Wade Whisnant Shot In John River Area

Thighs Peppered with Buckshot in Accidental Shooting By His Uncle.

Morganton News-Herald.

Wade Whisnant, who lives in the Johns river section, was painfully injured shortly after noon Saturpered with birdshot discharged from a shotgun in the nands of his uncle, F. A. Baker.

Whisnant is recovering satisfactority at the home of his uncle, although he is suffering from the painful wounds. About 80 shot entered the thighs, it is said.

Whisnant and Baker, in company with Charles Baker and Fred Parks, were hunting birds near the Baker home, located near the John river bridge, when the accidentthe first of the season-occurred Baker is said to have trained his gun on a "single," firing toward a illtop. Apparently, he did not see Whisnant, who was in direct path of the line of fire.
