Mrs. Adeline Holland Hamrick, widow of Ex-Sheriff M. N. Hamrick and one of Shelby's oldest and most saintly women, died last night at 11:30 o'clock at her home on S. Lafayette street. She was 90 years old last November.

Funeral Thursday

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the First Baptist church of which she was one of the oldest members in point of age and membership. Services will be conducted by the pastor, Dr. Zeno Wall, assisted by Dr. E. K. McLarty of Central Methodist and Rev. H. N. McDermid of the Presbyterian church. Interment will be beside her husband in Sunset cemetery.

Distinguished Ancestry

Mrs. Hamrick was of distinguished ancestry. Her great grandfather was Wm. Holland, an officer and hero in the War of the Revolution who later served as a member of congress. Then his grandfather, Wm. Holland, Jr., had a conspicuous part in moulding and shaping the destiny of this country. Her father was Capt. Gold Griffin Holland, an officer in the War Between the States who rendered conspicuous service and is noted in history for his bravery. Later he served two terms in the state legislature.

Business Woman

When the Civil war broke out Mrs. Hamrick was single and one of a family of ten children. Her father and brother had gone to war and it fell to her lot to operate the farm, two mills and serve as postmistress. She was highly intelligent, wrote a good hand and carried on much of the correspondence between the folks at home and the men at the battlefield.

Mrs. Hamrick possessed a wonderful memory and it was interesting to hear her recite the hardships of the war and reconstruction periods. She had a bright outlook on life, was always cheerful and had a kind word for everybody. As a business woman she was remarkable, having been schooled in economy during the distressful days of the early sixties.

Forty years ago she and her family moved to Shelby. Her husband served as sheriff for a dozen years and was one of the most prominent and influential men in the county. He died December 10, 1921.

Six Children Survive

Surviving are the following children: Mrs. W. H. Blanton, Mrs. Dora Jennings, Mrs. S. O. Andrews, Mrs. Ollie Bostic, B. O. Hamrick, all of Shelby and Grover C. Hamrick of Albany, Ga., who arrived today at 2 o'clock. Two sisters also survive. Mrs. John Moore of Bolling Springs and Mrs. S. R. Haynes, of Henrietta.

Shelby Bonus Group On Road To Join Others

14 Veterans, Woman In Party

Contingent Left City Yesterday In Three Autos. Others May Go.

Shelby's contingent of the rapidly growing bonus army left the city yesterday at high noon to join other World war veterans who are in Washington, they say, until they are paid their bonus.

The Shelby group, made up of 14 veterans and the wife of one veteran, was not trusting to hitch-hiking and box-car luck to get to the nation's capital. They left the city in a Buick sedan and two Ford coaches.

Names Listed

Veterans going were: Vic Camp and wife, George A. Johnson, Gordon Beam, Earl Hicks, Glenn Willis, Jim Morrison, Craig Hartgrove, Lawrence Cook, Pete Wallace, Bill Laughlin, Robert A. Bradshaw, Zeb Beam, J. L. Upton and Bob Young.

The autos in which the veterans left belonged to three of their number—George Johnson, Vic Camp and Zeb Beam. All the cars were decorated with United States flags, and signs painted on the sides of each car read "Bonus Army—Shelby, N. C., to Washington, D. C."

All the veterans were in high spirits. None was dressed in overalls as were the majority of others traveling through this section recently. Practically all were in their "Sunday best" suits, had some money and were taking along some food.

No leader of the group had been elected when they left here and no schedule of action had been planned when Washington was reached.

"We'll be back when we get our bonus," came the yells from the vets as their cars rolled out of town.

It was reported today that another truck load would leave soon.

Little Change In Official County Vote

Star's Unofficial Tabulation Close To Official Figures. Senate Votes Boosted.

The official count made of Cleveland county's primary vote Saturday differs very little from the unofficial tabulation compiled by The Cleveland Star Saturday night and Sunday morning. The difference in the unofficial and official tabulations was not enough in any instance to materially effect the outcome.

The vote of seven county candidates was exactly the same in The Star's tabulation as in the official tabulation. The total vote for another candidate was missed by only one vote, another by only four votes, two by five votes and one by six.

The official tabulation for all county races, for governor, senator and attorney general is given in a table published on this page today. The official count shows the following vote in the sheriff's race calling for a second primary: Allen 2,796; Cline 2,308; Laughridge 2,048; Webb 710. In the recorder's race, also calling for a second primary, the official vote was: Wright 2,685; McBrayer 2,114; Weathers 1,710; Cline 1,338. In the other contests the official, as did the unofficial, tabulation showed Gardner as winner of the legislative race. Mrs. Newton 2,796; Webb 710. In the C. C. Horn in the solicitor's race and Blanton, Herndon and Morris in the commissioner's race.

The only noticeable change in the official tabulation was a gain in

Second Race For Township Office; Other Votes Given

There is to be at least one run-off race for a township office as well as a couple of county and state contests in the second primary.

Yesterday J. Lindsay Dixon filed with John P. Mull, election board chairman, his notice of making a second race for constable in No. 7 township. Dixon with 161 votes was runner-up to D. M. Morehead with 259 in the first primary. Forrest Tessenner, a third candidate, received 113 votes. Morehead lacked eight votes of receiving a majority and after this was determined Dixon filed for a second race.

In No. 5 township J. R. Hord was again nominated constable. He received 154 votes while C. L. Barrett received 118 and C. B. Fitch 26.

Justice Contest

W. C. Powell won the constable race in No. 7 with 473 votes to Chas. A. Bridges' 97. A close vote for three offices of justice of peace in No. 8 township may bring on another race there. The votes of the four candidates follow: George M. Gold, 468; Leck Warlick 331; W. J. Bridges 233, and W. F. White 118.

Fallston Sunday School Leader For 67 Years Is Buried Today At Friendship.

Noah J. Wright, 86 year old patriarch, was buried this morning at Fallston where for 67 years he was leader of the Sunday school at Friendship Methodist Protestant church.

Mr. Wright died Monday evening at 6 o'clock after a week's illness. He attended church at Friendship on memorial day the third Sunday in May. He was perhaps the oldest Sunday school officer in North Carolina and was considered one of the finest men in the county. He was always in his place and nothing but sickness could prevent his being on hand at church and Sunday school services. He was quiet in his manner, kind and gentle and commanded the respect and esteem of all who knew him. Hundreds have come under his benign influence and received a blessing from his interpretation of the scriptures.

Four Children Survive

At a meeting held last night volunteer firemen of Shelby reelected their old officers as follows: J. R. Robinson, chief; Herman Eskridge, assistant chief; J. L. McDowell, captain; Ernest Johnson, lieutenant; George Elam secretary with Lorin Hord as assistant.

Recently motorists have given considerable trouble and created several dangerous situations by dashing after the fire trucks and firemen and in order to prevent a serious or fatal accident have decided to do something about it. Hereafter all members of the fire department will serve as traffic officers. They will turn in for prosecution the names of all motorists who follow closer than a block behind the trucks and cars carrying firemen. They will likewise push prosecution against motorists who drive cars over the fire hose, block traffic and otherwise endanger and delay the firemen.

Bowie, Grist Back Of Reynolds

Reynolds Near 12,000 Ahead. Fountain May Not Run. Other Outcomes.

Charlotte, June 8.—Robert R. Reynolds, wet candidate, announced from his home in Asheville late yesterday he had been pledged the support of two other candidates eliminated in the first primary for his run off contest July 2 against Senator Cameron Morrison, long time dry, for the Democratic senatorial nomination.

Reynolds said former Judge T. C. Bowie, of West Jefferson, and Frank D. Grist, who polled a total of more than 60,000 votes, had assured him they would back his candidacy. Nearly complete returns from Saturday's voting showed the 46-year-old Asheville lawyer was leading Morrison, a veteran of Democratic politics, by more than 11,400 ballots in the naivest vote ever recorded in traditionally dry North Carolina. It was the first election in this state in 25 years in which prohibition was an issue.

With 16 precincts missing from 1,823, the vote stood: Reynolds 150,049; Morrison 138,695; Bowie 37,860; Grist, state commissioner of labor and printing, 28,550; Arthur Simmons, Burlington poultryman, 3,875. Morrison, a seasoned campaigner of the North Carolina political wars since he became of age 42 years ago, has issued no statement, except to say he expected to beat Reynolds in the second primary.

His lieutenants, however, have announced their purpose of waging an intensive campaign from now

Loan Cards Must Be In By June 20th

Some Farmers Who Got Crop Loans Have Another Installment Coming To Them.

Farmers who got crop loans from the federal government and have received only one installment, should send in their card by June 20 in order to get the second and final installment, according to E. W. Shoffner, county farm agent, through whom the crop loans were applied for early in the spring.

A total of $69,000 was loaned in Cleveland county for farmers to finance their 1932 crops. Among the first loans made the applicants were paid one installment and sent a card to be returned later for the second and final installment. Some of these farmers may not need their second installment, consequently the card need not be returned, but those who have not secured all of their money applied for and have a card to be returned to Washington for the second and final installment, are notified that these cards must be mailed in time to reach Washington by June 20.
