

Reply To The So-Called "Loyal Democrats"

In reply to a certain meeting which was held at East-side School house on Friday, October 5th, 1928, called "Anti Smith Organization" I wish to say I was not invited to the said meeting, neither did I hear about it until it appeared in the Cleveland Star. I was not responsible for anything that was done at the said meeting.

Now, as to the comment that appeared in Monday's Star from a group of "Loyal Democrats" that felt a little timid to give their names to the voters of Cleveland county, after investigating I received information from the editor of The Star that the group of "Loyal Democrats" was composed of two young men, one employed in the office at the Cloth mill in Shelby and the other working for some gas or oil company.

Can the Democratic voters of Cleveland County read between the lines? I hope so.

Now as a citizen of Cleveland County and one who has never voted a Republican ticket or any other than a Democratic ticket in my life, yet these so called "Loyal Democrats" insinuated in their comment that I was a Hoover man or a Republican. It appears that some "Big Boy" has got hold of them. This is not the first rumor the "Big Boys" have sent out. Some have gone so far as to say they heard that Joe E. Blanton voted for Hoover in 1928, but fortunately there is no truth in this rumor.

I produce one who testifies to the truth pertaining to my vote my witness, Mr. J. L. Smith, judge of Box No. 1, Shelby, N. C.

JOE E. BLANTON.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that Joe E. Blanton and family came in to Box No. 1 in 1928 and they all voted the Democratic ticket straight to the President box and did not vote in it at all.

"I'm From Missouri" Author Death Victim

Columbia, Mo., Authorship of Missouri's "Show me" slogan was generally attributed to Willard D. Vandiver, former Congressman, who died here Monday at the age of 78. The late Speaker Champ Clark credited Vandiver with originating the expression in an impromptu humorous address as a Congressman before the Five O'clock club in Philadelphia in 1890. "I come from the country that raises corn, cotton, cockleburrs and Democrats" Vandiver said in the address. "I'm from Missouri and you've got to show me." Others had been credited with authorship of the expression, but a national magazine approved the Vandiver version as correct after an inquiry.

W. S. BEAM STILL IN THE RACE FOR COUNTY SOLICITOR

We wish to state that W. S. Beam is still in the race for County Solicitor and the fact that he is in the Shelby Hospital through no fault of his own, causes us to write this—and should and will cause his friends to work the harder for him.

We are writing to tell the voters of this good County that W. S. Beam was not drunk at all, that he has not drunk whiskey for more than two years.

Recently he was on the verge of a nervous breakdown—he did not want to neglect his work but chose to stay by it, that necessitated his taking a sedative and after taking such for several days the reaction, together with his already badly depleted condition, was too much for him. These facts are known to his friends and may be ascertained by all. He is a very sick man now, and all the while he was very anxious to be his party's nominee for Solicitor. He should be better soon but not in time to participate actively in this campaign but his friends and supporters may yet aid materially in helping him attain his one great ambition—that of serving his County as Solicitor after waging a successful campaign—he is handicapped now and his friends and supporters must carry on for him. He will greatly thank you.

ALLEN Running For Last TIME

The following statement was made today by Irvin M. Allen, who is a candidate for reelection in the Democratic primary on June 4.

To my friends, the voters of Cleveland county:

When I announced that I would be a candidate in the June primary, that announcement being made months ago, I said that if elected I WOULD NOT SEEK ANOTHER TERM.

In the last week or so numerous people have called in to know if I really made that statement. I understand that a number also called The Cleveland Star last week to learn for a fact if I did make that statement. For the information of every voter I take this opportunity of saying that I did make the statement, and I am sticking to it and will stick to it, no matter what rumors to the contrary may be circulated.

If the good people of this county honor me with the nomination for sheriff on June 4, I assure them I WILL NOT ASK TO SERVE ANOTHER TERM.

I appreciate the support and votes given me in the past, and will deeply appreciate every vote, every good word and all support given me in this campaign and on June 4. And with that appreciation I give the repeated assurance that I will not seek the office for another term. Knowing, if nominated and elected, that it will be my last term, I will naturally give ever honest effort to render the best service within my power, for it will be by my record that the people will remember me and I will want it to be the best possible for the sake of my children and my friends.

Again thanking you and asking your friendship and support on June 4, I am,

IRVIN M. ALLEN. (Political Advertisement)
