

THE MARKETS
Cotton, spot 9.50 to 10.25
Cotton seed, ton, wagon 12.00
Cotton seed, ton, carlots 14.00

Fair Thursday
Today's North Carolina Weather Report: Fair and slightly warmer in central and west portions tonight and Thursday.

Repeal Sweeps Florida
By UNITED PRESS
Tallahassee, Fla., Oct. 11.—Repealists gained a commanding lead in the early count of votes last night in Florida's referendum on repeal of the 18th amendment.

Mrs. J. F. Roberts Passes Suddenly; Funeral Thursday
Prominent Woman Succumbs To Attack Of Angina. Loyal Church Member.
Shelby people were shocked this morning to hear of the death of Mrs. Bessie Cabaniss Roberts, wife of Capt. J. F. Roberts, who died last night at 10 o'clock at her home on S. Washington street following an attack of angina which came upon her suddenly Monday morning.

Commandery Will Install Officers On Friday Night
Grand Commander For State Com-ing. Grigg New Head Of Knights.
New officers of Shelby Commandery, No. 36 K. T., will be installed at a meeting Friday night at 7 o'clock at the commandery room of the Masonic Temple.

Begin Storing Of New Potato Crop; Said To Be Short
Twenty-Six Storage Houses Start Opening This Week. Season Bad.
Sweet potato storage houses over Cleveland county began opening this week for the storage of the county's new potato crop now being taken from the ground.

Shelby High Will Play On Thursday
Meet Forest City There In Locals Third Game Of Season.
The Shelby highs, coached by Zeno Wall, Jr., will play their third football game of the season tomorrow, Thursday, afternoon at Forest City where they meet their old rivals, the Forest City eleven.

Three Youths Pick 1,100 Lbs. Cotton In One Day's Work
This is the season of the year when cotton picking records are made and broken in Cleveland county of North Carolina and producer of champion cotton pickers. Doc Carson, colored, who lives on the farm of J. Lawrence Lackey just east of Shelby, has three children, two boys and a girl, ranging in age from fourteen to nineteen, who bid fair to be a right smart help around the place when they grow up, the three having picked eleven hundred pounds of cotton in one day this week.

The Cleveland Star

VOL. XXXIX, No. 122 SHELBY, N. C. WEDNESDAY OCT. 11, 1933 Published Monday, Wednesday and Friday Afternoons.

County Tax For Year $83,000 Under 1932

Levy Is $179,415 For Year
Reduction Due To Valuation Cut And Removal Of School Tax.
Citizens of Cleveland county will pay $83,208.47 less tax to the county this year, 1933, than they paid last year.

One Jury Day Each Month For County Recorder's Court
Hereafter there will be only one "jury day" per month in the Cleveland county recorder's court, Recorder Joe M. Wright and Solicitor C. C. Horn announced today.
Heretofore there has been a "jury day" one day each week, but in this manner the number of jurors available each two years are exhausted.

City Gets Books For 1933 Taxes
Two Per Cent Discount Is Allowed For Payment This Month, Says Miss Forney.
The city 1933 tax books are ready and were turned over last night by O. M. Suttle to the treasurer's office. Mr. Suttle has been busy since the tax returns were made out, calculating the taxes and making out receipts.

Postal Receipts Show Gain Third Quarter In City
Gain For Three Quarters Over Same Period 1932 Is Over $1,800.
Postal receipts at the Shelby office continued to gain in the third quarter of this year over the corresponding quarter of last year, it was learned today from Postmaster J. H. Quinn.

So. Shelby P. T. A. To Meet Thursday
First Meeting Of The Year. Prize To Grade Having Largest Number Of Parents.
The South Shelby P. T. A. will hold its initial fall meeting Thursday evening Oct. 12th at 7:30 in the school auditorium. Mr. Marvin Blanton, president of the association will preside.

Job Office Given Call For Workers
Re-Employment Bureau Asked For 25 Hosiery Workers. Have Others.
The Federal Re-employment office in Shelby has a call for 25 experienced hosiery workers, it was announced at the office today. Those experienced in that line are asked to get in touch with the bureau which has already located jobs for several hundred unemployed.

Cleveland Negro Fair Open Today With Good Attendance, Exhibits
Around 1,000 At Fair Early This Afternoon. Best Exhibits Ever.
The Cleveland County Negro fair opened here this morning for its annual four-day exposition.
Just after noon today it was stated at the fair grounds that approximately 1,000 people had passed through the gates and a considerably larger crowd was expected later in the afternoon and tonight.

Ask Yourself About Our State
Answers On Page Two
1. How many automobiles are there in the state?
2. How many rural mail routes are there in North Carolina?
3. What is North Carolina's frontage on the Atlantic ocean?
4. Where was the first rural free delivery mail route established in the state?
5. How many men did North Carolina furnish for service during the World War?
6. In what city was the first church orphanage in the state established?
7. Which is the most western county in the state?
8. How many persons in North Carolina are 75 years of age or over?
9. How many members of the North Carolina General Assembly?
10. How much revenue in income taxes was paid the state last year?
11. When was the University of North Carolina chartered?
12. How much did the state get last year from the gas tax revenue?

College Elevens Clash In Shelby Friday At 3:30

Boiling Springs To Play Presbyterian Juniors. Expect Tough Game.
Shelby's second college football game of the season is booked for the city park here Friday afternoon when the Boiling Springs Bulldogs clash with the Presbyterian junior college eleven.
The Boiling Springs collegians, fresh from a victory last week over the strong Campbell college team, are hoping to continue their winning streak in a determined fight to capture the junior college title for North Carolina.

List Cleveland As Battleground
This County, Mecklenburg, Gaston Estimated For Close Battle.
(Special To The Star)
Washington, Oct. 11.—That section of Piedmont North Carolina embracing Mecklenburg, Gaston, Cleveland and Iredell counties is considered here as the central battleground of the repeal fight in North Carolina as attention is turned toward the election to be held in the Tar Heel State on November 7.

Former Shelby Man Now Rabbit Rancher In Washington State
Kelly DePriest Makes First Visit In 17 Years. Grows Rabbit Wool.
A former Shelbyite, J. Kelly DePriest, is now America's biggest Angora rabbit rancher, owning and operating his big Angora farm at Bellingham, Wash., where he is also interested now in completing a manufacturing plant which will transform the Angora wool into woolen products.

Cleveland To Get NRA Highway Work
County Among Those Listed For Road Projects Under Federal Program.
SHELBY-B. SPRINGS ROAD
By wire to The Star from Raleigh it is learned that the road from Highway No. 18 at Zoar church through Sharon to Boiling Springs is submitted to Washington for approval. Structures and gravel surfacing are proposed in the contract.

Vance Turlington To Speak At Kings Mt.
Hon. Zeb Vance Turlington, of Mooresville, will speak at Kings Mountain Sunday afternoon, October 15th, under the auspices of the Kings Mountain United Dry Forces of North Carolina.
Mr. Turlington is the author of the act which bears his name and which was put into the statutes of North Carolina in 1908 making this a dry state.

Suttles To Leave For Columbia, S. C.
Oscar M. Suttle, well known Shelby citizen for a number of years connected with tax affairs of both city and county, has accepted a position with the legal department of the Federal Land Bank of Columbia, S. C.
Mr. and Mrs. Suttle will leave Shelby Friday for Columbia where they will make their home for the time being.

Postal Receipts Show Gain Third Quarter In City
Gain For Three Quarters Over Same Period 1932 Is Over $1,800.
Postal receipts at the Shelby office continued to gain in the third quarter of this year over the corresponding quarter of last year, it was learned today from Postmaster J. H. Quinn.

Job Office Given Call For Workers
Re-Employment Bureau Asked For 25 Hosiery Workers. Have Others.
The Federal Re-employment office in Shelby has a call for 25 experienced hosiery workers, it was announced at the office today. Those experienced in that line are asked to get in touch with the bureau which has already located jobs for several hundred unemployed.

Cleveland Negro Fair Open Today With Good Attendance, Exhibits
Around 1,000 At Fair Early This Afternoon. Best Exhibits Ever.
The Cleveland County Negro fair opened here this morning for its annual four-day exposition.
Just after noon today it was stated at the fair grounds that approximately 1,000 people had passed through the gates and a considerably larger crowd was expected later in the afternoon and tonight.

Ask Yourself About Our State
Answers On Page Two
1. How many automobiles are there in the state?
2. How many rural mail routes are there in North Carolina?
3. What is North Carolina's frontage on the Atlantic ocean?
4. Where was the first rural free delivery mail route established in the state?
5. How many men did North Carolina furnish for service during the World War?
6. In what city was the first church orphanage in the state established?
7. Which is the most western county in the state?
8. How many persons in North Carolina are 75 years of age or over?
9. How many members of the North Carolina General Assembly?
10. How much revenue in income taxes was paid the state last year?
11. When was the University of North Carolina chartered?
12. How much did the state get last year from the gas tax revenue?

Nation's Best Amateur Fliers

William Zelzer, of New York, and Mrs. Cecil W. Kenyon, of Waban, Mass., with the trophies they won as foremost non-professional fliers in the United States at the National Charity Air Pageant, staged at Roosevelt Field, New York, recently. In addition to the trophies, the amateur pilots each won a cash prize of $5,000.

Former Shelby Man Now Rabbit Rancher In Washington State

Kelly DePriest Makes First Visit In 17 Years. Grows Rabbit Wool.
A former Shelbyite, J. Kelly DePriest, is now America's biggest Angora rabbit rancher, owning and operating his big Angora farm at Bellingham, Wash., where he is also interested now in completing a manufacturing plant which will transform the Angora wool into woolen products.

Cleveland To Get NRA Highway Work

County Among Those Listed For Road Projects Under Federal Program.
SHELBY-B. SPRINGS ROAD
By wire to The Star from Raleigh it is learned that the road from Highway No. 18 at Zoar church through Sharon to Boiling Springs is submitted to Washington for approval. Structures and gravel surfacing are proposed in the contract.

Vance Turlington To Speak At Kings Mt.

Hon. Zeb Vance Turlington, of Mooresville, will speak at Kings Mountain Sunday afternoon, October 15th, under the auspices of the Kings Mountain United Dry Forces of North Carolina.
Mr. Turlington is the author of the act which bears his name and which was put into the statutes of North Carolina in 1908 making this a dry state.

Suttles To Leave For Columbia, S. C.

Oscar M. Suttle, well known Shelby citizen for a number of years connected with tax affairs of both city and county, has accepted a position with the legal department of the Federal Land Bank of Columbia, S. C.
Mr. and Mrs. Suttle will leave Shelby Friday for Columbia where they will make their home for the time being.

Postal Receipts Show Gain Third Quarter In City

Gain For Three Quarters Over Same Period 1932 Is Over $1,800.
Postal receipts at the Shelby office continued to gain in the third quarter of this year over the corresponding quarter of last year, it was learned today from Postmaster J. H. Quinn.

Job Office Given Call For Workers

Re-Employment Bureau Asked For 25 Hosiery Workers. Have Others.
The Federal Re-employment office in Shelby has a call for 25 experienced hosiery workers, it was announced at the office today. Those experienced in that line are asked to get in touch with the bureau which has already located jobs for several hundred unemployed.

Cleveland Negro Fair Open Today With Good Attendance, Exhibits

Around 1,000 At Fair Early This Afternoon. Best Exhibits Ever.
The Cleveland County Negro fair opened here this morning for its annual four-day exposition.
Just after noon today it was stated at the fair grounds that approximately 1,000 people had passed through the gates and a considerably larger crowd was expected later in the afternoon and tonight.

Ask Yourself About Our State

Answers On Page Two
1. How many automobiles are there in the state?
2. How many rural mail routes are there in North Carolina?
3. What is North Carolina's frontage on the Atlantic ocean?
4. Where was the first rural free delivery mail route established in the state?
5. How many men did North Carolina furnish for service during the World War?
6. In what city was the first church orphanage in the state established?
7. Which is the most western county in the state?
8. How many persons in North Carolina are 75 years of age or over?
9. How many members of the North Carolina General Assembly?
10. How much revenue in income taxes was paid the state last year?
11. When was the University of North Carolina chartered?
12. How much did the state get last year from the gas tax revenue?

Cotton Coin Now Flows In County; 352 More Checks

Total Of $120,000 Already Here
Two-Third Of $177,000 Coming To Farmers Now In Options Come Later.
Cotton plowed up during the summer by Cleveland county farmers is coming back to them almost daily now in checks from the federal government.

Postal Men Meet At Grover Church; Mr. Grigg Speaks
County Superintendent Of Schools Is Principal Speaker. Meets Next January.
A regular quarterly meeting of the Cleveland county service council of the post office department convened on Tuesday evening, October 10th in the dining room of the Baptist church, at Grover, this being the fourth time that the organization has convened at Grover since its organization.

Postal Men Meet At Grover Church; Mr. Grigg Speaks

County Superintendent Of Schools Is Principal Speaker. Meets Next January.
A regular quarterly meeting of the Cleveland county service council of the post office department convened on Tuesday evening, October 10th in the dining room of the Baptist church, at Grover, this being the fourth time that the organization has convened at Grover since its organization.

Singing Feast In W. Shelby Sunday

There will be a singing convention at the West Graham street school building beginning at 1 o'clock Sunday, Oct. 15th, according to an announcement by J. C. Bridges, director of the singing convention. He is expecting singers to report at 1 o'clock so the singing can begin promptly at 2 o'clock. Quartets are expected from Lawndale, Lily Mill, West Shelby No. 1, West Shelby No. 2, Sinal, Eastside and other quartets and duets, solos and choruses. Lovers of music are cordially invited.

Nothing New On New Post Office

There are no new developments in connection with Shelby's proposed new, or enlarged, post office. A week or two ago orders were received here to notify occupants of the Hoey building, to the rear of the present office and purchased for additional space, to vacate within 30 days. This was interpreted as warning that something would happen soon. So far, however, no other orders have arrived, and it is not known whether the first order meant that the purchased building would be torn down or might be used as temporary quarters while the present office is being enlarged.

J. D. Lineberger And Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey Head Red Cross Roll Call

Whole Time Health Nurse Is Assured If Response Is Satisfactory.
J. D. Lineberger was elected chairman and Mrs. Clyde R. Hoey vice chairman for the annual Red Cross roll call which will be county-wide in Cleveland on Armistice day, November 11th.
The organization was perfected last night in a meeting with Mrs. Sprinkle, national representative of the Red Cross. The meeting was a most satisfactory one and indications are that the roll call will be the most fruitful every had in the county. At an early date, a goal will be set, sufficiently high to provide a whole-time Red Cross health nurse for the county, part of the support to be provided from another fund that will not be a burden on any local citizens.

No. Three School Will Open Monday

Professor Lawton Blanton announces that the Number Three township school will reopen Monday, October 16, the schools having been closed for the past six weeks during the cotton picking season.

Tiddy Opens New Feed Store Here

Miles Tiddy, well known Shelby business man, this week opened a new feed store in the Ellis building on West Marion street. In his new location Mr. Tiddy will do a wholesale and retail business in dairy and other feeds.

Three Youths Pick 1,100 Lbs. Cotton In One Day's Work

This is the season of the year when cotton picking records are made and broken in Cleveland county of North Carolina and producer of champion cotton pickers. Doc Carson, colored, who lives on the farm of J. Lawrence Lackey just east of Shelby, has three children, two boys and a girl, ranging in age from fourteen to nineteen, who bid fair to be a right smart help around the place when they grow up, the three having picked eleven hundred pounds of cotton in one day this week.

Ask Yourself About Our State

Answers On Page Two
1. How many automobiles are there in the state?
2. How many rural mail routes are there in North Carolina?
3. What is North Carolina's frontage on the Atlantic ocean?
4. Where was the first rural free delivery mail route established in the state?
5. How many men did North Carolina furnish for service during the World War?
6. In what city was the first church orphanage in the state established?
7. Which is the most western county in the state?
8. How many persons in North Carolina are 75 years of age or over?
9. How many members of the North Carolina General Assembly?
10. How much revenue in income taxes was paid the state last year?
11. When was the University of North Carolina chartered?
12. How much did the state get last year from the gas tax revenue?

Cleveland Negro Fair Open Today With Good Attendance, Exhibits

Around 1,000 At Fair Early This Afternoon. Best Exhibits Ever.
The Cleveland County Negro fair opened here this morning for its annual four-day exposition.
Just after noon today it was stated at the fair grounds that approximately 1,000 people had passed through the gates and a considerably larger crowd was expected later in the afternoon and tonight.

Job Office Given Call For Workers

Re-Employment Bureau Asked For 25 Hosiery Workers. Have Others.
The Federal Re-employment office in Shelby has a call for 25 experienced hosiery workers, it was announced at the office today. Those experienced in that line are asked to get in touch with the bureau which has already located jobs for several hundred unemployed.

Postal Receipts Show Gain Third Quarter In City

Gain For Three Quarters Over Same Period 1932 Is Over $1,800.
Postal receipts at the Shelby office continued to gain in the third quarter of this year over the corresponding quarter of last year, it was learned today from Postmaster J. H. Quinn.