Mull Opposed To McNinch Position He Writes Bailey

Refers To Religious Campaign Of '28

Claims Charlotte Man Not Democrat Even In 1930. Should Not Get Office.

Frank R. McNinch, anti-Smith Democratic leader in North Carolina 1928, is not entitled as a Democrat to be chairman of the Federal power commission, an office to which he was appointed this week by President Roosevelt, according to Odus M. Mull, of Shelby, former State Democratic chairman.

Mr. Mull expressed this opinion in a letter written to Senator Josiah W. Bailey last night urging the Senator to oppose the confirmation of McNinch.

The Shelby man served as chairman in 1928 and in 1930 and states that he is in position to know how the former Charlotte mayor turned his efforts to leading North Carolina into the Republican column. The letter also criticizes McNinch for injecting and paramounting the religious issue in the Smith-Hoovor campaign "with horrible cartoons depicting unspeakable and untruthful practices alleged to have been engaged in by those of the Catholic

McNinch not only forsook the party in 1928 but did not vote for all its candidates in 1930. The incident cited was his support of Chas. A. Jonas, Republican, for Congress in-stead of Major A. L. Bulwinkle, the Democratic nominee
