Birthday Party For Charles Mauney

(Special to The Star.) Mrs. R. G. Mauney was hostess at a lovely party on Saturday afternoon at her home on Lee street from 3 to 5 o'clock honoring her son, Charles, on his eleventh birthday anniversary.

The home was prettily decorated with a Christmas tree, holly and potted plants.

Miss Lucy Yelton greeted the guests and entertained them with many interesting games and contests. Joe Mull won the contest prize.

At the close of the games the children were invited into the dining room where they found pretty colored balloons hanging from the walls as souvenirs for the guests. The table was centered with a beautiful white birthday cake with eleven pink burning candles and four tall lighted candles at the corners of the table.

Mrs. Mauney was assisted by Miss Yelton, Mesdames Clyde Spangler and Chivins Spangler in serving delicious ice cream and cake. Charles received many useful presents from his friends.

Dorothy Elliott Celebrates Birthday

(Special to The Star.) Mrs. Coleman Elliott of Beams Mill entertained at a party on Monday afternoon from 2:30 till 4:30 celebrating the fifth birthday of her daughter, Dorothy.

Games were played and Christmas and birthday songs were sung by the children after which they were invited into the dining room for refreshments. Cakes, cookies, ice cream and grape juice were served. A white birthday cake with five candles centered the table. Christmas decorations were used throughout the home.

When the children had returned to the sitting room old Saint Nick paid a visit, giving each child a red basket of candy. Dorothy received many pretty gifts.

Mrs. Smith Is Twice Hostess

Mrs. F. O. Smith was a charming hostess on Wednesday when she entertained at two parties, in the afternoon and the evening. Yesterday afternoon her guests included members of the Round Dorem Bridge club and a few visitors. Christmas decorations were used in the rooms where the four tables were placed for play. When scores were counted the high score prize went to Mrs. Edgar Hamrick for visitors and to Mrs. Esley Pendleton for club members.

A tempting salad course followed by an iced course was served before the play began.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Smith were hosts to a group of friends, at a four-table bridge party. The prizes on this occasion were won by Mrs. Hopson Austell for ladies and by R. U. Woods for gentlemen.
