ### Rutherford County Has Strange Events

Forest City, April 20.—"Believe it or not" and "strange as it seems" the following unusual things have really occurred in Rutherford county:

C. Hamrick drove his light delivery truck over a bucket of eggs without breaking a single egg.

Lawrence Goode, of Cliffside, has worn the same suit of clothes for 12 years and admits it.

A farmer living in the southern part of the county shot an animal one night, which the next day was identified as an armadillo. This animal is a native of South America and its presence in this county remains a mystery yet.

A moon bow, the night style of rainbow, was seen in Rutherford county on a night following a rainy day this past winter. The colors, while faint, were visible to the naked eye.

Quince Lemons is a textile worker employed at Cliffside, while Green White, Pink Green and Red Lavender are all farmers of the Cliffside section.

Poppy Day In Shelby May 28

Legion Auxiliary in City Prepares To Handle Sale of Poppies.

Saturday, May 28, will be "Poppy Day" in Shelby. On that day every person in the city will be asked to wear a bright red poppy in honor of the men who gave their lives in the World War. Mrs. C. B. Alexander, president of the local unit of the American Legion auxiliary, has announced. The poppies will be sold throughout the city by auxiliary women, assisted by members of other women's organizations, and the entire proceeds will go to the relief and rehabilitation funds of the auxiliary.

The local poppy sale will be part of a nation-wide observance of "Poppy Day", the chairman explained. On May 28, the Saturday before Memorial day, more than ten million paper replicas of the poppy of Flanders fields will be offered by auxiliary women who will distribute the flowers on the streets of practically every city and town in the country. Thousands of disabled veterans have been working for many weeks making the flowers for the sale.

"Poppy Day will have a two-fold message to the people of Shelby", says the auxiliary. "First, it will call to them to wear a poppy as a personal tribute to the memory of those gallant young men who gave their lives for America in the World War, and second, it will appeal to them to help lighten the burden for those who are paying the price of America's victory in suffering and hardships, the disabled veterans, their families and the families of the dead. Every penny which the people of the city contribute for their poppies will go to the relief of the living victims of the war, the bulk of the money remaining right here in Shelby to finance the Auxiliary's relief activities among needy veterans and their families here."

DePriest Sticks, Newell To Speak

Shelby Republican To Remain In Senate Race And Force Party Primaries

Reports from Charlotte that he might withdraw and not force Jake F. Newell, Charlotte Republican, into a primary for the G. O. P. nomination to the United States senate, draw no comment from George W. DePriest, former chairman of the Republican party in Cleveland county. All indications are that the Shelby man has no idea of withdrawing, for this week he was having a quantity of pamphlets and campaign literature. Next week he plans a tour of the state to, as he says, "give the Republicans back home a chance to pick their own nominee."

Charlotte, April 20.—Jake F. Newell, Charlotte lawyer and Republican nominee for the United States senate from North Carolina, plans an extensive speaking tour of the state after the Democratic primary of June 4.

Mr. Newell, strictly speaking, is not yet the party's nominee and unless George DePriest, of Shelby, former postmaster there and one of the colorful figures in Cleveland county Republican circles, abandons his announced purpose to seek the nomination and withdraws, it will be necessary for the Charlotte man, already the nominee of the state convention held here last Thursday, to defeat him in the forthcoming primary.

Might Withdraw
Mr. DePriest, despite his recent assertion that he would not abandon the field to Mr. Newell, is expected to withdraw party leaders here predict. If he does decide to abandon his attempt to win the nomination, Mr. Newell will not undertake his speaking campaign before late summer, he said. But if the Shelby Republican persists in his determination to contest the issue with Mr. Newell the latter will make several speeches in various sections of the state to remind the Republicans of the primary in order that they will be ready to get out the vote. The Republicans have little regard for primaries and prefer to make their selections in convention. Because they are unusual to primaries, the world probably cast a very light vote.

Lincoln Farmers Get Federal Money

Lincolnton, April 19.—Three hundred and fifty out of a possible 500 applicants have received aid from the federal government in amounts ranging from $10 to $400 for the purpose of purchasing seed and fertilizer in this county.

Just before the election the people reign supreme and both sides win—but there comes a morning after.

Principals in $250,000 Suit

Made when they were apparently the best of friends, this photo shows Charles Newbold Welsh, Philadelphia millionaire clubman, and Mrs. Estelle M. Wolon, Chicago widow, who are now on opposite sides in a legal battle. Mrs. Wolon has filed suit for $250,000 against Welsh, charging breach of promise. She left a sickbed in Chicago to attend the court hearing, but suffered a relapse which caused a postponement.

One Result of Lindy Case

Although he was cleared of any complicity in the Lindbergh baby kidnaping, Henry "Red" Johnson (second from right) is shown with an immigration official being escorted aboard the ship that is taking him back to his native Norway. When Johnson was arrested in Hartford, Conn., in connection with the Lindy case, it was discovered that he had entered the United States illegally three years ago.

First Poppy for President

Four-year-old Betty Joas Christian, held in the arms of Harold D. de Coe, is shown as she pinned the first "Buddy Poppy" on President Hoover, thereby starting the 1932 National Buddy Poppy sale conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars to raise funds for relief work. Betty, the daughter of a deceased ex-service man, made her trip to Washington from the Veterans' Home for Widows and Orphans at Eaton Rapids, Mich.
