

Arrest Man Over Gaston Explosion

Gastonia Police Announce George Johnson Is Held For Dynamiting Automobile.

Gastonia, July 12.—Local police this week announced that they had been notified of the arrest in Greenville, S. C., of George W. Johnson, wanted in connection with the dynamiting of an automobile in front of the home of C. D. Brice here June 6.

Johnson, they reported, was arrested and released on bond. No time has been fixed for his trial in municipal court here, but it will be fixed within a few days, they said. It was indicated Johnson would make no effort to resist extradition.

The dynamiting, which demolished a car in front of Brice's home three blocks from the police station at 1 a. m. June 6, shook uptown Gastonia for blocks around, shattered windows and glass doors, and caused general consternation in many homes in the neighborhood. The Brices told police they suspected Johnson. It is alleged he threatened to blow the car "all to hell" when the Brices refused to give him a mortgage on the car for a loan he is said to have advanced to finance a beauty parlor operated by Mrs. Johnson in West Gastonia.

Charges A Sale Tax For Changing Money

(Lincoln County News)

W. H. Boring, Register of Deeds for Lincoln County, tells a fast one on the new sales tax. He says that he dropped in Paul Heafner's store in Crouse and asked for change for fifty cents. Paul, genial and accommodating handed Mr. Boring 49 nine cents and when Mr. Boring asked him why the short-changing he replied that the one cent was sales tax and that it applied to anybody getting money changed. After putting the joke over so successfully on Mr. Boring Mr. Heafner tossed out the additional penny together with a good laugh.
