A wedding marked by simplicity and charm and one which will be of interest to their many friends was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon, November 16, at 5:30 at the home of the bride's parents when Miss Faye Glasco became the bride of Mr. Albert McGinnis. Rev. D. F. Putnam, pastor of both bride and groom, officiated.

The vows were spoken in the living room before an improvised altar of banked fern, ivy and evergreens. Tall floor baskets, holding handsome white chrysanthemums, stood on either side of the altar. White candles were used on either side of the altar and placed about the room.

The bride was lovely in a costume of brown crepe with contrasting trimmings and harmonizing accessories. She carried an arm bouquet of chrysanthemums tied with tulle.

Mrs. McGinnis is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Glasco, is an attractive and popular member of the young set in her community, and is active in social and religious circles.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McGinnis and is a successful farmer of his section.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for an extended wedding trip through the South. Upon their return they will be entertained at a lovely meeting on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pansy Fetzer on S. LaFayette street with Mrs. Peltzer and Miss Elizabeth Roberts as joint hostesses.

County and municipal bonds increased slightly, from $4,497,198 to $4,880,198, while all other stocks and bonds increased from $10,413,519 to $11,154,491, the report shows.

As compared with the report of a year ago, the Sept. 30th statement is not so good, showing a decrease in resources from $253,897,478 to $207,701,291, and a decrease in numbers of banks from 251, including 80 branches, Deposits subject to check dropped from $76,000,000 to slightly less than $59,000,000. The peak in resources at the fall call was in 1929, when they reached $341,000,000, the present showing a drop of $123,000,000.

Industrial banks showed a slight decrease in resources in three months, from $15,828,587 to $15,259,663, while the number remained the same, 45 banks, including six branches. This is a big drop from the resources of $20,587,220 of 54 banks, including 13 branches, of a year ago, the report shows.

Not included in the above figures are total trust assets of $67,849,991 as of Sept. 30, 1932.

Raleigh, Nov. 18.—Indicative of an upturn in finances in North Carolina banks is the increase of more than $3,000,000 in deposits subject to check in the 296 State banks, including 80 branches, on September 30, last, as compared with deposits in 294 banks, including 78 branches, last June 30, the report of Commissioner of Banks Gurney P. Hood of the call of condition, shows.

Resources of the banks increased from $199,927,812 to $207,701,291 in the three months. Demand deposits due banks increased from $15,261,250 to $17,618,542, other deposits subject to check increased from $55,410,190 to $58,747,388, deposits due public officials increased from $16,764,992 to $19,108,114 and other deposits secured by pledge of assets increased from $2,215,442 to $8,712,619 the report shows. Savings deposits increased from $29,103,922 to $29,939,314, probably a seasonal increase in Christmas savings clubs. Time certificates of deposit increased from $17,583,055 to $18,131,684 in the three months.

United States bonds showed an increase in the three months of about two and a half millions, from $15,784,216 to $18,117,741, while North Carolina bonds showed a decrease from $12,080,227 to $10,991,741.
