

Around Our TOWN

OR Shelby SIDELIGHTS

By RENN DRUM.

5-SSH! NOW, KEEP THIS ONE QUIET

Many years ago (perhaps not so many), before he began practicing law, Judge B. T. (Bayard Thurman) Falls was superintendent of the Cleveland county schools. One night he was to address an audience at Kings Mountain and he took his girl friend, not being married at that time, along with him. An eloquent Kings Mountain man introduced the speaker and wound up his introduction by saying: "I present B. T. Falls, who is a father to more children than any man in Cleveland county."

One blush after another spread over the face of the girl friend, and even today the judge, hardened by years of court experience, gets red about the ears when the old story is related.

SHELBY SHORTS:

If you saw the Tom Mix film, "His Majesty the King," at the Carolina last Saturday, chances are that you saw a man and horse you've seen with your own eyes. The whip cracker in the film and the checker-board-dotted horse were John Agee and the horse in the equestrian act at the Cleveland county fair several years ago. Mr. Agee in putting the horse through his stunts told the grandstand here that the horse was the property of Tom Mix, but the skeptical ones merely poo-pooed and termed it the same old boloney. When Doc Dorton saw the movie, he chattered out "That's John Agee." Nobody seems to know "Sam" and quite a number of readers do not know the regular perpetrator of this column by sight, Miss Margaret Moss, the girl over to Penney's with the slow Southern drawl, passes us on the street almost every day and still contends she doesn't know us. The depth, we presume of insignificance. Still, after looking at his latest picture, we're cheered by the fact that McIntyre isn't an Adonis by any means. And we're all puffed up at that: Senator J. W. Bailey vows he reads this column and Nobody's Business regularly. Guess he must relax his mind some way. The first 1932 edition of the Boiling Springs college newspaper, The Kalaratha, is off the press, and it's a good mirror of the junior college campus. Margaret Green is the editor. Irony or what? R. H. Rogers, the Ford dealer, has the finest Hoovercar in Shelby. It's a pony buggy for his children. Shelby people are still talking about Arthur Shelton's article on Our Bob Reynolds in the American Mercury. Arthur, who was Bob's publicity man, said in one line: "He (Reynolds) has a moderate but exacting taste for corn likker."

An inside secret: Mayor McMurry attended a meeting with the Corporation Commission in Raleigh this week about reducing power rates. For two hours the meeting talked and talked and did nothing. Finally the Shelby mayor arose and said: "I drove 200 miles to attend this meeting. For two hours we've done nothing. Let's do something or go home." Seemingly he expressed, with his frank statement, the mind of other municipal officials present, but the commission failed to do anything definite. What comely young miss about town is showing some interest in a minister's son? This hearts game (played with cards), and you should hear all the names that pesky black queen is called: The Key club held a hearts tourney this week and near 100 spectators looked on, showing that hearts may replace bridge as the most popular of card games. Squire Cling Eskridge, who served for years as coroner of Cleveland county, is still not absolutely certain that a couple of deaths investigated by him were suicides. A photo of a former Shelby teacher in a Junior League picture in The Asheville Citizen. First name Cornelia. Col. Grady, who operates the passenger plane in Shelby on week-ends, was a member of history's most famous air-fighting force, the Lafayette Escadrille. A 70-year-old man and a seven-year-old girl have been operated on for appendicitis at the Shelby hospital in recent weeks. Mrs. T. H. S. wishes Sam and other contributors would stop using initials; they worry her. Dick Gurley's kid brother is playing quarterback on Dick's football eleven at Newton. Is Newt of Newt's smoke and news shop, developing a romantic streak? A Shelbyite in his second wedding married the niece of his first wife. Governor O. Max Gardner will be on the radio Friday night over a New York station. He is one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the New York Southern Society. Another old home in Shelby just as it was years ago is the Beam residence, just beyond the Carolina theatre on South Lafayette street. Some of the fellows about town are reported to be getting in touch with Bob Reynolds about the postmastership, and we noticed several exhibiting unusual friendliness towards Senator Bailey. The latest desk-weight fad about town: a jaw-wagging skull from the five-and-ten where several charming young misses work. Carl Thompson never wastes any time, not even when he's motoring. Is it a right or left-foot shoe on the sign of Sellers shoe shop in front of the Courtview building? What Shelby native is the longest distance from home—Henry Kendall, Ikey Griffin, or who? We know a Shelby man who has been swimming in the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Gulf of Mexico, one of the Great Lakes and Brushy Creek. A dapper Shelby man once knew Ruth Elder (Camp) when she spent some of her romantic summers in the Hendersonville section. But he's married now and the name is withheld. What Shelby man, now around 50, loved one girl in his youth and has never married since? People who buy such magazines as True Romance seldom think about that about the town are many romantic stories just as appealing as those in fiction, and some that tug as tearfully at the heartstrings. By the way, who was your boyhood sweetheart, or your girlhood crush?

What comely young miss about town is showing some interest in a minister's son? This hearts game (played with cards), and you should hear all the names that pesky black queen is called: The Key club held a hearts tourney this week and near 100 spectators looked on, showing that hearts may replace bridge as the most popular of card games. Squire Cling Eskridge, who served for years as coroner of Cleveland county, is still not absolutely certain that a couple of deaths investigated by him were suicides. A photo of a former Shelby teacher in a Junior League picture in The Asheville Citizen. First name Cornelia. Col. Grady, who operates the passenger plane in Shelby on week-ends, was a member of history's most famous air-fighting force, the Lafayette Escadrille. A 70-year-old man and a seven-year-old girl have been operated on for appendicitis at the Shelby hospital in recent weeks. Mrs. T. H. S. wishes Sam and other contributors would stop using initials; they worry her. Dick Gurley's kid brother is playing quarterback on Dick's football eleven at Newton. Is Newt of Newt's smoke and news shop, developing a romantic streak? A Shelbyite in his second wedding married the niece of his first wife. Governor O. Max Gardner will be on the radio Friday night over a New York station. He is one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the New York Southern Society. Another old home in Shelby just as it was years ago is the Beam residence, just beyond the Carolina theatre on South Lafayette street. Some of the fellows about town are reported to be getting in touch with Bob Reynolds about the postmastership, and we noticed several exhibiting unusual friendliness towards Senator Bailey. The latest desk-weight fad about town: a jaw-wagging skull from the five-and-ten where several charming young misses work. Carl Thompson never wastes any time, not even when he's motoring. Is it a right or left-foot shoe on the sign of Sellers shoe shop in front of the Courtview building? What Shelby native is the longest distance from home—Henry Kendall, Ikey Griffin, or who? We know a Shelby man who has been swimming in the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Gulf of Mexico, one of the Great Lakes and Brushy Creek. A dapper Shelby man once knew Ruth Elder (Camp) when she spent some of her romantic summers in the Hendersonville section. But he's married now and the name is withheld. What Shelby man, now around 50, loved one girl in his youth and has never married since? People who buy such magazines as True Romance seldom think about that about the town are many romantic stories just as appealing as those in fiction, and some that tug as tearfully at the heartstrings. By the way, who was your boyhood sweetheart, or your girlhood crush?

What comely young miss about town is showing some interest in a minister's son? This hearts game (played with cards), and you should hear all the names that pesky black queen is called: The Key club held a hearts tourney this week and near 100 spectators looked on, showing that hearts may replace bridge as the most popular of card games. Squire Cling Eskridge, who served for years as coroner of Cleveland county, is still not absolutely certain that a couple of deaths investigated by him were suicides. A photo of a former Shelby teacher in a Junior League picture in The Asheville Citizen. First name Cornelia. Col. Grady, who operates the passenger plane in Shelby on week-ends, was a member of history's most famous air-fighting force, the Lafayette Escadrille. A 70-year-old man and a seven-year-old girl have been operated on for appendicitis at the Shelby hospital in recent weeks. Mrs. T. H. S. wishes Sam and other contributors would stop using initials; they worry her. Dick Gurley's kid brother is playing quarterback on Dick's football eleven at Newton. Is Newt of Newt's smoke and news shop, developing a romantic streak? A Shelbyite in his second wedding married the niece of his first wife. Governor O. Max Gardner will be on the radio Friday night over a New York station. He is one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the New York Southern Society. Another old home in Shelby just as it was years ago is the Beam residence, just beyond the Carolina theatre on South Lafayette street. Some of the fellows about town are reported to be getting in touch with Bob Reynolds about the postmastership, and we noticed several exhibiting unusual friendliness towards Senator Bailey. The latest desk-weight fad about town: a jaw-wagging skull from the five-and-ten where several charming young misses work. Carl Thompson never wastes any time, not even when he's motoring. Is it a right or left-foot shoe on the sign of Sellers shoe shop in front of the Courtview building? What Shelby native is the longest distance from home—Henry Kendall, Ikey Griffin, or who? We know a Shelby man who has been swimming in the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Gulf of Mexico, one of the Great Lakes and Brushy Creek. A dapper Shelby man once knew Ruth Elder (Camp) when she spent some of her romantic summers in the Hendersonville section. But he's married now and the name is withheld. What Shelby man, now around 50, loved one girl in his youth and has never married since? People who buy such magazines as True Romance seldom think about that about the town are many romantic stories just as appealing as those in fiction, and some that tug as tearfully at the heartstrings. By the way, who was your boyhood sweetheart, or your girlhood crush?

What comely young miss about town is showing some interest in a minister's son? This hearts game (played with cards), and you should hear all the names that pesky black queen is called: The Key club held a hearts tourney this week and near 100 spectators looked on, showing that hearts may replace bridge as the most popular of card games. Squire Cling Eskridge, who served for years as coroner of Cleveland county, is still not absolutely certain that a couple of deaths investigated by him were suicides. A photo of a former Shelby teacher in a Junior League picture in The Asheville Citizen. First name Cornelia. Col. Grady, who operates the passenger plane in Shelby on week-ends, was a member of history's most famous air-fighting force, the Lafayette Escadrille. A 70-year-old man and a seven-year-old girl have been operated on for appendicitis at the Shelby hospital in recent weeks. Mrs. T. H. S. wishes Sam and other contributors would stop using initials; they worry her. Dick Gurley's kid brother is playing quarterback on Dick's football eleven at Newton. Is Newt of Newt's smoke and news shop, developing a romantic streak? A Shelbyite in his second wedding married the niece of his first wife. Governor O. Max Gardner will be on the radio Friday night over a New York station. He is one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the New York Southern Society. Another old home in Shelby just as it was years ago is the Beam residence, just beyond the Carolina theatre on South Lafayette street. Some of the fellows about town are reported to be getting in touch with Bob Reynolds about the postmastership, and we noticed several exhibiting unusual friendliness towards Senator Bailey. The latest desk-weight fad about town: a jaw-wagging skull from the five-and-ten where several charming young misses work. Carl Thompson never wastes any time, not even when he's motoring. Is it a right or left-foot shoe on the sign of Sellers shoe shop in front of the Courtview building? What Shelby native is the longest distance from home—Henry Kendall, Ikey Griffin, or who? We know a Shelby man who has been swimming in the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Gulf of Mexico, one of the Great Lakes and Brushy Creek. A dapper Shelby man once knew Ruth Elder (Camp) when she spent some of her romantic summers in the Hendersonville section. But he's married now and the name is withheld. What Shelby man, now around 50, loved one girl in his youth and has never married since? People who buy such magazines as True Romance seldom think about that about the town are many romantic stories just as appealing as those in fiction, and some that tug as tearfully at the heartstrings. By the way, who was your boyhood sweetheart, or your girlhood crush?

What comely young miss about town is showing some interest in a minister's son? This hearts game (played with cards), and you should hear all the names that pesky black queen is called: The Key club held a hearts tourney this week and near 100 spectators looked on, showing that hearts may replace bridge as the most popular of card games. Squire Cling Eskridge, who served for years as coroner of Cleveland county, is still not absolutely certain that a couple of deaths investigated by him were suicides. A photo of a former Shelby teacher in a Junior League picture in The Asheville Citizen. First name Cornelia. Col. Grady, who operates the passenger plane in Shelby on week-ends, was a member of history's most famous air-fighting force, the Lafayette Escadrille. A 70-year-old man and a seven-year-old girl have been operated on for appendicitis at the Shelby hospital in recent weeks. Mrs. T. H. S. wishes Sam and other contributors would stop using initials; they worry her. Dick Gurley's kid brother is playing quarterback on Dick's football eleven at Newton. Is Newt of Newt's smoke and news shop, developing a romantic streak? A Shelbyite in his second wedding married the niece of his first wife. Governor O. Max Gardner will be on the radio Friday night over a New York station. He is one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the New York Southern Society. Another old home in Shelby just as it was years ago is the Beam residence, just beyond the Carolina theatre on South Lafayette street. Some of the fellows about town are reported to be getting in touch with Bob Reynolds about the postmastership, and we noticed several exhibiting unusual friendliness towards Senator Bailey. The latest desk-weight fad about town: a jaw-wagging skull from the five-and-ten where several charming young misses work. Carl Thompson never wastes any time, not even when he's motoring. Is it a right or left-foot shoe on the sign of Sellers shoe shop in front of the Courtview building? What Shelby native is the longest distance from home—Henry Kendall, Ikey Griffin, or who? We know a Shelby man who has been swimming in the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Gulf of Mexico, one of the Great Lakes and Brushy Creek. A dapper Shelby man once knew Ruth Elder (Camp) when she spent some of her romantic summers in the Hendersonville section. But he's married now and the name is withheld. What Shelby man, now around 50, loved one girl in his youth and has never married since? People who buy such magazines as True Romance seldom think about that about the town are many romantic stories just as appealing as those in fiction, and some that tug as tearfully at the heartstrings. By the way, who was your boyhood sweetheart, or your girlhood crush?

What comely young miss about town is showing some interest in a minister's son? This hearts game (played with cards), and you should hear all the names that pesky black queen is called: The Key club held a hearts tourney this week and near 100 spectators looked on, showing that hearts may replace bridge as the most popular of card games. Squire Cling Eskridge, who served for years as coroner of Cleveland county, is still not absolutely certain that a couple of deaths investigated by him were suicides. A photo of a former Shelby teacher in a Junior League picture in The Asheville Citizen. First name Cornelia. Col. Grady, who operates the passenger plane in Shelby on week-ends, was a member of history's most famous air-fighting force, the Lafayette Escadrille. A 70-year-old man and a seven-year-old girl have been operated on for appendicitis at the Shelby hospital in recent weeks. Mrs. T. H. S. wishes Sam and other contributors would stop using initials; they worry her. Dick Gurley's kid brother is playing quarterback on Dick's football eleven at Newton. Is Newt of Newt's smoke and news shop, developing a romantic streak? A Shelbyite in his second wedding married the niece of his first wife. Governor O. Max Gardner will be on the radio Friday night over a New York station. He is one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the New York Southern Society. Another old home in Shelby just as it was years ago is the Beam residence, just beyond the Carolina theatre on South Lafayette street. Some of the fellows about town are reported to be getting in touch with Bob Reynolds about the postmastership, and we noticed several exhibiting unusual friendliness towards Senator Bailey. The latest desk-weight fad about town: a jaw-wagging skull from the five-and-ten where several charming young misses work. Carl Thompson never wastes any time, not even when he's motoring. Is it a right or left-foot shoe on the sign of Sellers shoe shop in front of the Courtview building? What Shelby native is the longest distance from home—Henry Kendall, Ikey Griffin, or who? We know a Shelby man who has been swimming in the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Gulf of Mexico, one of the Great Lakes and Brushy Creek. A dapper Shelby man once knew Ruth Elder (Camp) when she spent some of her romantic summers in the Hendersonville section. But he's married now and the name is withheld. What Shelby man, now around 50, loved one girl in his youth and has never married since? People who buy such magazines as True Romance seldom think about that about the town are many romantic stories just as appealing as those in fiction, and some that tug as tearfully at the heartstrings. By the way, who was your boyhood sweetheart, or your girlhood crush?

What comely young miss about town is showing some interest in a minister's son? This hearts game (played with cards), and you should hear all the names that pesky black queen is called: The Key club held a hearts tourney this week and near 100 spectators looked on, showing that hearts may replace bridge as the most popular of card games. Squire Cling Eskridge, who served for years as coroner of Cleveland county, is still not absolutely certain that a couple of deaths investigated by him were suicides. A photo of a former Shelby teacher in a Junior League picture in The Asheville Citizen. First name Cornelia. Col. Grady, who operates the passenger plane in Shelby on week-ends, was a member of history's most famous air-fighting force, the Lafayette Escadrille. A 70-year-old man and a seven-year-old girl have been operated on for appendicitis at the Shelby hospital in recent weeks. Mrs. T. H. S. wishes Sam and other contributors would stop using initials; they worry her. Dick Gurley's kid brother is playing quarterback on Dick's football eleven at Newton. Is Newt of Newt's smoke and news shop, developing a romantic streak? A Shelbyite in his second wedding married the niece of his first wife. Governor O. Max Gardner will be on the radio Friday night over a New York station. He is one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the New York Southern Society. Another old home in Shelby just as it was years ago is the Beam residence, just beyond the Carolina theatre on South Lafayette street. Some of the fellows about town are reported to be getting in touch with Bob Reynolds about the postmastership, and we noticed several exhibiting unusual friendliness towards Senator Bailey. The latest desk-weight fad about town: a jaw-wagging skull from the five-and-ten where several charming young misses work. Carl Thompson never wastes any time, not even when he's motoring. Is it a right or left-foot shoe on the sign of Sellers shoe shop in front of the Courtview building? What Shelby native is the longest distance from home—Henry Kendall, Ikey Griffin, or who? We know a Shelby man who has been swimming in the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Gulf of Mexico, one of the Great Lakes and Brushy Creek. A dapper Shelby man once knew Ruth Elder (Camp) when she spent some of her romantic summers in the Hendersonville section. But he's married now and the name is withheld. What Shelby man, now around 50, loved one girl in his youth and has never married since? People who buy such magazines as True Romance seldom think about that about the town are many romantic stories just as appealing as those in fiction, and some that tug as tearfully at the heartstrings. By the way, who was your boyhood sweetheart, or your girlhood crush?

What comely young miss about town is showing some interest in a minister's son? This hearts game (played with cards), and you should hear all the names that pesky black queen is called: The Key club held a hearts tourney this week and near 100 spectators looked on, showing that hearts may replace bridge as the most popular of card games. Squire Cling Eskridge, who served for years as coroner of Cleveland county, is still not absolutely certain that a couple of deaths investigated by him were suicides. A photo of a former Shelby teacher in a Junior League picture in The Asheville Citizen. First name Cornelia. Col. Grady, who operates the passenger plane in Shelby on week-ends, was a member of history's most famous air-fighting force, the Lafayette Escadrille. A 70-year-old man and a seven-year-old girl have been operated on for appendicitis at the Shelby hospital in recent weeks. Mrs. T. H. S. wishes Sam and other contributors would stop using initials; they worry her. Dick Gurley's kid brother is playing quarterback on Dick's football eleven at Newton. Is Newt of Newt's smoke and news shop, developing a romantic streak? A Shelbyite in his second wedding married the niece of his first wife. Governor O. Max Gardner will be on the radio Friday night over a New York station. He is one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the New York Southern Society. Another old home in Shelby just as it was years ago is the Beam residence, just beyond the Carolina theatre on South Lafayette street. Some of the fellows about town are reported to be getting in touch with Bob Reynolds about the postmastership, and we noticed several exhibiting unusual friendliness towards Senator Bailey. The latest desk-weight fad about town: a jaw-wagging skull from the five-and-ten where several charming young misses work. Carl Thompson never wastes any time, not even when he's motoring. Is it a right or left-foot shoe on the sign of Sellers shoe shop in front of the Courtview building? What Shelby native is the longest distance from home—Henry Kendall, Ikey Griffin, or who? We know a Shelby man who has been swimming in the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Gulf of Mexico, one of the Great Lakes and Brushy Creek. A dapper Shelby man once knew Ruth Elder (Camp) when she spent some of her romantic summers in the Hendersonville section. But he's married now and the name is withheld. What Shelby man, now around 50, loved one girl in his youth and has never married since? People who buy such magazines as True Romance seldom think about that about the town are many romantic stories just as appealing as those in fiction, and some that tug as tearfully at the heartstrings. By the way, who was your boyhood sweetheart, or your girlhood crush?

What comely young miss about town is showing some interest in a minister's son? This hearts game (played with cards), and you should hear all the names that pesky black queen is called: The Key club held a hearts tourney this week and near 100 spectators looked on, showing that hearts may replace bridge as the most popular of card games. Squire Cling Eskridge, who served for years as coroner of Cleveland county, is still not absolutely certain that a couple of deaths investigated by him were suicides. A photo of a former Shelby teacher in a Junior League picture in The Asheville Citizen. First name Cornelia. Col. Grady, who operates the passenger plane in Shelby on week-ends, was a member of history's most famous air-fighting force, the Lafayette Escadrille. A 70-year-old man and a seven-year-old girl have been operated on for appendicitis at the Shelby hospital in recent weeks. Mrs. T. H. S. wishes Sam and other contributors would stop using initials; they worry her. Dick Gurley's kid brother is playing quarterback on Dick's football eleven at Newton. Is Newt of Newt's smoke and news shop, developing a romantic streak? A Shelbyite in his second wedding married the niece of his first wife. Governor O. Max Gardner will be on the radio Friday night over a New York station. He is one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the New York Southern Society. Another old home in Shelby just as it was years ago is the Beam residence, just beyond the Carolina theatre on South Lafayette street. Some of the fellows about town are reported to be getting in touch with Bob Reynolds about the postmastership, and we noticed several exhibiting unusual friendliness towards Senator Bailey. The latest desk-weight fad about town: a jaw-wagging skull from the five-and-ten where several charming young misses work. Carl Thompson never wastes any time, not even when he's motoring. Is it a right or left-foot shoe on the sign of Sellers shoe shop in front of the Courtview building? What Shelby native is the longest distance from home—Henry Kendall, Ikey Griffin, or who? We know a Shelby man who has been swimming in the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Gulf of Mexico, one of the Great Lakes and Brushy Creek. A dapper Shelby man once knew Ruth Elder (Camp) when she spent some of her romantic summers in the Hendersonville section. But he's married now and the name is withheld. What Shelby man, now around 50, loved one girl in his youth and has never married since? People who buy such magazines as True Romance seldom think about that about the town are many romantic stories just as appealing as those in fiction, and some that tug as tearfully at the heartstrings. By the way, who was your boyhood sweetheart, or your girlhood crush?

What comely young miss about town is showing some interest in a minister's son? This hearts game (played with cards), and you should hear all the names that pesky black queen is called: The Key club held a hearts tourney this week and near 100 spectators looked on, showing that hearts may replace bridge as the most popular of card games. Squire Cling Eskridge, who served for years as coroner of Cleveland county, is still not absolutely certain that a couple of deaths investigated by him were suicides. A photo of a former Shelby teacher in a Junior League picture in The Asheville Citizen. First name Cornelia. Col. Grady, who operates the passenger plane in Shelby on week-ends, was a member of history's most famous air-fighting force, the Lafayette Escadrille. A 70-year-old man and a seven-year-old girl have been operated on for appendicitis at the Shelby hospital in recent weeks. Mrs. T. H. S. wishes Sam and other contributors would stop using initials; they worry her. Dick Gurley's kid brother is playing quarterback on Dick's football eleven at Newton. Is Newt of Newt's smoke and news shop, developing a romantic streak? A Shelbyite in his second wedding married the niece of his first wife. Governor O. Max Gardner will be on the radio Friday night over a New York station. He is one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the New York Southern Society. Another old home in Shelby just as it was years ago is the Beam residence, just beyond the Carolina theatre on South Lafayette street. Some of the fellows about town are reported to be getting in touch with Bob Reynolds about the postmastership, and we noticed several exhibiting unusual friendliness towards Senator Bailey. The latest desk-weight fad about town: a jaw-wagging skull from the five-and-ten where several charming young misses work. Carl Thompson never wastes any time, not even when he's motoring. Is it a right or left-foot shoe on the sign of Sellers shoe shop in front of the Courtview building? What Shelby native is the longest distance from home—Henry Kendall, Ikey Griffin, or who? We know a Shelby man who has been swimming in the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Gulf of Mexico, one of the Great Lakes and Brushy Creek. A dapper Shelby man once knew Ruth Elder (Camp) when she spent some of her romantic summers in the Hendersonville section. But he's married now and the name is withheld. What Shelby man, now around 50, loved one girl in his youth and has never married since? People who buy such magazines as True Romance seldom think about that about the town are many romantic stories just as appealing as those in fiction, and some that tug as tearfully at the heartstrings. By the way, who was your boyhood sweetheart, or your girlhood crush?

What comely young miss about town is showing some interest in a minister's son? This hearts game (played with cards), and you should hear all the names that pesky black queen is called: The Key club held a hearts tourney this week and near 100 spectators looked on, showing that hearts may replace bridge as the most popular of card games. Squire Cling Eskridge, who served for years as coroner of Cleveland county, is still not absolutely certain that a couple of deaths investigated by him were suicides. A photo of a former Shelby teacher in a Junior League picture in The Asheville Citizen. First name Cornelia. Col. Grady, who operates the passenger plane in Shelby on week-ends, was a member of history's most famous air-fighting force, the Lafayette Escadrille. A 70-year-old man and a seven-year-old girl have been operated on for appendicitis at the Shelby hospital in recent weeks. Mrs. T. H. S. wishes Sam and other contributors would stop using initials; they worry her. Dick Gurley's kid brother is playing quarterback on Dick's football eleven at Newton. Is Newt of Newt's smoke and news shop, developing a romantic streak? A Shelbyite in his second wedding married the niece of his first wife. Governor O. Max Gardner will be on the radio Friday night over a New York station. He is one of the speakers at the annual dinner of the New York Southern Society. Another old home in Shelby just as it was years ago is the Beam residence, just beyond the Carolina theatre on South Lafayette street. Some of the fellows about town are reported to be getting in touch with Bob Reynolds about the postmastership, and we noticed several exhibiting unusual friendliness towards Senator Bailey. The latest desk-weight fad about town: a jaw-wagging skull from the five-and-ten where several charming young misses work. Carl Thompson never wastes any time, not even when he's motoring. Is it a right or left-foot shoe on the sign of Sellers shoe shop in front of the Courtview building? What Shelby native is the longest distance from home—Henry Kendall, Ikey Griffin, or who? We know a Shelby man who has been swimming in the Atlantic, the Pacific, the Gulf of Mexico, one of the Great Lakes and Brushy Creek. A dapper Shelby man once knew Ruth Elder (Camp) when she spent some of her romantic summers in the Hendersonville section. But he's married now and the name is withheld. What Shelby man, now around 50, loved one girl in his youth and has never married since? People who buy such magazines as True Romance seldom think about that about the town are many romantic stories just as appealing as those in fiction, and some that tug as tearfully at the heartstrings. By the way, who was your boyhood sweetheart, or your girlhood crush?

To Study Types Of Fertilizers For Sweet Potato Crop

Demonstration Has Been Planned With Various Formulas At Ellenboro.

Ellenboro, Oct. 20.—To study better methods of fertilizing and spacing sweet potatoes a field meeting of farmers will be held in the center of Ellenboro near the new sweet potato curing house, Saturday afternoon at the hour of two, October 22, when the results of a fertilizing and spacing test conducted cooperatively by the agricultural department of the school and Mr. T. M. Wright will be observed.

The demonstration has been planned last spring with the thought of showing farmers the best analysis to use on their sweet potatoes. Within the test sweet potatoes have been fertilized on the same type of soil with the following formulae: 10-4-10, 10-4-8, 10-4-4, 7-5-5, 8-5-8, 8-4-8 and a 0-5-10. Also a 10-4-6, 10-4-8, 10-4-10 and 10-4-20. Then the test will show the results from fertilizing with 6.810, and 20 percent potash with different amounts of ammonia. Potash has been tested at the different experimental stations as being a very important plant food element for the sweet potato, and it is expected that this test will show the farmers the best amount to use in the Ellenboro community.

Ellenboro sweet potato growers are especially urged to attend the meeting because their time will be well spent.

Autumn.

(By Nora Costner.)
Autumn time has come, the leaves are turning brown,
Red and golden yellow, make a carpet on the ground,
Take a stroll through wood-lands, it's a wondrous sight to see,
The handiwork of God in the magic of the trees.
Soon Jack Frost will come and nip the pumpkins and apples red,
Soon the frogs will find a place for their winter bed.
Moonlight and skies of blue and flowers of spring together,
Cannot rival for one hour autumn's beautiful weather.
Chestnut burrs are falling fast with out a sound of warning,
And leaves of muscadines and grapes shine like diamonds in the morning.
O, skies of June and flowers of spring with all your beauty to gether,
By whole cannot compare to October's beautiful weather.

Double Shoals News Of the Current Week

Small Crowd at Sunday School. Pastor Suttle Finishing Up 16 Years.

(Special to The Star.)
Double Shoals, Oct. 20.—Last Sunday saw the smallest crowd at Sunday school here in many months at the Baptist church only 40 were in Sunday school due to the heavy down pour of rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivey White of near Polkville spent the past week end with Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Cook.

Miss Mae Williams of Lawndale spent the week end with Miss Grace Toney.

Master Billie Cornwell is spending this week with his aunt Mrs. Paul Dixon and Mr. Dixon in New Bethel community.

Master Dover Toney son of Mr. and Mrs. Buck has been suffering from a sore leg and is under the care of a physician.

The regular monthly services will be held at the Baptist church Saturday and Sunday. Conference and preaching Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Sunday school at 1:45 p. m., Sunday and preaching at 3 o'clock. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Suttle will have charge of the services.

Perhaps no church in North Carolina has a better attendance at the Saturday conferences than the Baptist church here compared with the church membership. With a resident church membership of 126 the attendance at Saturday conferences average for last year 63 per month. If any church thinks this is not exceptionally good try it out for a year and see the results the total church membership is 173. The present pastor Rev. J. W. Suttle will have served 16 years in December this year. Pastor Suttle places special emphasis on the Saturday meetings and by so doing always gets the business side of the church out of the way of the Sunday services.

The regular weekly teachers meeting beginning with this week will be held at 7 o'clock each Thursday night, the meeting has been at 7:45 o'clock the short days making it necessary for the change.

Asheville Banker Is Paroled By Governor

Raleigh, Oct. 20.—C. J. Hawkins, Asheville banker who entered state's prison here last February 20 to serve a 15 to 24 months sentence for embezzlement and false entry, was released this afternoon upon parole by Governor Gardner.

Hawkins was a model prisoner, Warden H. H. Honeycutt said. He worked for a time in the prison office.

Where Death Won Auto Race

This graphic picture, taken less than 30 seconds after the crash at Seaside, Mass., race track, shows how the scorching heat of blazing gas kept rescuers from aiding a driver trapped in the flaming pyre. Seven cars were involved in the crash, but miraculously only one driver died. Five other drivers, two policemen and a civilian were injured. Note bystanders backing away from the intense heat.

Eton Village News Events

Two Deaths Reported. Revival Meeting Still On. Miss Hopper Has Operation.

(Special to The Star.)

Eton, Oct. 18.—A large number was present for Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. Excellent attendance was accounted for in preaching at which Rev. Hardin from Lincoln preached an inspiring sermon. His subject was "Hell."

Our church extends a cordial welcome to visitors especially this week to attend the revival that is being held here. Rev. Elbert Hardin of Lincoln is preaching and has been delivering many inspiring sermons.

We were very glad to have Rev. Henry Sisk to be in our church Monday night.

Mrs. Carey Harrill of Gaffney, S. C. visited Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Horner.

Mrs. J. D. Belch and little daughter, Bessie Lee, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Cline Sunday.

Mrs. W. E. Gantt and children, of Spindale visited Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Swezey Tuesday.

The many friends of Miss Ruby Hopper will be sorry to know she was taken to the Lincolnton hospital Monday where physicians operated on her jaw. A tooth was extracted and an abscess was found. She is resting better now since the operation was performed.

We wish to invite each and every one to attend the conference meeting Wednesday night. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. G. D. Harrill of Gaffney, S. C. spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Cash Seay.

We are sorry to have Master Hal Mabry on the sick list at this writing.

We are sorry to have Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Lazenby move from our community. We are glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Huskey move in the house that was vacated by them.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Barnett of Newland, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Barnett of Lowell, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Williams of Beams, Mt. Airy and Mr. and Mrs. Quay Wellmon of South Shelby attended the funeral of little Donnie Virginia Barnett Saturday.

Mr. Wilson Seay of Greenville, S. C. is visiting his brother, Mr. Cash Seay at this writing.

The Death Angel visited our community and saddened our hearts when he carried with him to the land of no eternal day, little Donnie Virginia Barnett, daughter of Mrs. Biddie Barnett and Mrs. H. E. Beattie. The many friends sympathize with the bereaved families.

Misses Annie Ruth Spivey, Margaret Alexander and Mildred Cobb accompanied by Mrs. Blaine Baker motored to Asheville Tuesday to a singing convention.

The many friends of Mrs. Lee Grigg will be glad to know she is better after having tonsillitis for the past week.

Sheriffs Not Held For Deputy Mistakes

Raleigh, Oct. 20.—Carolina industrial commission today held a sheriff was not responsible for injuries or deaths of deputies when the hazards to which they are exposed are not in any manner chargeable to the sheriff.

The opinion was made in two similar cases. In one Mrs. Lula Wilson sought compensation of the sheriff for the death of her husband who was killed while raiding a still in Burke county. In the other Mrs. Lily E. Kiser, of Cabarrus county, was the plaintiff.

Deputy sheriffs are employees of counties, the opinion held.

Upper Cleveland News Of Interest

Paul Morris Goes to Boston. Personal of People Visiting About.

(Special to The Star.)

Casar, R-1, Oct. 19.—There has been so much rain the people are behind with their cotton.

Mr. Paul Morris left Sunday for Boston, Mass., after spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Morris. He was accompanied by Lawton Self of the Clover Hill community.

The people of this community are gathering their corn and getting ready to sow their fall grain.

Mr. and Mrs. Lox Blankenship visited the latter's mother Mrs. A. A. Whisnant Sunday.

Little Oscar Daves, son of Posie Daves of Hopewell community was a visitor in the community Sunday.

Mr. Zero Mull spent the week end with his granddaughter Mrs. Annie Lackey of Cherryville.

Miss Marge Gantt spent several days with Misses Lucile and Maud Self.

Miss Pauline Whisnant spent Tuesday with her sister Mrs. John Whisnant.

Miss Maude Self spent Saturday night with Miss Beulah Hunt.

Several prominent football players have been drafted to aid in the political campaign here and there, probably on the theory that they have a pretty good line.

How To Avoid Stomach Gas

First thing—throw away your magnesia, soda, and all the other stuff like that.
Then eat what you like and don't worry whether you can digest it or not. For if you will simply take a tablespoonful of mentha pepsin (artificial stomach juice) before your meals, your once weak stomach can handle anything without a bit of trouble.

No more gas, fullness, pain, bloating—all are gone, says Cleveland Drug company, or you can have your money back.

MILLER-JONES