Lee's Truce Flag Left To Museum

An old piece of white towel, stamped "this towel was the first flag of truce sent in by the Confederate forces on the day General Lee surrendered," was among the effects of the window of General George Armstrong Custer, which were appraised in New York several days ago.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bacon Custer, widow of the Indian fighter and hero of Custer's land stand, left an estate appraised at $101,492 when she died last April 4, including such relics as a linen handkerchief said to have been used as a flag of truce at Appomattox.

The towel and the handkerchief were bequeathed to the government and other mementoes of General Custer's including his sword and scabbard, were left to the Smithsonian Institution.

Davidson To Mark 97th Anniversary On April Twelfth

Davidson, Mar. 8.—Davidson college will celebrate its 97th anniversary with the college's first official founders day program. The trustees of the college, meeting last month, set aside April 12 as the day for the celebration.

Plans for the day include a program at Davidson, with a prominent member of the alumni association as speaker. A music concert will probably be given in the afternoon, by either the band or some other college musical organization.

Alumni chapters all over the country will meet on the night of April 12 to celebrate the 97th anniversary of the founding of the college. Speakers from the faculty and administrative staff at the college will speak to the various chapters that night.

The program for Davidson's centennial, which comes in 1937, will be announced to the alumni and to the public on founders day. The program, which is expected to be completed by 1937, was adopted by the trustees at their recent meeting.

Wanted Cattle Shipped By Air, But Alas, No Sale

Quebec.—Charles Roth, of Winnemucca, Nev., wanted cattle at 15 cents a head and wanted them in a hurry. He wrote the sheriff of the Quebec district a request to ship by air mail 100 head of the best steers he had ready for market. Roth's letter, dated from Winnemucca, was as follows:
"Not so very long ago I read an article in the paper where Canadian sold cattle for 10 or 15 cents apiece; if that is so ship by air mail 100 head of the best steers you have ready for market and send the bill to H. A. Streeter, in care of the Old National bank, Winnemucca, Nev. If not, answer by air mail to Charles Roth or Mrs. Frank Roth."
Perhaps Mr. Roth was having a little fun. At any rate, there was no sale.
The polar regions of Mars are believed to have ice caps much like the same regions of the earth.
