In an exhibition match with Carl Alexander and Leonard Davis, Charlotte professionals, held in Charlotte on the Fourth the Shelby brothers won five holes up and four to go. All the Shelby pro and his younger brother shot was a best ball score of 65, a number of strokes under par on the Carolina course.

Pearson Seeks Bout With Any Near His Weight

Lawndale Bantamweight Challenges Any Righter In Cleveland And Section.

Jimmy Pearson, the Lawndale lad who has quite an impressive ring record, today issued a challenge to boxers of Cleveland and adjoining counties.

Pearson, fighting in the bantam-weight class, weighs 125 pounds, and is ready, he declares, to take on any and all comers who can come near meeting the weight specifications.

Score Of Victories The youngster fought 31 times and has been victorious 29 times. He is anxious to gain more experience, better his record and get on some of the larger boxing cards in the state.

Near Final Vote On Reynolds And Ehringhaus Given

cratic fold for the national ticket was another objective of the party. Herbert Hoover, carried North Carolina by 50,000 votes in 1928, but this year Democrats expect Franklin D. Roosevelt to reclaim the state by a great majority.

Fountain Backs Ticket Lieutenant Governor R. T. Fountain of Rocky Mount, who trailed Ehringhaus by approximately 12,000 votes in the race for the Democratic nomination for governor, told the Associated Press last night he "absolutely will back the Democratic ticket 100 per cent in November."

"I am a strong party man," Fountain said. "I expect to help in the coming campaign and see the Democratic ticket victorious." Fountain said he will issue a statement in Raleigh, probably Monday, when the official returns in the run-off primary are tabulated by the state board of elections.

Senator Cameron Morrison, whom Reynolds defeated for the nomination by more than 100,000 votes, early Sunday wired the Asheville man he would give him his complete support.

Reynolds faces Jake F. Newell, Charlotte republican, in the November elections, while Ehringhaus will oppose Clifford Frazier, young Greensboro attorney, who is the republican nominee for governor.

Record strength for the Democrats in the state was apparent by the record-breaking vote in the two primaries. In the June 4 balloting, more than 379,000 votes were cast, and the run-off voting on July 2, reached 342,000. Republican candidates are nominated by convention.

Tragic Blaze Claims Lives Of Mother, Son

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE) just a few minutes before the fire was seen—the anguished scream of a woman, "Oh, my baby!" It was at that time, it was presumed, that the mother discovered the fire and tried to rescue the little son. One supposition is that lightning may have struck the house.

Funeral Tuesday The double funeral service, attended by a large throng, was held at El Bethel church Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were conducted by Dr. Zeno Wall, of Shelby, and Dr. Justice, of Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Newton, who was 27 years of age, was Miss Lois Mae Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Peterson, prior to her marriage. Her parents and those of her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Newton, are among the county's best known and most highly respected families. Aged Veterans Pay Debts, Recall Sale Of Slaves In Cleveland

By JAMES C. ELLIOTT

Nixon Whisnant gave the four oldest men in Polkville township and Squire Zemri Falls of Shelby, a fine entertainment last Sunday at his commodious residence near Polkville. James C. Elliott will be 87, on the 12th of July and is the last survivor of the H. F. Schenck Co. P. 56 regiment of 140 men.

Thomas Goode Philbeck the last survivor of the Capt. W. S. Corbitt Co., of 5th and 49th regiment, aged 87 next November and Squire Falls of Shelby of Capt. James Wells, 17 year boys, aged 85, Charles B. Lattimore as a 16-year boy, now 83 did gallant service fighting outlaws in the South Mountains and Chaney Grigg, 83 who barely missed the war.

All were hearty and happy, clear of debt and never had failed to pay their taxes. All had plenty to eat, but not so much money. Chaney Grigg admitted that he had registered U. S. bonds that pay him interest twice a year, but saw no income from the farm in sight. All thought a Democratic president, even if he was a little wet, might bring some relief or not fool us as bad as Hoover has, promising so much and doing nothing. We thought we had better try to support ourselves than to depend on the government, that is entirely dependent on its thrifty people to support it.

Nixon Whisnant lives at the old Goode place of much local history as the militia muster ground. We saw Corbitt's company organized and started to the war in 1861, in May and had seen negro slaves sold at Martin Goode's sale in 1858. Preacher Avant bought Sam Gidney for $1,000. Martin Goode had paid that for him at Mrs. Gidney's sale. A young mulatto mother with twin boys in her arms one year old brought $2,800.

Charley Whisnant, father of Nixon on adjoining farm is a model farmer who has always raised his feed and food at home. This year he expects 125 bushels of wheat from five acres on cotton stalk land. All the fertilizer used was 300 pounds of sulphate of ammonia on the five acres. He had 12 acres of as fine oats. He has run a dairy for 25 years and makes and spreads lots of manure. He has bought high priced land and paid cash for it. He has three tenants.

ton said today that he had $900 insurance on the house, having dropped a $900 policy just a few months back, and his son had no insurance at all on his household goods.

The tragedy struck the entire section in the Patterson Grove, El Bethel and Oak Grove communities, and the stricken young father and husband together with other members of both families have the sympathy of the entire county.

Mrs. Andy McDaniels, Misses Dorothy and Flo McDaniels, Mrs. Ware of Forest City and Mrs. Josephine Poston of R-5 Shelby, were the dinner guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Covington in the Polkville section.

Mr. and Mrs. Merl M. Long, of Charlotte, were visitors in Shelby on July 4th.

Miss Rebecca McClain of Charlotte, returned home today after spending a week here with her little friend, Miss Emma Jo Beam.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wood and J. C. Wood, Jr. returned to Bentonsville today, after spending several days at their home here, to be at the bedside of Mr. Wood's father, Mr. D. J. Wood who is ill at his home here.
