Many Mothers Are Given State Aid

Total of 1,148 Mothers, Most of Them Widows and 4,592 Children Helped.

Raleigh, Nov. 14.—A total of 1,148 mothers, most of them widows, representing 4,592 children, have been helped by funds from the state Mothers' Aid fund from the time it was set by the general assembly in 1923 to July 1932, according to figures given in the biennial report of the state board of charities and public welfare just issued.

For the past several years the general assembly has appropriated $50,000 a year to assist worthy and qualified mothers to rear their children in their own homes who otherwise would have to see the children placed in institutions and the families broken up. During the past two years 658 mothers with 2,632 children have received aid from this fund.
