

SOCIETY NEWS

Mrs. Renn Drum, Editor

Mrs. Drum may be reached each morning at The Star Office over Telephone No. 4-J. At other times at her home Telephone No. 713.

To Entertain

For Fortnight Club
Mr. and Mrs. Jean Schenck will entertain members of the Fortnight bridge club this evening at 7 o'clock at a regular meeting.

Washington School P. T. A.

To Have Meeting
The parent teacher association of the Washington school will hold its December meeting on Monday evening at 7:30 at the school auditorium.
All members are especially urged to be present.

Polkville Woman's Club To Meet

A regular meeting of the Polkville Woman's club will be held on Tuesday afternoon, December 5, at 2:30.
Mrs. J. D. Palmer and Miss Mary Turner will be joint hostesses.

Methodist Circles

Meet Monday At 3:30 O'clock
Fannie Heck circle with Mrs. J. R. McClure.
Betty Lineberger circle with Mrs. Will Lineberger.

Mr. and Mrs. Armour Hosts At Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Armour were gracious hosts at a delightful Thanksgiving dinner at their home on N. Morgan street yesterday. Covers were laid for: Mr. and Mrs. Armour, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller, and Miss Jennie Miller of Griffin, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beckham and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Babington.

Informal Party For College Crowd

Miss Ruth DePriest, home from Mitchell college for the holiday, entertained last evening at her home on Cleveland Springs road at an informal party for members of the college set who are spending the holidays in the city with home folks. Dancing, bridge and progressive dates furnished the evening's entertainment.
A number of out-of-town holiday visitors enjoyed the occasion.

Miss Ray Ellis Is Bridge Club Hostess

The home of Miss Ray Ellis on W. Warren street, decorated with fall flowers and potted plants, formed an attractive setting for bridge on Monday evening when Miss Ellis entertained members of the Double Deck bridge club.
After several enjoyable progressions scores were added and the prize for top score went to Miss Bernice Shytle.
The hostess was assisted by Miss Lena Daniels in serving a salad course with accessories.

Tuesday Literary Clubs To Meet

Members of the Contemporary o'clock at a pretty party in honor Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at a regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Oliver Anthony in Belvedere Heights.
Mrs. Jean Schenck will be hostess on Tuesday afternoon at 3:45 to members of the Renaissance Study club, entertaining at her home in Cleveland Springs Estates.
A regular meeting of the Reviewers Book club will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. Clyde Nolan as hostesses.

Monday Night Club With Mr. and Mrs. Grigg

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Grigg entertained members of the Monday night bridge club at a delightful meeting on Monday evening at their home in Belvedere Heights.
High score prizes, awarded at the close of the evening's play, were won by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooke.
Mrs. K. C. Nichols of Asheville, guests of her daughter, Mrs. Cooke, was a special guest outside the club membership.
Mrs. Grigg served a tempting salad course with sweets.

Lucy Hoyle Missionary Circle To Meet Monday

A meeting of the Lucy Hoyle Missionary circle of the Central Methodist church will be held on Monday afternoon at the church at 3:30. Hostesses will be Mrs. Billy Davis and Mrs. Durant Crowder.
Special attention of members is called to the change from the regular meeting date to Monday. Newly elected officers who have just been installed will take up their duties at this meeting.
All members are cordially urged to be present.

Mrs. Logan Gives Dinner Party

(Special To The Star.)
Mrs. H. A. Logan gave a delightful dinner party last evening at 6 o'clock at her home on North Morgan street in honor of her son, Evans Logan, tackle on the Oak Ridge team.
Mrs. Logan was assisted by her daughters, Mesdames Yates Mc-

Swain, Dean Duncan, H. A. Logan, Jr. and Miss Dovie Logan in entertaining and serving a four course dinner. Covers were laid for the following, all belonging to the Oak Ridge ball team: Evans Logah, Coach Wright, Coach Hodges, Major Larkin, J. F. Jenkins, Heywood, Dail, Harrison, Hill, Maroose, Crochet, Cole, Mustadio, Gilham, Helms, Brockman, Levy, Sprull, Wylie, Ingerham, Phelps, Sutton, Hendrick, Sands, Fitzhugh, Ham Seago and Barnes.

Lutherans Begin New Church Year

On Sunday, December 3, members of the local Lutheran church will begin the new church year, it being the first Sunday in Advent. All members are expected to be present for the 11 o'clock service, at which time the church roll will be called.
At the 5 o'clock service a public thank offering service will be held and a pageant will be presented under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary society.

Readers' Club Has Interesting Meeting

An interesting meeting of the Readers club was held last Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. Jap Suttle as hostess at her new home in Cleveland Springs Estates.
The program included an interesting discussion of current events by Mrs. J. W. Harbison and a paper by Mrs. D. R. Yates, giving a review of "Dark Hazard," by W. R. Burnett.

Mrs. Suttle was assisted in serving a tempting salad course by her little granddaughter, Gloria Farnell, of Greensboro, and by Mrs. Ben Suttle, who was an invited guest.

Birthday Party For Viola Weir

Mrs. John Weir entertained on Wednesday evening from 7 to 8:30 o'clock at a pretty party in honor of the ninth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Viola. Various games and contests furnished the evening's amusement. Contest prizes were won by Constance Isler and Theresa Paysour.
After an hour's fun the children were invited into the dining room where the birthday cake was cut and served with punch and sweets.
The young honoree received an attractive collection of gifts from her guests.

Mrs. Weir was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Maggie Trout of Forest City, and by Mrs. J. L. Calhoun.

First Division To Meet On Wednesday

The first division of the Woman's club will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. R. E. Campbell with Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. J. A. Liles and Mrs. J. H. Toms as joint hostesses.
Mrs. Richard Riviere will be leader for the afternoon.
Attention of members is especially called to the change of the meeting date from Thursday to Wednesday, and also to the fact that this meeting is to be "bundle day." Each member is requested to bring a bundle of food, clothing or something to be contributed to the needy of the city. It is hoped that the offering will be generous.

Women's Club Beauty Show Well Attended

Members of the local Woman's club were gratified at the results of the "beauty" show, in which men of the city in women's clothes acted as models, which was put on at the high school auditorium on Tuesday evening. A large and appreciative audience was in attendance and a nice sum was realized, which will be used by the Woman's club on a civic improvement project.

Due to various reasons a number of the entrants announced in a previous issue of The Star were unable to appear. Thirty-four of the originally-listed entrants took part in the show.
Charles Wray, modelling for Austin-Cornwell drug store, was selected as "Miss Shelby" and received the first prize.

East Shelby Club Holds Meeting

The first division of the East Shelby Woman's club held its regular meeting Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the club room in Jefferson school house. The president, Mrs. H. E. Waldrop called the meeting to order. The group sang Carolina and repeated the Collect. Mrs. Max Hamrick read the 100th Psalm. After the regular business session the club resumed its study of "Well Balanced Menus" under direction of Miss Margaret Anthony who also gave the club a Thanksgiving dinner menu with recipes.
Two new members were welcomed into the club, Mrs. W. E. Franks and Mrs. F. R. Warlick. Mrs. Summey Hendricks was present. During the social half hour the hostesses, Mesdames Henderson, Clayton Newton, Grady Bright and Jap Dayberry served a delicious sweet course.

Walker Family Has Thanksgiving Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Delfau Walker and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Walker of near Lattimore entertained at a family dinner yesterday which was attended by the following members of the family and friends of the family: Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Edwards, G. M. Edwards and D. P. Edwards, all of Lawndale; Dr. D. Edwards, W. C. Edwards of Ellenboro; A. L. Edwards of Belwood; Mr. and Mrs. Morgan D. Walker of Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoyle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Walker, Bob Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan D. Walker and Mr. and Mrs. George Cabanis, all of Shelby; Dr. and Mrs. Robert R. King of Ellenboro and Frank Hicks.

Wednesday Contract Club With Mrs. Beam

Mrs. Shovine Beam was a cordial hostess on Wednesday afternoon at her pretty home on S. LaFayette street when she entertained members of the Wednesday Contract bridge club and a number of invited guests. The tables were arranged for play in the living room and parlor which were attractively decorated with autumn leaves, chrysanthemums and potted plants. The Thanksgiving idea was observed in details of decorations and refreshments.
When scores were added at the close of several progressions the fortunate winners of prizes were: Mrs. Ward Arey, winner of first prize and Mrs. Charles Lever, winner of second prize for members; and Mrs. R. U. Woods, who won the top score prize for visitors.
Invited guests outside the club membership were: Mrs. Woods, Miss Burton Gettys, Mrs. Everette Houser Miss Carobel Lever, and Mrs. D. R. Yates.
A tempting chicken salad course with accessories and sweets was served.

Ingram-King Marriage Solemnized Wednesday

In a ceremony characterized by simplicity and beauty, Miss Kathleen King and J. Mack Ingram were married Wednesday evening at 5:30 o'clock at Patterson Springs Baptist church with Rev. W. G. Camp of Cherryville, pastor of the bride, officiating, the ring ceremony being used.
Miss Minnie King, sister of the bride, was at the piano. She wore a dress of Spanish tile crepe with a shoulder corsage of snapdragons and fern. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the bridal party took their places before the altar which had been artistically arranged with southern pines and cedars interspersed with baskets of chrysanthemums, floor baskets of orchid chrysanthemums were placed on either side of the altar.
The only attendants were two little flower girls, Louise Chandler and Janice Bridgell. Little Miss Chandler, niece of the groom, was dressed in orchid organdie with ruffled skirt made floor length with which she wore hair ribbon of the same shade. She carried a basket of pink snapdragons with fern. Little Miss Bridges, niece of the bride, was dressed in green organdie made on the same lines and wore a green hair ribbon. She carried a basket of yellow calendulas with fern. They entered first and took their places before the altar.
The bride and groom entered to a brown swager suit with brown accessories. A corsage of snapdragons and swainsonia tied with tulle ribbon completed her costume.
To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the bridal party left the church.
Mrs. Ingram is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. King of Patterson Springs. She is a girl of pleasing personality and prominent in social and religious circles in that section.
Mr. Ingram is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ingram of Albemarle. He holds a position in Shelby with the Misenheimer Trucking company.
After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Ingram will be at home at 606 N. LaFayette street, Shelby.

Worker Is Killed When Boiler Bursts

Forest City, Nov. 30.—Carl Bridges, 32, was killed at a sawmill near here when the boiler burst. The cause of the explosion was unknown.

100 Men To Get Great Smoky Jobs

Jobs for one hundred men in the Great Smoky Mountains National park in North Carolina are included in the plans announced today by Secretary Ickes to put 10,865 men to work on national parks and monuments.
The Great Smokies would be allotted 600 jobs but 500 of these would be in that portion of the park that lies in Tennessee.
The labor cost for the North Carolina project would total $3,800 a month with the total monthly cost estimated at $7,278.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Jim Peeler was able to leave the Shelby hospital Tuesday and return to her home at Belwood.

Mrs. Kimmie Falls fell at the home of Mr. J. Z. Falls on West Marion street yesterday breaking the two bones in her left wrist.

Miss Mary Hanna left Tuesday for Anniston, Ala., to spend the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. J. A. Harrill and son William Harrill left this morning for Greenville, S. C., to visit the former's brother, Dr. W. C. Black, who is quite ill at his home there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Beason and Mrs. J. A. Lee were dinner guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Burnette at Bolling Springs where Mr. Beason's children all gathered and celebrated his birthday anniversary with a Thanksgiving dinner.

D. R. Frazier, Paul Webb, Jr., and Dr. A. Pitt Beam went hunting yesterday at Mr. Frazier's home in Happy Valley.

Eubert Irvin has been transferred from Salisbury to Smithfield where he begins work this week.

Mrs. B. H. Palmer had as guests yesterday: Mrs. E. C. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Anthony of Lincolnton.

Mrs. C. C. Craig of Merchantville, N. J., arrived yesterday for a visit to her sister, Miss Ella MacNichols.

Mrs. D. R. Frazier and two sons returned last night from a Thanksgiving visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boyette at Monroe.

Mrs. W. L. Packard and Miss Jennie Lee Packard spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. George Shuford at Cliffside.

Mrs. F. E. Starnes and son Francis, Jr., of Albemarle were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blanton Thanksgiving.

Mrs. K. C. Nichols of Asheville who has been spending two months here with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Cooke, and Mr. Cooke, leaves Sunday for Tarpon Springs, Fla., where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. H. P. Britt of Charlotte is spending Thanksgiving here with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Thompson, and Mr. Thompson on W. Marion street.

Mrs. Mason Carroll, with a party of friends from Greenville, S. C., left Wednesday night for New York City to spend a week.

Mrs. R. Glenn Nichols and little son, Jack Glenn, of Chicago returned to their home this morning after a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Pounds, of this city. Miss Mildred Pounds returned home with them for an extended visit.

Miss Emily Miller, Miss Mary Neel Cummings and Gene Miller of Raleigh spent the day here, yesterday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh G. Miller, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Miller and their guests attended the football game in Charlotte in the afternoon.

Miss Elizabeth Thompson, student at A. S. T. C., Boone, spent Thanksgiving day here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rush Thompson.

Concord Daily Tribune: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Barber, whose marriage was a recent event of statewide interest, returned last night from their wedding trip through Georgia and Florida. After December 1st they will be at home to their friends at 96 West Depot street.

Frank Sherrill of Charlotte and J. D. Lineberger returned home yesterday from a business trip to Washington, D. C. Mr. Sherrill accompanied Mr. Lineberger to Shelby to visit his parents, Rev. C. F. Sherrill and Mrs. Sherrill.

Judge and Mrs. E. Y. Webb Miss Lily Taylor and Jimmy Taylor attended the Davidson-Wake Forest game in Charlotte yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson, Mrs. Norris Lackey and Sherrill Lineberger left this morning for Atlanta, Ga., where they will attend the Duke-Tech game tomorrow.

Miss Irene Davis of Glen Alpine is spending the Thanksgiving holidays in the city with her aunt, Mrs. Grover Beam, and Mr. Beam.

Mr. and Mrs. Zack Groome and son, Zack, Jr., spent the day yesterday at Groomtown visiting the former's brother, Paul Groome, and Mrs. Groome.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Yates of Winston-Salem were guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Anthony Mrs. Yates, sister of Mrs. Anthony remained for a few days visit.

Mrs. Newton Farnell and little daughter, Gloria, of Greensboro, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jap Suttle.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Webb and Billy, will spend the week-end in Asheville.

Melvin Gibson of Marion visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Riviere yesterday.

Mrs. George Abernethy and son, G. G., Jr., of Oceanview, Va., with Mrs. Abernethy's mother, Mrs. Greenstreet, are spending several weeks in the city visiting relatives.

Miss Annie Ruth Dellinger, student at North Carolina Woman's college, Greensboro, with two school friends, Misses June Hodges, of Orangeburg, S. C., and Elizabeth Sparger of Greensboro, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Dellinger.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Cooper, of Mayesville, S. C., arrived Wednesday to spend the remainder of the week with their daughter, Mrs. S. F. Parker and Dr. Parker.

Miss Sara Burton Jenkins, who teaches at Hillsboro, is spending Thanksgiving here with her mother, Mrs. J. Frank Jenkins, on South Washington street.

Miss Grace Mary Justice of Marion is spending several days with Miss Rachel Wells. Miss Wells and her guest attended the football game in Charlotte yesterday and will attend the dance at the Hotel Charles this evening.

Graham Miller, student at State college, Raleigh, spent the day here yesterday with his grandmother, Mrs. A. C. Miller, on S. Washington street.

Cliff Johnson of Greensboro spent Thanksgiving here with his mother, Mrs. M. H. Hickson.

Albert Suttle, of Wake Forest college, is spending the holiday week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Suttle.

Glen Justus, Youth Of Forest City Dies

Forest City, Nov. 30.—Glen Justus, aged 14, died this morning in a Charlotte hospital, where he was taken several days ago.
Funeral arrangements have not been made tonight. Glenn was a nephew of W. L. Brown, secretary of Forest City B. & L. association and for the last 10 years had made his home here with his uncle.
He is survived by his mother, who resides in Hot Springs, and some brothers and sisters, in addition to his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brown.

Dr. I. G. Greer At First Baptist

Dr. I. G. Greer, manager of the Mills Home at Thomasville, will bring the message at the First Baptist church, on next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. On next Sunday the annual Thanksgiving offering will be made to the home. More than 800 children in North Carolina are being cared for by this home. Dr. Wall has asked Mr. Greer to bring with him the two boys who spoke recently before the Baptist state convention at Greensboro.
The day's activities and services at the church will open with the Sunday school at 9:30. Every one is extended a warm invitation.
In the evening at 6:45 o'clock the training organizations are working for an attendance of more than 400. All B. Y. P. U.'s and B. A. U.'s have set special goals for next Sunday evening.
At 7:30 o'clock the unified preaching and worship service will be held. Dr. Wall will bring the message. At the conclusion of the service the ordinance of baptism will be administered.
Mr. Eason announces splendid musical programs for all services during the day. The public is invited to all services of the church.

Sam L. Burgin Of Rutherford Dies

Prominent Planter Of Plains, Ga., Formerly Of Rutherford County.
Rutherfordton, Nov. 29.—Sam L. Burgin, prominent planter of Plains, Ga., a former resident of Charlotte and Rutherfordton, died here last night near midnight at the home of Mrs. K. J. Carpenter, his mother-in-law.
He is survived by his widow; two sisters, Mrs. James Morris, Marion and Mrs. John Gudger of Mt. Airy; and five brothers, Frank Burgin, Atlanta, Ga.; J. S. Burgin, Bema Vista, Ga.; W. O. Burgin, Lexington; Charles Burgin, Marion, and Ralph Burgin, Winston-Salem. He was a Spanish war veteran, member of the Presbyterian church and a member of a prominent family.
Funeral will be held here Thanksgiving day at 2 o'clock and interment will follow in the Rutherfordton cemetery.

Banker Sentenced In False Entries

Charles Kirby of Spartanburg Gets Year In Pen; Took $18,000 School Fund
Anderson, S. C., Dec. 1.—A sentence of a year and a day in Atlanta federal prison was given Charles C. Kirby, former Spartanburg banker, today when he pleaded guilty in U. S. district court here to making false entries in the books of the Central National bank of Spartanburg.
Kirby, who was vice president of the bank and secretary and treasurer of the Spartanburg school board, admitted taking $18,000 of school district funds and hiding the abstractions by falsifying the bank's records.
He was indicted also for embezzlement, but since none of the bank's money was involved, this charge was stricken from the indictment. The abstractions from the school funds began in 1928 and were not revealed until the bank was closed last March and an audit made.
Kirby turned over his property to the school system in repayment of the money taken.

Kings Mtn. News Of Current Week

Quiet Thanksgiving. Legion Auxiliary Meets. Students Home For Holidays.

By MRS. B. J. KING

Kings Mountain, Dec. 1.—Thanksgiving passed very quietly in Kings Mountain. The stores of the city were closed for the day, the drug stores observing Sunday hours. The grocery stores were open for two hours in the morning. Postal employees had the day off. The city hall remained closed for the day. The schools of the city closed Wednesday to reopen Monday morning.

The American Legion auxiliary met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ed Campbell with Mrs. Lee Harmon as joint hostess. The president of the unit Mrs. Paul Mauney presided over the meeting. Following the singing of America the chaplain of the unit Mrs. B. F. Ormand who is also state chaplain led in prayer. Interesting features of the meeting were the reports from the district meeting held recently in Newton and the meeting of the executive board held in North Wilkesboro given by Mrs. Paul Mauney and Mrs. B. F. Ormand. The unit voted to send five patients assigned to them at Oteen $1 each as a Thanksgiving remembrance. During the social hour delightful refreshments were served. The auxiliary was happy to have as a new member Mrs. W. C. Caveny and as a visitor Mrs. Mauly Morehead.
Among the students from the various college at home for the Thanksgiving were: Miss Alice Elam and Mr. Phillip Elam from Wingate junior college, Miss Nancy Hord from North Carolina university for women, Mr. Francis Justice from the University of North Carolina.
Miss Paulie Adair, one of the teachers in the city schools is spending the Thanksgiving holidays in Spartanburg.
Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ormand have as spend-the-day guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Ormand of Gastonia, and Miss Mildred Ormand of Spartanburg.
Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Turner and R. G., Jr., of Greer, S. C., were guests of Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Justice.
Misses Grace Fortune and Octavia Crawford, teachers in the Mecklenburg county schools are spending the holidays at home.
Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Howell and children, Mary Lou and Jimmie, of Greensboro, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Howell's parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. T. Howell.
Attorney Ector Harrill is confined to his home with an eye infection.

Grandmother's SLICED BREAD 16-Oz. LOAF 6c
CHIPSO, 2 pkgs., 13c | Ivory Soap, 2 med., 11c

A. & P. SWEET PEAS 2 No. 2 Cans 35c

QUAKER MAID BEANS, 1 lb. can 5c

Produce Specials

Fresh String Beans, 2 lb. 15c
APPLES, 10 lb. 25c
GRAPES, 2 lb. 15c
CELERY, Bunch 10c
LETTUCE, Head 5c
Fresh SPINACH, lb. 10c

Market Specials

SMALL PORK HAM— 1/2 or Whole, 12 1/2c
Pound 12 1/2c
PORK RIBS, 10c
Pound 10c
BEEF ROAST, 10c
Pound 10c
BEEF STEW, 5c
Pound 5c
LIVER MUSH, 25c
4 lb.
Morning Glory Hams, 1/2 or whole 17c

Banker Sentenced In False Entries

Charles Kirby of Spartanburg Gets Year In Pen; Took $18,000 School Fund
Anderson, S. C., Dec. 1.—A sentence of a year and a day in Atlanta federal prison was given Charles C. Kirby, former Spartanburg banker, today when he pleaded guilty in U. S. district court here to making false entries in the books of the Central National bank of Spartanburg.
Kirby, who was vice president of the bank and secretary and treasurer of the Spartanburg school board, admitted taking $18,000 of school district funds and hiding the abstractions by falsifying the bank's records.
He was indicted also for embezzlement, but since none of the bank's money was involved, this charge was stricken from the indictment. The abstractions from the school funds began in 1928 and were not revealed until the bank was closed last March and an audit made.
Kirby turned over his property to the school system in repayment of the money taken.

Banker Sentenced In False Entries

Charles Kirby of Spartanburg Gets Year In Pen; Took $18,000 School Fund
Anderson, S. C., Dec. 1.—A sentence of a year and a day in Atlanta federal prison was given Charles C. Kirby, former Spartanburg banker, today when he pleaded guilty in U. S. district court here to making false entries in the books of the Central National bank of Spartanburg.
Kirby, who was vice president of the bank and secretary and treasurer of the Spartanburg school board, admitted taking $18,000 of school district funds and hiding the abstractions by falsifying the bank's records.
He was indicted also for embezzlement, but since none of the bank's money was involved, this charge was stricken from the indictment. The abstractions from the school funds began in 1928 and were not revealed until the bank was closed last March and an audit made.
Kirby turned over his property to the school system in repayment of the money taken.

Banker Sentenced In False Entries

Charles Kirby of Spartanburg Gets Year In Pen; Took $18,000 School Fund
Anderson, S. C., Dec. 1.—A sentence of a year and a day in Atlanta federal prison was given Charles C. Kirby, former Spartanburg banker, today when he pleaded guilty in U. S. district court here to making false entries in the books of the Central National bank of Spartanburg.
Kirby, who was vice president of the bank and secretary and treasurer of the Spartanburg school board, admitted taking $18,000 of school district funds and hiding the abstractions by falsifying the bank's records.
He was indicted also for embezzlement, but since none of the bank's money was involved, this charge was stricken from the indictment. The abstractions from the school funds began in 1928 and were not revealed until the bank was closed last March and an audit made.
Kirby turned over his property to the school system in repayment of the money taken.

Banker Sentenced In False Entries

Charles Kirby of Spartanburg Gets Year In Pen; Took $18,000 School Fund
Anderson, S. C., Dec. 1.—A sentence of a year and a day in Atlanta federal prison was given Charles C. Kirby, former Spartanburg banker, today when he pleaded guilty in U. S. district court here to making false entries in the books of the Central National bank of Spartanburg.
Kirby, who was vice president of the bank and secretary and treasurer of the Spartanburg school board, admitted taking $18,000 of school district funds and hiding the abstractions by falsifying the bank's records.
He was indicted also for embezzlement, but since none of the bank's money was involved, this charge was stricken from the indictment. The abstractions from the school funds began in 1928 and were not revealed until the bank was closed last March and an audit made.
Kirby turned over his property to the school system in repayment of the money taken.

Banker Sentenced In False Entries

Charles Kirby of Spartanburg Gets Year In Pen; Took $18,000 School Fund
Anderson, S. C., Dec. 1.—A sentence of a year and a day in Atlanta federal prison was given Charles C. Kirby, former Spartanburg banker, today when he pleaded guilty in U. S. district court here to making false entries in the books of the Central National bank of Spartanburg.
Kirby, who was vice president of the bank and secretary and treasurer of the Spartanburg school board, admitted taking $18,000 of school district funds and hiding the abstractions by falsifying the bank's records.
He was indicted also for embezzlement, but since none of the bank's money was involved, this charge was stricken from the indictment. The abstractions from the school funds began in 1928 and were not revealed until the bank was closed last March and an audit made.
Kirby turned over his property to the school system in repayment of the money taken.

Banker Sentenced In False Entries

Charles Kirby of Spartanburg Gets Year In Pen; Took $18,000 School Fund
Anderson, S. C., Dec. 1.—A sentence of a year and a day in Atlanta federal prison was given Charles C. Kirby, former Spartanburg banker, today when he pleaded guilty in U. S. district court here to making false entries in the books of the Central National bank of Spartanburg.
Kirby, who was vice president of the bank and secretary and treasurer of the Spartanburg school board, admitted taking $18,000 of school district funds and hiding the abstractions by falsifying the bank's records.
He was indicted also for embezzlement, but since none of the bank's money was involved, this charge was stricken from the indictment. The abstractions from the school funds began in 1928 and were not revealed until the bank was closed last March and an audit made.
Kirby turned over his property to the school system in repayment of the money taken.

HAVE YOUR EYES EXAMINED - GLASSES FITTED - PAY WEEKLY - DR. D. M. MORRISON
Optometrist — Eye Specialist — Royster Building
Office Days Each Tuesday — Friday Morning and Saturday
Eyes Examined, Glasses Fitted and Repaired

SPECIAL LOW PRICE ON EIGHT O'CLOCK COFFEE
MILD AND MELLOW L.B. 15c

ALL FLAVORS SPARKLE Gelatin Dessert PKG. 5c
IONA FLOUR
Plain or Self-rising.
24 L.B. BAG 89c

Grandmother's SLICED BREAD 16-Oz. LOAF 6c
CHIPSO, 2 pkgs., 13c | Ivory Soap, 2 med., 11c

A. & P. SWEET PEAS 2 No. 2 Cans 35c
SUNNYFIELD BUTTER
1-LB. PRINTS, lb. 27c

QUAKER MAID BEANS, 1 lb. can 5c
Produce Specials
Fresh String Beans, 2 lb. 15c
APPLES, 10 lb. 25c
GRAPES, 2 lb. 15c
CELERY, Bunch 10c
LETTUCE, Head 5c
Fresh SPINACH, lb. 10c

Market Specials
SMALL PORK HAM— 1/2 or Whole, 12 1/2c
Pound 12 1/2c
PORK RIBS, 10c
Pound 10c
BEEF ROAST, 10c
Pound 10c
BEEF STEW, 5c
Pound 5c
LIVER MUSH, 25c
4 lb.
Morning Glory Hams, 1/2 or whole 17c

SPECIAL PRICE THIS WEEK-END
3-Piece OVERSTUFFED LIVING ROOM SUITES 1934 Styles
69.50
$5 Down and Easy Weekly Payments
In assorted colors. A champion value at this season.
Kester-Groome Furniture Co.