

SOCIETY

NEWS.....

Mrs. Mamie Roberts Thompson, Editor

Mrs. Thompson may be reached each morning at The Star office over Telephone No. 4-J. At other times at her home Telephone No. 256-J.

Chicago Club

Friday.
The Chicago club will meet with Mrs. L. P. Holland Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at her home on N. LaFayette street.

Bridge Tea

Friday.
Mrs. Frank Hoy will be hostess at the bridge tea Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the golf club house.

S. Washington

Bridge Club.
Mrs. Frank Hoy will be hostess to the S. Washington bridge club Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at her home at Seven Gables.

Evening Division Of Woman's Club

The evening division of the Woman's club will meet at the home of Miss Lucile Nix, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, with Miss Nix and Miss Ella McNichols joint hostesses.

P. T. A. At Washington School

The November P. T. A. meeting of Washington school will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Miss Ethel Thomas will speak on American Education. All patrons and friends are urged to attend.

Holly Grove School Play

The Junior order of Holly Grove school and community will present a play "Safety First" on Thursday night at 7 o'clock at No. 3 High school, Holly Grove for the benefit of the Junior order and school. There will be a good string band.

Miss Blanton Entertains

On last Wednesday evening November 1st, Mrs. Cliff Blanton delightfully entertained about 30 young people of the community with a birthday party honoring her daughter, Miss Vertie Lee Blanton on her birthday anniversary. Games and progressive dates were enjoyed after which Mrs. Blanton was assisted by Mesdames Doris Blanton and Tom Cabaniss, Jr., in serving delicious refreshments. Miss Vertie Lee received many pretty gifts.

Mrs. Beam Entertains Bridge Club

Mrs. Grover Beam graciously entertained the Entres Nous Bridge club members and a few invited guests Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at her home on Sumner St. Pretty fall flowers were used in the sun parlor and living room. Conversation was played for several progresses at the close of which Mrs. R. M. Laughridge was found to hold the highest score and Mrs. Ed. Milligan was presented with the prize for invited guests.

Mrs. Beam was assisted by Mesdames Wilbur Baber and Will King in serving a delicious salad and sweet course.

Shelby Mill Woman's Club Meets

The first division of the Shelby mill woman's club held their regular meeting Friday evening November 3, in the club house dining room. The regular club rooms being redecorated. The president Mrs. W. A. Abernathy presiding, under the direction of Miss Margaret Anthony. A menu was planned for the 55 members of the Textile club which the woman's club was to serve Saturday evening.

During the social half hour, Mrs. Will Harris assisted by Mesdames L. A. Morrison and Walter Slat served light refreshments.

Mrs. Nash Hostess To Club

Mrs. Joe Nash delightfully entertained the Renaissance Study club members Tuesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock at her home at Cleveland Springs which was prettily arranged with chrysanthemums and marigolds.

Interesting current events were given by Mesdames Henry Edwards Lloyd Lutz and Connelly Eskridge. Mrs. H. S. Plaster closed the program with an entertaining paper on "The Opera." Mesdames Edwards and Chas. Burrus assisted Mrs. Nash in serving coffee and cake.

Honored Kale Is Announced On Birthday

On Saturday afternoon November 4th, Mrs. Roy Kale of 111 Mill St. honored her small daughter Juanita with a party celebrating her seventh birthday. After playing several games in the yard the small guests played a number of Halloween games in the house. They were then invited into the dining room, where they gathered around the table which was centered with the white birthday cake with seven pink candles. And were served with pink lemonade and cakes. About 12 children were invited. Mrs. S. A. McKee assisted Mrs. Kale in entertaining.

East Shelby Club Meet

The East Shelby Woman's club held its regular meeting Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the club room of Jefferson school. The president Mrs. H. E. Waldrop read the "Collect" and the woman's club hymn was sung. The subject of study was "Home Decoration." Mrs. Glen White read a very interesting paper on "Arrangements of the Furniture in the Living Rooms." Miss Margaret Anthony made a talk on pictures, ornaments and linens for the living room. Two new members were enrolled: Mesdames Newton and J. S. Scruggs. During the social half hour, Mesdames Glen White, Pierson, Thompson and Broadus Starnes served a delicious sweet course.

Jeanette Wilson Birthday Party

Mrs. Hugh Miller Jr., honored her little niece, Jeanette Wilson with a party on Monday afternoon at 3:30 in celebration of her fifth birthday anniversary, entertaining at the home of her mother, Mrs. L. U. Arrowood on W. Marion street. Mesdames L. U. Arrowood and E. W. Wilson, grandmothers of the honoree, told the little folks stories. Misses Caroline Mabry and Martha Arrowood also assisted in entertaining the children with different games. A color note of pink and white was carried out in the decorations, and ice cream and candies served by the hostess. Each of the little guests was given different colored balloons for souvenirs. Jeanette was delighted with the numerous gifts and toys received.

Mary Lee Hudson Circle Meets

The Mary Lee Hudson circle met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Whitlock on East Marion street with 17 members and two visitors present. Mrs. T. A. Spangler, chairman, presided. With Mrs. Willard at the piano the group sang "What a Friend We Have In Jesus." The subject for discussion was "Social Movements In Japan." Mrs. Spangler and Mrs. New each read an interesting paper on the subject.

Following the devotion and discussion the minutes of last meeting were read and approved, dues paid and local collection taken.

Y. W. A. Meeting

The Y. W. A. of the First Baptist church was delightfully entertained on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. P. Benton on S. DeKalb street with Misses Grace Gaddy and Mildred Boyles joint hostesses. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Mrs. Robert Doggett. After the roll call and minutes were given the following were elected as the nominating committee: Misses Joyce Wilson, Jennie Lee Packard and Mrs. Newman McEntire.

Mrs. Raymond Carroll had charge of a very important program on "Money" and those contributing to this subject were: Misses Flossie Grice, Joyce Wilson, Ruby Francis, Mae Lattimore, Mary Tedder, Marguerite Wall, Nita Benton, Mary Lucas, Kathleen Davis and Montrose Mull. During the social half hour, the hostesses were assisted by Miss Nita Benton in serving a salad course.

Runyan-Davidson Wedding

A wedding of interest to a large circle of friends was that of Miss Ruth Runyans and Mr. Dan Davidson, which took place at the home of Rev. J. L. Jenkins at Bolling Springs on Sunday afternoon Nov. 5th at 2 o'clock. The impressive ceremony was witnessed by Miss Ozell Bradley and Mr. Giles Shytle, close friends of the young couple. The bride wore a navy ensemble with navy accessories. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Davidson left for a motor trip through Tennessee and Kentucky and upon their return they will make their home with the bride's mother.

Mrs. Davidson is the daughter of Mrs. Mayme Runyan of Earl and has many friends in Cleveland county. Mr. Davidson is a son of Mr. J. R. Davidson also of Earl and is a promising young business man of that community.

D. A. R. Meeting

Eighteen members of the Daughters of the American Revolution chapter responded to the roll call in the regular November meeting, which was held yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Cleveland hotel, with Mesdames Ceph Blanton and S. S. Royster joint hostesses. Lovely pink and red radiance roses adorned the piano and tables. Captain B. L. Smith made a very interesting and instructive talk on "Educating for Citizenship." Mrs. J. H. Quinn, the regent, presided and following the minutes of the last meeting, Miss Burton Gettys was voted as a new member. The D. A. R. magazine subscription was renewed to the Shelby library. It was voted to make the yearly dues three dollars, the dues being collected for the year. Mrs. W. H. Jennings, the treasurer, gave the financial report. Mrs. Quinn read several letters, which were acted upon. At the close of the meeting, the hostesses served a salad and sweet course.

Business Woman's Circle Of M. E. Church

The business woman's circle of Central Methodist church will meet Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the church with Mesdames Robert Agnew, P. L. Hennessy and Miss Zula Allen, joint hostesses.

American Legion Auxiliary

The American Legion auxiliary will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Irma Hamrick, with Mesdames Basil Goode, Daisy DeBerry of Lattimore and John Honeycutt assisting hostesses. All members are urged to be present.

Dorcas Class Meeting

The home of Mrs. L. V. Hoyle on Broad street was arranged with lovely fall flowers on Tuesday evening when the Dorcas class of the Second Baptist church held their regular monthly meeting. Following the business session, a social hour was enjoyed, games and contests were enjoyed and Mrs. Hoyle was assisted by Misses Mary Sue Hill and Lottie Wells in serving a delicious salad and sweet course.

Renaissance Study Club

Mrs. Mason Carroll was cordial hostess to the members of the Renaissance Study club Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at her apartment on Graham street. Mrs. Claude Smith gave a very interesting paper on "The Barrymores" and Mrs. Aaron Quinn gave a review of the "Outstanding Figures of the Present Day Theatre." Current events were given by Mrs. Frank Kendall. During the social half hour the hostess was assisted by Mrs. Aaron Quinn in serving a delicious salad course.

Miss Turner And Mrs. Washburn Entertain

Miss Bessie Turner and sister, Mrs. Chas. Washburn delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Washburn on Morgan street with three tables of heart dice.

The living room and dining room were beautifully arranged with chrysanthemums and marigolds. Thanksgiving tallies and suggestions were used.

Mrs. Franklin Harry, a recent bride of Grover was presented with an honor gift and Miss Elizabeth Denby of Grover was winner of the high score prize in the games. At the close of the play the hostesses served a tempting chicken salad course with accessories.

Mrs. Abernathy Hostess To Mothers Club

The members of the Mothers club were delightfully entertained in their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Mrs. Tom Abernathy at her hospitable home on S. DeKalb street which was decorated with mixed fall flowers. Mrs. D. R. Yates, the president, presided and after a short business session, Mrs. B. M. Jarrett had charge of the program, the subject of discussion being on "Sex Problems" and papers on this subject were read by Mesdames Fred Baber and Roland Elam. Little Billy Crowder, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Crowder gave two short readings.

Miss Bostic Entertains Music Pupils

On last Saturday afternoon, Miss Bertina Bostic entertained her music pupils of Shelby and Lattimore with a delightful social at the home of Mrs. A. H. Morgan on W. Warren street, with Mrs. Morgan and her talented daughter, Ruby, assisting. After several get-acquainted games and contests, during which each pupil recited some quotation on music, a short number "The Little Drummer Boy" perfectly rendered by the youngest member of the class, Carolyn Hawkins, the five and one-half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hawkins. The other numbers as follows were well rendered: "Buttercups" by Mary Wiggins, "The Bumble Bee" by Helen Sanders, "The Water Mill" by Rebecca Putnam, "Lazy Mary" by Shirley Philbeck, "Valse in A Flat" by Frances Jones and "Grand Valse de C Concert" by Louise Hamrick. During the business meeting the members organized a club, selecting the name "B. Natural Music Club," with the following officers: President, Ruby Morgan; treasurer, Jane Washburn; vice president, Louise Hamrick; secretary, Pauline Hewitt of Lattimore. It was decided to meet once each month. Miss Bostic and Mrs. Morgan were assisted by Ruby Morgan and Mary Sue Walker in serving a delicious ice course.

White Elephant Party Friday

Mesdames Ed Post, D. M. Freeman and John Honeycutt were joint hostesses to the members of the D. Z. Newton Sunday School class members and a number of invited guests Friday afternoon, entertaining at the home of Mrs. Post on N. LaFayette street. The lower floor was elaborately decorated with fall flowers, the dining room table was centered with a large bowl of marigolds with lighted tapers of orange arranged in groups of three on either end. The meeting opened with a song, "Onward Christian Soldiers" after which Mrs. Post led the devotional and Mrs. J. T. Benson led prayer. Miss Mamie Jones was elected second vice president. Following the business session, Mrs. R. E. Fowler introduced an old fashioned game, Jack Baber sang "Duna" with Miss Jeanette Post playing the piano accompaniment. Miss Anna Beth Jones gave a humorous reading "A Confirmed Old Maid." All of the white elephant packages, which were attractively wrapped, were piled in the middle of the living room floor and numbered, each person drawing and when all were drawn, there was much amusement in opening the packages at the same time. The guests were invited to the dining room and served a delightful salad and sweet course, buffet style.

There were fifty class members present and five new names added to the roll.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 7.—An eight-hour day for private nurses was the main topic of discussion at the opening session of the convention of the southern division of American Nurses' association. Delegates were in attendance from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, North and South Carolina, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Virginia and Texas.

Slain in Palestine

Carrol Godfrey, of Brooklyn, N. Y., known on the stage as Joan Winter, who was mysteriously slain near the Garden of Gethsemane in Jerusalem. Beside the body of the American girl was that of her Indian guide, who also had been slain. Relatives of Miss Godfrey said she had traveled to the Holy Land to gather material for a book.

Bowed to NRA

Myron C. Taylor, chairman of the board of the Bethlehem Steel Corp., leaving the White House after conference with President Roosevelt. NRA officials and other steel heads on the "captive mines" situation. He was later announced the steel men had agreed to recognize labor unions.

The animal husbandry department at State college recently purchased 11 high grade Hereford and Angus steers from Allegheny county farmers for some experimental work.

MORE GOOD USED CARS EASY PAYMENTS Rogers Motors

As Greek Court Freed Insull

Samuel Insull, former Chicago utilities czar, pictured with one of his attorneys in court at Athens, Greece, during hearing when the United States Government sought to extradite him to his native land for questioning in connection with the crash of his concern. The refusal of the Greek Government to extradite Insull makes him a free man as long as he remains in Greece.

Nurses Seek Shorter Hours In Carolina

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 7.—An eight-hour day for private nurses was the main topic of discussion at the opening session of the convention of the southern division of American Nurses' association. Delegates were in attendance from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, North and South Carolina, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Virginia and Texas.

Tuberculosis Takes Many In Carolina

Raleigh, Nov. 7.—Tuberculosis in all forms was responsible for 2,300 deaths in North Carolina last year. Of this number, 2,018 deaths were from tuberculosis of the respiratory system. North Carolina was the usual place of residence of 1,917 of these, leaving 101 persons who were residents of other states, a table prepared by the state board of health shows.

"Quart-A-Month" Law Ruies In S. C.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 8.—Legal authorities agree generally that upon repeal of the 18th amendment the "quart-a-month" law will be the governing statute on liquor in South Carolina. In order to obtain liquor under this act, an affidavit must be filed with a county judge or probate and a permit secured upon payment of a ten-cent fee. Carriers transporting the beverage into the state are required to keep complete records and report weekly to county clerks of court. The "quart-a-month" law was enacted in 1917 following the "gallop-a-month" act which it superseded.

Rally At Colored Church At Lawndale

A rally will be held at the Lawndale Baptist church (colored) on the third Sunday in November. An elaborate program has been prepared by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Surratt. He will preach a sermon, also Rev. W. R. Bardley of Conover. Singing will be a special feature of the program. Refreshments will be served.

Strawberry Circulars

C. B. Williams, head of the agronomy department, announces that two information circulars on experiments in strawberry culture and fertilization, Nos. 82 and 83, are ready for distribution, as well as No. 81 which deals with breeding corn for higher acre-yields. Warren county farmers are storing their cotton for ten cents loans instead of selling it at present prices. Several have been forced to sell

Age No Bar As Many Old-Timers Succeed

Board.—Three days and two years are not unduly developed sit-by-the fires here. Of human interest beside the mere fact of age was the "debut" of Mrs. Ella Edwards, age 76, loved marriage head of a musical family of eight children, 25 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren—a 100-cent revival service at the Baptist church here. "Grandma Ella" has always wanted to sing a quartet with her youngest son and with one granddaughter at the organ. Her 76th year she sang, "Auld Lang Syne" and another at the organ. She sang! She also was taken in church plays and pageants in recent years. "Kathleen Telford" respected farmer of the Galax community, does not let his years stand in the way of his sport. He went hunting last week and killed a rabbit on the run at approximately 75 yards. Mrs. George Harris, age 85, still can beat practiced players at checkers.

Eats 16 Bananas In Five Minutes

A fruit dealer in Laurinburg found a quick taker to the offer. "All the Bananas you can eat in five minutes for a dime." Nelson Gibson, 18-year-old painter, paid over the dime, the with Policeman Sandy Deaton heading a timepiece, gulped down 16 bananas before the time limited expired. Gibson apologetically explained he could have done better, but the comments of the crowd caused him to laugh at the wrong time.

LADIES' NOVELTY SWEATERS 98c

BELK - STEVENS COMPANY

DRESS SALE !!

SPECIAL PURCHASE!

If you haven't purchased the backbone frocks of your winter wardrobe yet, you're in luck! For here are the very frocks you want at a special low price. You can indulge your finest taste and pamper your purse to the tune of $7.95—which is very small, considering the grand quality each dress represents.

LADIES' TURTLE NECK SWEATERS $1.48 - $1.98

AN UNUSUAL SALE OF DRESSES

Above $12.95 Values At The First of the Season

BLACK TOAST BROWN, CHINESE BLUE, Blue Eagle Blue $9.95

There's everything your fashionable soul could desire! Clever flower bib, and all the clever creations that have caught Paris favor.

— NEW DRESSES —

A Complete Showing $2.98 $3.98 $4.95 $5.95

JUST ARRIVED!

POLO COATS

SEMI-DRESS COATS, TWEED COATS

Browns - Greens - Rusts

Carefully tailored and well lined. These fabrics are of the same fine quality that we have seen in coats selling for much more.

$14.95

FUR TRIMMED COATS

SPECIAL SALE $11.95

Other Coats $2.98 to $5.95

Any size.

School Dresses

Attractive styles and colors that are in demand. All sizes.

79c to 1.98

Silk Dresses

New colors and styles. Sizes 8 to 14. These are better dresses usually carried by stores in larger cities.

$2.98

Knit Dresses and Jumper Styles

We invite you to inspect these new style dresses that have been carefully selected for this store.

$2.48

$2.48