

SHELBY OFFERS PUZZLER FOR BLUE EAGLE BOSS

A Shelby citizen has a puzzle, we hear, which he is hankering for Gen. Hugh Johnson, the NRA big shot, to solve for him. He puts the problem in this manner: "We understand, General, that you are urging all citizens to patronize only those places which are backing the NRA drive and are flying the Blue Eagle. Those of us in Shelby anxious to follow your advice would like to know how we can when we need postage stamps, water and lights and marriage licenses. You see, the Blue Eagle is not perched over the United States post office here, nor over the City Hall and the court house. Those are the only places we have to buy our stamps, our water and lights and our marriage licenses.

"Must we stop writing letters, using water and lights and quit getting married?"

A TRUCKLOAD OF BOKAYS TO THE BOYS

Today's bokays, everyone in the shop, we're giving to George Wray and "Red" Newman and the fellow down at the Cleveland club. They came across with the money necessary to purchase the wheel chair for the little crippled girl mentioned in this space.

Mrs. Harry Speck, at the welfare office, says that George and "Red" came in with the necessary $17.50 within a day after the appeal was made. And now the courageous little miss who must spend the remainder of her life in a chair will spend it in a comfortable chair, and one which can rove about and see a few things.

In fairness, it should be added that a half dozen or more other men visited the welfare office and offered to do their part but the South LaFayette street club asked that they be given the privilege of making the full donation.

"And," according to Mrs. Speck, if they could only know how happy that chair will make the unfortunate little youngster they would feel repaid over and over again."

ANOTHER APPEAL

Along comes another appeal. For a score of years it has been the ambition of nearly every Shelby boy to make the Shelby high football eleven. This year with no supplement for athletics it seemed as if a score of youngsters who had their heart set on toting the pigskin for the school were not to have that opportunity. They naturally got the blues, when they got together, talked it over, and followed that up by talking to some of their dads and friends.

Now they have a plan. Members of the Rotary club and other organizations have shown an interest in giving the boys a break, and, at the same time, in providing the air with some of the winter season's favorite sport. Coach Casey Morris, who turned down a coaching job to remain in Shelby and teach, will, the boys say, train the team if the youngsters can interest enough dads and citizens in getting up enough money to assure the expenses of equipment and such as that. Now the boys are out to turn the trick.

They're asking if Shelby high's football record, one of the most illustrious among the smaller schools of the state, is to go by the boards. They remind that Newton people made up enough money to see that Dick Gurley has a team there again this year, and the same thing happened at Gastonia, Charlotte and elsewhere. And they'll be seeing you.

SHELBY SHORTS

The majority of the professional men in and about Shelby are for repeal, it was indicated at the first meeting of the repeal organization here. . . . A Sunday baseball game was scheduled for Lawndale yesterday, but later called off. They were afraid the gate receipts might not be enough to settle with the law, although a large crowd was expected.

A rarity in Shelby these days is a person who hasn't been or isn't going to the World Fair. Just another wherein this corner classes as one of the town's oddities. . . . In bygone days telephones No. 1 and No. 2 in Shelby were located in adjoining buildings—at Wray's and the Riviere drug store. Now the Nash store and Sterchi's located next door to each other have the telephone numbers 593 and 592. "Are we still good at picking up little essentials like that? . . . W. J. Arey, in charge of the county horseshoe pitching championship contest at the Cleveland county fair next week thinks that the contest will be restricted to just the old-fashioned barnyard game with the hooty-tooty professional game eliminated. . . . The slot machines are gone, but these Marble-Jack shooting tables are all the go about town. High score gets the jackpot of nickels and it's a game of skill-plus luck. . . . When the depression has been licked the honors for being the best fellows through it all should go to the physicians of Shelby and the county. They've made scores and scores of calls knowing they would never get anything for it, but a sick lot couldn't be made to bear the burden of economic conditions. As a rule they are a gruff lot, these doctors, but that's due to the fact that they see more of the seamy side of life than anyone else and they never get the right amount of sleep and the regular meals they urge upon others. At heart, they're regular fellows. . . . Speaking of doctors, Dr. Dwight Bridges, the newly wed, is now one up on a fellow physician. They were operated on for appendicitis about the same time, underwent another operation together, and have done this, that and the other together, but as yet the county physician hasn't located his bride—or has he? . . . A week from tomorrow the big fair will be in full blast. B-I-N-G-O.

New Prospect News Of Current Week

Cotton Fields Are White—Personals Of People Visiting About.

New Prospect, Sept. 15.—The attendance in Sunday school last Sunday morning was off some from the average. The teachers had charge of the devotional exercise and rendered an interesting program.

Mr. Zeno Hord has been re-elected superintendent of the Sunday school.

The cotton fields are very pretty and are well occupied by cotton pickers. Cotton is opening very fast during these hot days. Most every body is through pulling fodder now.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wright of near Kings Mountain visited Mrs. Wright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus M. Grigg, during the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Howell spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Zone Anthony and Mrs. Margaret Anthony of near North Brook No. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius F. Howell spent Sunday with relatives in Lincoln county.

Mrs. Alonzo Grigg and daughters, Betty Sue and Kathleen, visited Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Grigg Sunday afternoon.

Charge Rioters With Murder Now

Baton Rouge, La., Sept. 14.—With the death list resulting from last Sunday's Angola penal farm riot standing at seven, prison officials formally charged eight of the surviving rioters, including five still at large, with murder.

In addition, Eunice McDine, also known as Marian Russell of New Orleans, common law wife of one of the mutineers, who confessed that she smuggled a pistol into the prison two months ago, was charged as an accessory to murder, a capital offense. Her husband, James A. Russell of Akron, Ohio, who was serving time for a New Orleans bank robbery, was among three fugitives killed near Marksville after a three day pursuit by posemen.

Rioted at Game
Four men, including the camp captain, John A. Singleton, two guards and a convict, lost their lives in the shooting which attended the Sunday riot during a prison camp baseball game.

Of the eight prisoners charged with murder today three are held in prison here since their recapture near Marksville. One other is believed to be hiding in central Louisiana swamp country, and four others were thought to have fled into southwest Texas after a series of abductions and car thefts. Search for the missing men continued today.

The charges were filed by R. L. Himes, state prison manager, who indicated speedy trials would be sought.

The body of Russell, slain in a cotton field with two companions, was sent to Akron at the request of relatives. The bodies of John Anderson of Toledo, Ohio, and Patrick J. Ryan of New Orleans, who died with him, were held pending relatives' instructions.
