

Play Final Matches In Golf Tournament

Alexander And DeArmon Meet In First Flight, Mrs. Sam Schenck Wins First Honors

First flight honors in the annual spring golf tournament at the Cleveland Springs Country club will be decided Tuesday when M. D. Alexander, of Shelby, and "Doc" DeArmon, of Kings Mountain, meet in the final match. Mrs. Sam Schenck has already won first flight honors for the women.

With the exception of two or three flights all the flight championships have been decided, and those remaining are scheduled to be played off this week.

In Match Play

DeArmon moved to the finals in the first flight Saturday by defeating Earl Hamrick four and three. Joe Whitman was the winner of the second flight, beating Jack Hartigan two and one.

Chas. Eskridge won the third flight, defeating J. I. Jenkins. Six players remain in the fourth flight and will play as follows: E. J. Cooper vs. H. Neisler, Maurice Weathers vs. H. L. White and Chas. Hoey vs. Jack Dover.

Women Through

The matches for the feminine shot makers have already ended. Mrs. Sam Schenck won first flight honors by defeating Mrs. Jean Schenck, and Mrs. Mason Carroll won the second flight prize by defeating Mrs. Charles Williams.

Other Tournaments

Saturday of this week, Bob Reid, club professional, and the tournament committee are planning a Scotch tournament in which the 12 leading men golfers will team with the 12 leading women golfers for 18 hole Scotch honors. It is planned to place the names of 12 men golfers in a hat and permit the ladies to draw for their partners in the Scotch play.

One For Beginners

Another tournament which may be staged this week or next will be for women members of the club who have never played. It is hoped to arrange several prizes for this tournament in order to create enough interest to get all the women in the club playing.

The Cleveland Springs course is now in excellent condition and golf interest is high.

Undeclared Nine Of Mooresboro Wins Over Shelby Mill

Mooresboro More Adept At The Bat, Home Runs

(Special to The Star.) Mooresboro, May 14.—Well, the Mooresboro undeclared nine licked the Shelby mill outfit for the second time here this afternoon, 8 to 4.

The locals started out early in the encounter to make it a shut-out, but their opponents said no and ran four around the diamond to prove it.

Both teams played good ball, but the Mooresboro boys proved more adept at the bat. Then, too, Harrill and Ellis out-maneuvered the opposing hurlers and catcher, therefore another victory. In all fairness to the visitors, however, it might be added at this point that they were handicapped somewhat by the sloping outfield with which they were not familiar.

Bob Greene, the versatile first sacker for Mooresboro came out of the din as hero due to the fact that visiting hurlers threw a couple of his favorites, which he promptly sent spinning through ether for two homers.

The line-ups follow:

Mooresboro	AB	H	R
G. Harris, ss	5	1	0
J. Wall, 3b	5	0	0
DePriest, 2b	5	0	0
B. Greene, 1b	4	2	2

Batteries for Mooresboro: Harrill and Ellis. Batteries for Shelby Mill: Williams and Rummens and Sellers. Losing pitcher: Rummens. Winning pitcher: Harrill. Home runs: Green (2), Sellers. Three batters: Morrison and Green. Subs for Mooresboro: Winn. Subs for Shelby mill: Ledbetter and Rummens.

Science has invented a machine to measure noise, and its first test it found that Lily Pons can make more noise than a street car. How about a championship match between Lily and Tom Hefflin.

Webb Goes Down Before Ed Reid

Fred (Snook) Webb, Shelby's crack southpaw golfer was defeated Saturday in the semi-finals of the Charlotte-Country club invitation tournament. He lost to Ed Reid who won the tournament, by two holes with one to play. In the finals Reid defeated Paul Cushman of Greenville.

The young Shelby star was the favorite to cop the Charlotte tournament for the second time, but was noticeably off his game Saturday after blazng his way to the semi-finals. He and his brother, Pete, a pro, won the pro-amateur match which opened the tournament.

Shelby High In Win For Closing Contest Of Year

Capt. Dick Newton Pitches Win Over Granite Falls By Score 9 To 7

The Shelby high baseball team closed its 1932 season Friday with a 9-7 victory over the strong Granite Falls team in the city park here.

Incidentally, Capt. Dick Newton ended his high school baseball career by hurling the winning game. Newton has been an outfielder until this year when a shortage of pitchers made it necessary for him to do a considerable portion of this pitching.

"Red" Jolley led the parade against Granite Falls, getting three hits and four runs in four trips to the plate. It was also "Red's" last game in high school uniform. Connor had a perfect day at the plate, two hits and two runs in two times up.

Younts, third sacker, was the main barrage of the visiting team, securing three hits and two runs in four trips to the plate. Terrell, catcher, also secured three hits. Others securing hits for Shelby were Nolan, Newton, Kale and Moore.

Rippy Goes Down After Good Game In Charlotte Meet

Shelby Boy Loses Two Up To Jimmie Hobbs, Fred Webb Sticks In

Fred Webb, Shelby's southpaw golfer, went to the semi-finals in the Charlotte Country club invitation tournament Friday by defeating T. G. Griffith of Charlotte, six holes up and five to go. Claude Brown Rippy, another Shelby lad in the championship flight, lost, after good playing, to Jimmie Hobbs of Charlotte two up.

Tom McCarver Wins His Babe Carr Bout

Smiling Babe, Spotting Nine Pounds Of Weight, Unable To Last It

Gastonia Gazette. The semi-finals in the Friday night program was very good, but Babe Carr could not stand the onslaught of the Shelby southpaw, Tom McCarver, and lost the fight in the fourth when he went down first for the count of nine and then knelt again to lose by a technical knockout, the referee giving McCarver the fight, and properly so. McCarver outweighed Carr nine pounds. If weight means anything this is terrible matchmaking and poor judgment on the part of the commission.

Legion Boys Will Meet Cherryville

Picked Team From Cleveland Outfits Will Play Visiting Club

Although the high school season has closed, Shelby baseball fans have a number of other interesting games booked for the weeks ahead. Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 the Shelby American Legion junior team will play the Cherryville Legion team at the city park here. The team of Shelby youngsters will be picked from five youth Legion teams in Shelby and the county.

On Friday the local Legion team will play the Gastonia team.

Stanley Defeats Neisler Mills 14-8

McLain, Abernethy And Painter Led The Attack For Visitors, Moss The Hitter.

(Special to The Star.) Kings Mountain, May 14.—Stanley of the Tri-County League of Gaston county defeated the Neisler Mills of Kings Mountain at Speedway Park here today by the score of 14 to 8.

McLain, Abernethy and Painter led the attack for the visitors. McLain getting 4 for 3. Hughes and Fulkerson were pounded freely in the early part of the game. Flinger for the visitors fared little better during the first three innings. Moss, local catcher and third baseman got four hits out of five times up. Ormand and Bridges each got three out of four. The game was slow and listless throughout.

Charge Fountain Turning On Party

song." Mr. Ehringhaus declared. "Manifestly it is the last desperate effort of a man who contemplates his inevitable defeat. It excites no bitterness in my heart—only pity that one who has been so signally honored by his party should turn upon it. For by now he must realize that, while this speech was as music in the ears of the Republicans of North Carolina, it chilled the hearts of the loyal Democrats throughout the state and awakened a feeling of wonder that one who had long been the beneficiary of their favors should thus turn upon his party's record. It constitutes the best political document the Republicans will have in the next campaign and one can imagine with what smiles of satisfaction and cheerful chuckles Charles Jonas and Clifford Frazier clipped this speech for future reference.

"For, however, Mr. Fountain may attempt to camouflage this effort and make it appear as directed only against the governor, the people know that the governor cannot legislate; he can only recommend; and every act Mr. Fountain so severely criticizes is the act of a Democratic legislature approved by the overwhelming votes of Democratic members. The responsibility of legislation rests finally on the legislature of which he was a conspicuous part and his name not mine, is signed to every act he criticizes.

Resents Bribery Charge

"Particularly do I resent in behalf of all the honorable men concerned, Mr. Fountain's substantial suggestion that they were bribed to support certain legislature measures by appointments at the hands of the executive. Such a charge is unworthy of the consideration of decent and honorable citizens and such bluster the lips of the man who utters it."

Reynolds Rides Rule Of G. O. P.

Says Hoover and His Administration Have Practiced Gross-est Deception.

Smithfield, May 16.—President Hoover and the Republican administration have practiced the grossest type of deception and duplicity declared Robert R. Reynolds, candidate for nomination for the United States senate, here Friday night in an address to one of the largest audiences ever secured by a political candidate in Johnson county. "President Hoover deceived this nation by deliberately refusing to face the impending financial crash experienced in 1929," said Reynolds. "He first declared our grave troubles to be only temporary and then when it appeared more permanent, that prosperity was just around the corner. We are still trying to find prosperity around the corners and we shall never succeed until the Republican control of our government is broken and the Democrats take office in the election of November.

"Mr. Hoover refused to release the immense quantities of grain held by our government to the poor and needy recently because he feared that it would create a situation similar to the one now experienced in Great Britain but he didn't fail to hear the call and demand of Wall street for rescue."

Reynolds advocated drastic reductions in the cost of both state and national governments and the immediate payment of the compensation owed World War veterans.

Buffalo Memorial

Memorial services will be held Sunday, May 22nd at Buffalo Baptist church east of Shelby. Geo. P. Webb will deliver the address. Dinner will be served in picnic style and in the afternoon there will be singing. Those who have relatives or friends buried there are asked to meet Friday morning at 7:30 to help clean off the cemetery.

Clinging to Life in Mid-Air

This spectacular picture shows Robert Cowart, navy enlisted man, hanging on for dear life to the end of the mooring rope of the giant dirigible Akron after two others of the landing crew had plunged to death. Cowart clung to his hold on life for nearly two hours, 2,000 feet above the earth, until he was finally hauled aboard the Akron. The three men were as music in the ears of the Republicans of North Carolina, it chilled the hearts of the loyal Democrats throughout the state and awakened a feeling of wonder that one who had long been the beneficiary of their favors should thus turn upon his party's record. It constitutes the best political document the Republicans will have in the next campaign and one can imagine with what smiles of satisfaction and cheerful chuckles Charles Jonas and Clifford Frazier clipped this speech for future reference.

Cleveland Farmers Turn To Better Cattle

and were bred to approximately 300 cows in the county. The calves from these animals are showing up well.

Cleveland took an active part in the live-at-home campaign in both 1930 and 1931. There was hardly a car of hay shipped into the county last summer and there was a decided increase in the use of soybeans and lespedeza will be increased year by year because it is the best soil builder ever to be planted in the county. Yields of from 800 to 900 pounds of seed an acre were produced from plantings of the Korean variety last season.

There is also an increase in the growing of sweet potatoes. There are 14 curing houses in the county with a capacity of 55,600 bushels. Due to the late drought last summer not all the houses were stored to capacity during the winter but about 45,000 bushels were cured. Increasing the amount of potash in the fertilizer gave increases of 80 bushels of sweet potatoes to the acre in the demonstrations conducted with some leading growers.

Poultry is coming to the front rapidly as an important Cleveland county crop. The county has a poultry association which is affiliated with the Seaboard Mutual Exchange which in turn has connections with the state mutual exchange. The local association accumulated some money last year and purchased 30 high bred cockerels which were sold at auction to growers. This was said to be the first auction sale of its kind ever held in North Carolina.

The increase in pastures has also been noticeable in the last few years. Mr. Shoffner recommends a seed mixture consisting of red top, Dallis grass, white clover, alsike clover, orchard grass and lespedeza as the best for pastures on that soil. Planting in the fall gives better results than planting in the spring.

Mr. Shoffner says the most encouraging thing about the future of farming in his county is the interest in livestock and soil improvement. He believes that lespedeza will be adopted as a soil improving crop to the same extent as it has in other piedmont counties. In the meantime, farmers are adding to their flocks of poultry, their dairy herds and their brood sows. Known now as a good crop county, Cleveland is beginning to balance its agriculture into a most permanent and prosperous system, he believes.

State Contests Warm Up As Primary Nears

Jonas and Frazier as they clipped it for use against Democrats. The criticism of Mr. Fountain, aimed at Governor Gardner, missed fire, as the governor cannot legislate, only recommend, and Mr. Fountain's name is attached to every law enacted and which he criticizes, Mr. Ehringhaus said. Answering Mr. Fountain's question relative to acceptance of appointment to positions he helps create. Mr. Ehringhaus relatives to acceptance Ehringhaus said he declined one year ago, but Fountain accepted appointment in three instances, including the park commission and the equalization board, as a result of which he draws per diem and mileage from the state, amounting in the last five years to more than $3,000, averaging more than $50 a

Long Vigil Over Anne Morrow Lindbergh; Prepares Burial Garb

Mother Of Little Lindy Gathers Clothes For Her Son's Shroud.

Hopewell, N. J., May 16.—For Anne Lindbergh last week-end there was no more uncertainty.

No reason any more to start up eagerly at the ringing of the telephone.

No more of the agony of wondering whether her baby was alive and how he was being treated by the strangers who took him away. Nor any hope.

Gone even the slight comfort to be derived from things that kept her busy yesterday afternoon and last night—running upstairs to the nursery for a little shirt that helped to identify the dead child as her son, calling again and again on the telephone to try to reach his father.

Her friends said she was being very brave, wandering about the long, bright living room, quiet and forlorn.

Aged Steamship Line Head Thought Dying

San Rafael, Calif.—Captain Robert Dollar, 88 year old veteran of the shipping and lumber industry, was said today by his physician, Dr. Rafael G. Duffley, to be growing weaker every minute. He has been ill two weeks with bronchial pneumonia and for the last 24 hours has been in a coma.
